The Special Committee on Correspondence with reference to a Pan-Presbyterian Council, presented their Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee, appointed by the General Assembly, at Baltimore in 1873, respectfully report, that, taking the occasion of the General Conference of the Evangelical Alliance at New-York, in October, 1873, they called together a large number of brethren belonging to many different branches of the great Presbyterian family of churches, men of influence from Canada, the Lower Provinces, England, Scotland, Ireland, France, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, and other countries of Europe, as well as representatives of the various Presbyterian bodies in the United States. In this Conference, your Committee found a very cordial approval of the idea of a Federal Union among all Presbyterian Churches, and of a Pan-Presbyterian Convention with such an end in view.

Your Committee, therefore, drew up a circular letter and sent it to thirty-five different Presbyterian bodies in Europe and America, inviting each to appoint Committees by whom the details of a General Convention might be settled. From all these Bodies we may hope to hear in a few months.

Your Committee would recommend, that this General Assembly appoint a Committee of fifteen to correspond with the Committees that shall be appointed by the other Bodies on this subject, with power to organize with them the General Convention proposed.

The Special Committee of the last Assembly, on the Debt of the Board of Education, presented their Report, which was accepted, and referred to the Standing Committee on Education.

The Special Committee appointed by the last General Assembly, on providing for a limited term of service in the Eldership, presented their Report, which was accepted, and placed on the docket.

The following telegram was received and ordered on the records of the Assembly :

"COLUMBUS, MISS., May 23, 1874.

"S. J. WILSON, Moderator Presbyterian General Assembly, St. Louis, Mo.:

"The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States fraternally acknowledge the Christian salutations of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., and wish them grace, mercy, and peace.

JOSEPH R. WILSON, Stated Clerk.
WILLIAM BROWN, Permanent Clerk."

The following resolution was adopted, viz. :

That hereafter the speeches on the Consolidation of the Boards be limited to ten minutes except by special permission of the Assembly.

It was

Resolved, That the Delegate of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America be heard at 2 o'clock this afternoon, and that immediately previous thereto the Report of the special Committee of the last Assembly on Conference with the Reformed Church be read.

The following telegram was received, and ordered on the records of the Assembly :

"SPRINGFIELD, MO., May 23, 1874.

"To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., now in session at St. Louis :

"The General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church sends greeting.

"We cordially reciprocate and indorse the very fraternal sentiments expressed in your telegram of to-day.

"Your brethren in Christ,

T. C. BLAKE, Moderator.
JOHN FRIZZELL, Stated Clerk."

It was

Resolved, That the Delegates from the Free Church of Scotland and the Presbyterian Church of Ireland be received at 8 o'clock this evening.

The order of the day having arrived, the Moderator responded to the addresses of the Delegates from Scotland and Ireland.

Resolved, That hereafter, when the time of a speaker is extended, it shall be for five minutes only.

The Standing Committee on Finance reported that the following papers have been placed in their hands :

1st. The Report of the Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly, from April 1, 1873, to April 1, 1874, certified as correct by their Committee on Accounts, showing that the receipts, inclusive of the balance from the previous year, were $28,033.77, and the expenditures, $25,252.59, leaving a balance, in the hands of the Treasurer, of $2781.18.

2d. The balance-sheet from the Ledger of the Treasurer of said Trustees.

3d. A specification of the items composing the cash balance above stated.

4th. A detailed statement of the income derived from investments made in the name of said Trustees.

5th. A detailed statement of additions made within the past year to the Permanent Funds by bequests, donations, etc., which, with the uninvested balance, April 1, 1873, amount to $13,801, from which sum there has been added to the permanent investments, in bonds and mortgages, $12,100 ; leaving $1701 yet to be invested.

6th. A tabular statement of the total investments made by the Trustees to April 1, 1874, amounting to $221,338.53.

7th. The account of the Treasurer of the General Assembly, accompanied by the necessary vouchers, comparing which with the account, your Committee have verified its correctness, showing a balance, in the hands of the Treasurer, of $930.97.

8th. The Report of the Treasurer of the Trustees of the Presbyterian House, duly audited, showing the receipts, including the balance of $965.24 from the previous Report, to have been $13,444.63 ; the amount distributed, $11,435.86 ; and the balance in the hands of the Treasurer, $2008.77. Accompanying this is a detailed statement of the Permanent Funds of this Trusteeship, amounting in all to $67,058. The Trustees state that the Benjamin Fund of $30,000 is not yet received, but that the interest is punctually paid in accordance with the terms of the will, and is distributed as required by the testator, viz., one third to Home Missions, one third to Foreign Missions, one sixth to Publication, and one sixth to Bible distribution.

We also transmit herewith the Twentieth Annual Report of the Trustees of the Presbyterian House to the General Assembly; and the joint action of a Committee referred to in the said Report, recommending the passage, by this Assembly, of the following Resolutions:

"Resolved, That there shall henceforward be but one corporate body for the purpose of receiving, holding, and administering the general trusts of the Church not otherwise provided for.

"Resolved, That this corporate body be 'The Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America,' as now existing; and that the necessary legislation be obtained in Pennsylvania for the purpose of declaring said Corporation to be the legal successor of 'The Trustees of the Presbyterian House,' and authorizing the latter corporation to transfer the property held by them to the former; and that the Act, a draft of which has been submitted to the Assembly, is approved by them for that purpose."

In conclusion, your Committee recommend,

1st. The approval of the Financial Reports and Accounts herein referred to; and that the same be published in the Appendix to the Minutes of this General Assembly.

2d. The adoption of the resolutions presented in the joint action of the Trustees of the General Assembly and the Trustees of the Presbyterian House, with reference to the consolidation of these trusts.

3d. The re-election of the Trustees of the Presbyterian House whose terms expire at this time, for a further term of two years.

The Report was adopted.

A Communication from certain members of the Old School Synod of Missouri was received, and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Moderator announced the following Committee on the Complaint from the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America: Rev. Messrs. Henry A. Nelson, James Eells, William Aikman, Boyd M. Kerr, and Josiah Milligan; and Messrs. Samuel M. Breckenridge and Noah C. McFarland.

Took a recess until 2.15 o'clock P.M.

After the recess, the Assembly resumed the consideration of the minority report on Consolidation.

The vote on the amendment under discussion was taken, and the amendment was lost.

The Rev. Robert R. Booth offered an amendment to the item under consideration, as follows:

The work of the Home Board is hereby divided into two Departments, that of Missions, and that of Sustentation, with a collection for each; and the Home Board is hereby ordered so to alter its rules as to adopt the Sustentation Scheme of the General Assembly in all cases to which it applies, subject to such modifications as the General Assembly may hereafter direct.

"All churches, aided by the Home Board, shall be required, by the Presbyteries, to come under the scheme of Sustentation so soon as they are able; and, as a rule of the Board, no church shall be continued in the Mission Department for a longer term than five years, unless for special and satisfactory reasons.

Under the action of the previous question, the amendment was adopted, and the main question was carried.

Adjourned until to-morrow at 9 o'clock A.M.
Closed with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 27th, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and spent the usual season in devotional exercises.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

It was resolved, that the half-hour from 9.30 to 10 o'clock each morning be devoted to miscellaneous business.

The Special Committee of the last Assembly on Life Insurance, presented their Report, which was accepted, and placed on the docket.

The Elder, Henry Putnam, Commissioner of the Presbytery of Bloomington, appeared, and was duly enrolled.

Resolved, That the same salutation which was sent to the other Presbyterian Assemblies be sent to the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church now in session at Monmouth, Illinois.

A Memorial, on the formation of a General Ecclesiastical Union of Presbyterians in India, was presented, and referred to the Committee on the Polity of the Church.

On the recommendation of the Judicial Committee, a Commission, consisting of the Rev. Messrs. Samuel A. Mutchmore, John P. Gulliver, George W. Zahniser, Daniel W. Fisher, and James L. Robertson; and Messrs. Dan P. Eells and Henry P. Schwartz, was appointed, to whom, by consent of parties, was referred Judicial Case No. 1, viz., "The Second Portuguese Church and Rev. Emanuel N. Pirez, of Jacksonville, Illinois, vs. The Synod of Illinois, Central."

The following paper was presented and referred to the Committee on the Polity of the Church:

"Is it in accordance with Presbyterian law and usage, that deacons distribute to the church-members the bread and wine in the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper?"

A paper in reference to Responsive Worship was presented, and referred to the Committee on the Polity of the Church.

The consideration of the minority report on the Consolidation of the Boards was resumed.

The Rev. Samuel J. Wilson offered the following amendment to Section II.:

1. Striking out the words "Committee of Freedmen," together with all subsequent words and phrases relating thereto, implying the incorporation of the Committee of Freedmen with the Board of Home Missions.

2. To insert in the Report the following section, viz.:

§ III. The Committee of Freedmen shall continue as at present located and constituted, for the period of ten years, during which period its affairs shall be conducted with the view to the final merging of the Committee with the Board of Home Missions.

The following substitute for the amendment of Mr. Wilson was offered:

"Work among the Freedmen shall constitute a distinct department of the Board of Home Missions, preserving its peculiar features and having its own Secretary, and collections shall be taken by the churches to aid this cause."

The substitute was lost.

The following amendment to the paper of Mr. Wilson was offered by Rev. Robert R. Booth:

"Instead of an extension of ten years, the period of five years shall be assigned, and as soon as possible the churches under the care of the Committee on Freedmen shall be transferred to the Board of Home Missions."

The amendment was adopted.

The amendment, proposed by the Rev. Samuel J. Wilson, as amended, was then adopted.

The Assembly took a recess until 2.15 o'clock P.M.

After the recess,

In the further discussion of Consolidation, speakers were limited to five minutes, unless by special permission of the house.

A paper on Systematic Benevolence was presented and referred to the Committee on Benevolence.

The fourth item of the minority report, "That Church Erection remain as it is," was adopted.

Under the operation of the previous question, on motion of the Rev. Robert R. Booth, it was Resolved, That a special committee of seven be appointed, to report to this Assembly, whether any, and if any, what specific action is needed to harmonize the working of the different interests thus intrusted to the Home Board.

The Committee was appointed as follows:

Rev. Messrs. Lyman H. Atwater, Robert R. Booth, Herrick Johnson, and John B. Stewart; and Messrs. Thomas O. Lowe, Horatio C. Newcomb, and Noah C. McFarland.

The sixth item of the minority report was then adopted, as follows:

The Permanent Committee of Benevolence and Finance shall be discontinued, with the grateful acknowledgment, by the Assembly, of the important work accomplished through this agency, stimulating liberality, and bringing into large prominence and favor the ideas of system and consecration in connection with offerings of benevolence.

A paper on weekly contributions, etc., was referred to the Standing Committee on Benevolence.

Pending a motion to adopt the fifth item of the minority report, viz, "That the Board of Publication remain as at present," the Assembly adjourned until to-morrow at 9 o'clock A.M.

Closed with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 28th, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and spent the usual time in devotional exercises.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented reports on the following Overtures:

No. 1. From the Texas Colony Association. Recommending that the papers be returned to the parties presenting them, and that the Assembly decline taking the action asked. Adopted.

No. 2. From the Presbytery of St. Paul,

No. 3. From the Presbytery of Philadelphia, Central,

No. 4. From the Presbytery of Des Moines, on the subject of Consolidation. Recommending that they be read to the Assembly, and no action proposed. Adopted.

No. 5. From the Presbytery of Cleveland, on divorce. Recommending that the Assembly refer, in reply, to the deliverances already made in full on the subject, as published in the Digest, pages 494, 682, 683. Adopted.

No. 6. From sundry persons connected with the Synod of Missouri, "Old School," as follows:

"To the Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, in session at St. Louis, May, 1874:

"At a recent conference of a few Presbyterians connected with the Old School Synod of Missouri, commonly called the Declaration and Testimony Synod, the undersigned were directed to lay before the venerable body over which you preside, the following statement of facts:

"In the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, the General Assembly, then known as the Old School, during its sessions in the city of Pittsburgh, took certain action in relation to the examination of all persons coming from the Southern States, who might apply for admission into any of the Presbyteries or Churches under the jurisdiction of the General Assembly; certain action in relation to the qualifications of ministers who might apply for aid to the Board of Domestic Missions; and certain other action growing out of the civil war. This led to the preparation and publication of a pamphlet, entitled a "Declaration and Testimony," which was designed to be, and was, in fact, a vigorous and earnest protest against all the acts of the Assembly during the war touching the condition of the country, except such as were clearly sustained by the word of God.

"The pamphlet was formally adopted by the Presbytery of Louisville, as an expression of its views and purposes, and was signed by a large number of Ministers and Ruling Elders, principally in the Synods of Kentucky and Missouri.

"In the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, the General Assembly (Old School) met in St. Louis, and commenced its sessions by excluding from their seats in the body the Commissioners of the Presbytery of Louisville. This was followed by a stormy debate, continued for several days, and resulting at length in the adoption of a paper which condemned 'the Declaration and Testimony as a slander against the Church, schismatical in its character and aims, and its adoption by any of our Church Courts as an act of rebellion against the authority of the General Assembly.' It was further resolved, 'that the signers of the Declaration and Testimony, and the members of the Presbytery of Louisville, who voted to adopt that paper, be summoned, and they are hereby summoned, to appear before the next General Assembly, to answer for what they have done in this matter, and that until this case is decided, they shall not be permitted to sit as members of any Church Court higher than the Session.' It was further resolved, 'That if any Presbytery shall disregard this action of the General Assembly, and at any meeting shall enrol, as entitled to a seat or seats in the body, one or more of the persons designated in the preceding resolutions and summoned to appear before the next General Assembly, then that Presbytery shall ipso facto be dissolved;' and it was still further ordered, 'That Synods, at their next stated meetings, in making up their rolls, shall be guided and governed by this action of the General Assembly.'

"Such in brief were the causes, which led to the division of the Synod of Missouri in 1866; and since that time there have been two Synods in the State, each with the same number of Presbyteries, with almost the same number of communicants, and occupying precisely the same territory. It is needless to say that the interests of Christ's cause and kingdom, so far as committed to the care of Presbyterians, have greatly suffered by the separation and its subsequent strifes.

"The Presbyteries composing the Declaration and Testimony

Synod have recently determined, by a decided majority of all the votes given, to send Commissioners to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, now in session at Columbus, Mississippi. But a number of congregations connected with this Synod, partly by reason of their unwillingness to abandon the position they have consistently and steadfastly maintained; partly by reason of their desire to avoid even the appearance of being controlled by political prejudices and sectional sympathies, partly by reason of their confidence in the soundness, and piety, and magnanimity of the great body of their Northern brethren; partly by reason of the conviction, that they cannot so successfully prosecute the work of the Lord in organic union with their Southern brethren; partly by reason of their readiness to be used in any humble measure towards healing the divisions that have rent our beloved Church, remain for the time practically independent; and they are anxiously awaiting the action of the General Assembly in St. Louis before finally settling the question of their future ecclesiastical relations.

"We were therefore instructed to enunciate distinctly and frankly the principles held by those whom we represent; and if, as we believe, the same principles are held by the General Assembly, there is nothing, that is apparent at least, to prevent those closer and more fraternal relations which we long to see securely and permanently established on a basis of truth and righteousness.

"First. We strenuously hold to the plenary inspiration of the Word of God as contained in the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments; and because we fear that there is a growing laxity of sentiment, with regard to this absolutely vital truth, in many denominations of Christians throughout the land, we deem it opportune to bear clear and unequivocal testimony that 'ALL Scripture is given by inspiration of God,' and to condemn in no uncertain terms every attempt to 'add unto these things' which the Holy Ghost has caused to be written, or to 'take away from the words of the book,' as it has been handed down to us from the days of the Apostles; so that we do not hesitate to denounce all objections to any portion of the blessed Bible as 'profane and vain babbling, and oppositions of science falsely so-called.'

"Second. We cling with increasing attachment to the system of doctrine set forth in the Confession of Faith, and in the Larger and Shorter Catechisms, framed and adopted by the Westminster Assembly of Divines; and we cordially assent to the Form of Government, and to the Book of Discipline, in use in the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America.

"Third. Painful experience of the effect of utterances by so many of our Ecclesiastical Judicatories, touching political, secular, and merely humanitarian topics and measures, leads us to emphasize the following statements in our standards, a rigid adherence to which is, in our judgment, the only safeguard against the recurrence of discussion in the Church: (1) 'God alone is Lord of the conscience, and hath left it free from the doctrines and commandments of men which are in any thing contrary to his word, or beside it in matters of faith or worship' (Con. of Faith, Chap. XX. Sec. II.). (2) 'There is none other head of the Church but the Lord Jesus Christ.' (Con. of Faith, Chap. XXV. Sec. VI.). (3) Synods and Councils are to handle or conclude nothing but that which is ecclesiastical; and are not to intermeddle with civil affairs which concern the commonwealth unless by way of humble petition in cases extraordinary; by way of advice for satisfaction of conscience, if they be thereunto required by the civil magistrate.' (Con. of Faith, Chap. XXXI. Sec. IV.). (4) 'All church power, whether exercised by the body in general, or in the way of representation by delegated authority, is only ministerial and declarative; that is to say, that the Holy Scriptures are the only rule of faith and manners; that no Church Judicatory ought to pretend to make laws to bind the conscience in virtue of their own authority; and that all their decisions should be founded upon the revealed will of God.' (Form of Government, Chap. I. Sec. VII.)

"In addition to the foregoing statements, we respectfully call attention to the form of commission put into the hands of every minister and every ruling elder representing the Presbyteries in the General Assembly, requiring them 'to consult, vote, and determine in all things that may come before that body, according to the principles and constitution of this Church and the word of God.' (Form of Government, Chap. XXII. Sec. II.). If, therefore, our Church Courts will recognize their obligation to consult, vote, and determine on all things coming before them only 'according to the principles and constitution of this Church and the word of God,' there can be no occasion for strife and separation, because no subject of a secular character will be entertained, and no subject with moral bearings and results will be carried beyond the plain and unquestioned testimonies and directions of the sacred Scriptures.

"Fourth. We hold that the General Assembly is no less bound to obey the requirements and observe the rules of procedure laid down in the constitution of the Church, than the humblest member of the body of Christ; and no alleged act of insubordination against the authority of the highest ecclesiastical council, and no demand of popular indignation, will justify an exercise of power for which there is not explicit provision in this Constitution.

"Fifth. Holding as we do the purely spiritual and non-political nature of the calling and work of the Church, as separate from the kingdom of this world, and believing that ecclesiastical judicatories have a right to speak only what our Lord has spoken, and to legislate only where He has legislated, of course we claim that all actions and assertions of these judicatories, which are in any thing contrary to the written word, or beside it in matters of faith or worship, even though sustained by the decisions of all the civil tribunals and all the governments of the earth, are null and void, and of no binding force. That this venerable Assembly, may be guided in all of its deliberations by the Holy Spirit, so that its present session shall be abundantly owned of the Lord to the manifestation of his glory in the purity, peace, and prosperity of the Church is the sincere prayer of Your obedient servants in Him,

JAMES H. BROOKES,
JOHN F. PHILIPS,
WILLIAM CHRISMAN."

The following answer was recommended by the Committee:

Whereas, Certain brethren belonging to the Old School Presbyterian Synod of Missouri have overtured this Assembly, stating their principles regarding the plenary inspiration of the Scriptures and the proper jurisdiction of church courts in things ecclesiastical only, and in these according to the Word of God, together with their firm adherence to our Confession of Faith, Catechism, Form of Government, and Book of Discipline; be it

Resolved, That this Assembly cordially accept this overture as exhibiting the principles of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, and consider all actions of the Church in the past, if any, which may have been done contrary to these principles, to be null and void.

The Assembly united in singing, and the Rev. Thomas P. Hunt led the Assembly in prayer.

"Come in, thou blessèd of the Lord," etc.

The recommendation of the Committee was then adopted unanimously by a rising vote, and the Assembly sang the Doxology,

"Praise God, from whom all blessings flow," etc.

On motion of the Rev. William L. Breckinridge, it was Resolved, That a committee of seven be appointed to consider the expediency of sending a delegation to bear our friendly salutations to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, to meet in this city a year hence.

The following were appointed said Committee: Rev. Messrs. William L. Breckinridge, Henry A. Nelson, George W. Musgrave, and James O. Murray; and Messrs. Alexander W. Boyd, Thomas G. Ritch, and Alanson Sheley.

Judicial Case No. 2, "A complaint of Rev. James W. Wightman, and other members of the Presbytery of Redstone vs. The Synod of Pittsburgh," was, by consent of parties, referred to a commission, consisting of Rev. Messrs. Eleroy Curtis, Robert J. Laidlaw, Charles C. Kimball, and David R. Colmery; and Messrs. James Barbour, William A. Booth, and Elijah McLean.

Leave was granted to the Committee on Mileage to pay the claims of Commissioners, for necessary traveling expenses, in full.

A paper from the Presbytery of Rochester, on the subject of mileage, was presented and referred to the Committee on Mileage.

The consideration of the minority report on Consolidation was resumed.

The Assembly took a recess until 2.15 o'clock P.M.

After the recess,

The Rev. Francis M. Wood offered the following amendment:

"The Board of Publication shall remain as at present, except that, besides employing the agency of colportage for the circulation of its publications, it shall become the known policy of this Board to employ all other suitable agencies, such as pastors, missionaries, and evangelists, so as to secure the enlarged dissemination of its literature."

Agreeably to the order of the day, the Delegate from the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Rev. Lee Roy Woods, was introduced, and addressed the Assembly. A suitable response was given by the Moderator.

At the invitation of the Assembly, the Rev. James H. Brookes, of the Declaration and Testimony Synod of Missouri, made an address, and was responded to by the Moderator.

The consideration of the amendment was resumed.

The amendment was postponed, that the following substitute might be considered:

Resolved, That the Board of Publication shall continue as at present, with a collection from the churches for its missionary work.

The department having this work in charge shall be separately constituted, and shall keep a distinct account with the Board. It shall be its duty to disseminate the publications of the Board by donations to ministers and to needy churches, and by sale through its appointees, who shall be called the Missionaries of the Board of Publication, and who shall be appointed, subject to the approval, and shall be under the control, of the Presbyteries.

It shall also supervise the whole Sabbath-School work of the Church, in connection with the Presbyteries; and it shall aim to lift this important agency of Christian evangelization into the prominence and efficiency which it deserves, and which the great needs of our own country have so largely called for at the present time.

And, furthermore, in addition to the amount appropriated by the Board from the collections made by the churches, it shall receive and apply donations specifically designated for the Sabbath-School work.

It is also enjoined upon the Presbyteries, by the General Assembly, that they give special attention to the appointment and to the supervision of the missionaries of this Board, who labor within their bounds.

The substitute was then unanimously adopted.

Adjourned until to-morrow, at 9 o'clock A.M.
Closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 29th, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and spent the usual time in devotional exercises.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Report of the Committee appointed by the last General Assembly, on the subject of a Cheap Paper, was presented and accepted.

A resolution having been offered to refer it to a committee of three ministers and two elders, in conjunction with the Secretaries of the Boards interested to carry out the provisions of the report, with any modifications, not essentially affecting the character of the paper, that may seem to be required for its best success—the first number of said Presbyterian Monthly to appear in October, 1874,—the report and the resolution were put upon the docket.

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence presented a report in part, as follows:

The Committee present the following nominations of Delegates to Corresponding Bodies: To the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America, the Rev. John Hall, and the Rev. James O. Murray, of the Presbytery of New-York.

The report was adopted.

The following paper, from the same Committee, was also adopted:

The Rev. Donald Miller, of Genoa, Italy, and one of the Delegates from the Free Church of Scotland, having laid before this General Assembly the condition of the evangelistic work in Italy, and the urgent need of a church building at Genoa, the Assembly would recommend the latter to the liberality and sympathy of all who are interested in such an enterprise.

The afternoon of Monday next was set apart for the hearing of Delegates from Corresponding Bodies.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a report as follows:

Nos. 7, 9, 11, 12, 15, 17, 19, on the subject of Consolidation. The Committee would recommend that, inasmuch as the special matters to which they refer have already been determined by the Assembly, no action be taken. Adopted.

Nos. 8, 10, 13, 14, 16, 18, 20, on Consolidation. They recommend that these overtures be read, and propose no action. Adopted.

The papers were accordingly read.

No. 21, from the Presbytery of Des Moines, requesting action on the subject of Sabbath-School Hymnology. They recommend that no action be taken.

The subject was referred to the Standing Committee on Publication.

Nos. 22, 23. No action proposed.

No. 24, from the Presbytery of St. Lawrence, on the subject of Total Abstinence. Recommending that no action be taken.

Postponed until it can be taken up, without conflicting with any order of the day.

No. 25, from the Presbytery of Rock River: "Does the Assembly mean to enjoin, that in the regular weekly prayer-meetings of the Church no woman shall speak or lead in prayer?" Recommending that the Assembly answer, "Yes, except in emergencies, to be decided by the pastor or session."

Referred to a special committee, consisting of Rev. Messrs. Richard H. Richardson, Edwin L. Hurd, William T. Findley, James O. Murray, and James Lewis; and Messrs. William P. Orbison and Alexander Whilldin, to report to this Assembly.

No. 26. On the subject of Sessional Care of Sabbath-Schools. Recommending to refer to the deliverances of the General Assembly on the subject, as found in the Digest. Adopted.

No. 27. From Presbytery of Rio Janeiro.
No action proposed. Adopted.

The Judicial Committee reported Case No. 4 :
A Complaint of Rev. Ebenezer Erskine versus The Action of the Synod of Harrisburg. Recommending that it be remanded to the Synod. Placed on the docket.

A telegram was received from Rev. T. De Witt Talmage, inviting the General Assembly of the next year to meet in the Brooklyn Tabernacle. Referred to Committee on the Nomination of the Place of Meeting.

The consideration of the minority report was resumed.

The following amendment, offered by Rev. William P. Breed, was adopted, viz. :

That the Board of Education and the Committee of Ministerial Relief remain separate as they now are.

It was Resolved, That there be but one treasurer for the Trustees of the General Assembly, the Board of Education, and the Committee on Ministerial Relief.

The Committee, to report on harmonizing the working of the different interests intrusted to the Home Board, presented their report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Board of Home Missions shall be located in the city of New-York. It shall employ but one Treasurer, who shall, if required, receive funds for distribution among the Boards of the Church, according to the proportion settled by the General Assembly ; and it shall engage such official and clerical aid as may be needed for the efficient prosecution of the work. The work of this Board shall be divided into two departments—that of Home Missions and that of Sustentation. The claims of each of these departments shall be presented to the churches for a separate collection. Each collection shall be applicable to its own department exclusively ; and the churches are hereby directed to contribute to each ; and the Home Board is hereby ordered so to alter its rules as to adopt Sustentation in all cases to which it applies, subject only to such modification as the Assembly itself may hereafter direct. The churches, now or hereafter connected with the Home Board, shall be required to go under the scheme of Sustentation just as soon as, in the judgment of their respective Presbyteries, they are able. As a rule of the Board, no church should be continued under the Home Mission department for a period of more than five years, unless for very special reasons satisfactory to its Presbytery. Every church aided by the Home Board is to contribute annually to each Cause for which collections are ordered by the Assembly. The debt of the Sustentation Committee is to be transferred to the Home Board, to be liquidated.

Resolved, That a Committee, consisting of Rev. Herrick Johnson, Rev. Alexander Reed, and Mr. Samuel Field, be appointed to adjust and formulate the action of the Assembly with reference to the Treasurer of the Board of Education, the Trustees of the General Assembly, and the Committee of Ministerial Relief.

Resolved, further, that the Stated Clerk, in arranging the schedule for Benevolent Causes as published in the Minutes of the General Assembly, be directed to substitute in place of the word "Publication," the words "Publication Missionary Fund."

The Assembly took a recess until 2.15 o'clock P.M.

Afer the recess,

It was Resolved, That the action of the Assembly on the subject of Consolidation in all its parts be referred to a Committee of Engrossment, consisting of Rev. Messrs. Robert R. Booth and Herrick Johnson, and Mr. Nathan Lane, to be reported complete for the final action of the Assembly.

It was also

Resolved, That so much of the majority report on Consolidation, as contains the statistical statements, be published in the Appendix to the Minutes.

The following paper, on the subject of the election of Secretaries by the Assembly, was presented, and placed upon the docket :

Whereas, The opinion obtains in the minds of many of our ministers and churches, that the efficiency of our benevolent operations is greatly impaired by the present method of electing the Secretaries of our Boards ; therefore,

Resolved, First. That hereafter the Secretaries of these Boards shall be elected by the General Assembly, and that the present incumbents shall be eligible for re-election.

Resolved, Second. That these Secretaries shall be elected every five years, except in case of resignation or removal by death or otherwise, in which case the place made vacant shall be filled by the next Assembly.

Resolved, Third. That when the Assembly shall be called on to make such election, a Committee on Nominations, consisting of three ministers and two elders, shall be appointed the first day of the session, who shall report a name or names of persons for election on or before the third day, the election being taken by ballot.

Resolved, Fourth. That the Assembly of 1875 shall make the first election.

The Standing Committee on Education presented their Report, which was adopted, and is as follows :

The Committee to whom was referred the Fifty-fifth Annual Report of the Board of Education for the year ending April 1st, 1874, beg leave to submit the following Report :

The books and accounts of the Board have been examined, and they are recommended for approval as models of business-like accuracy. They also exhibit evidence of faithful and laborious discharge of the duties submitted to this Board.

During the year the Board has extended aid to 206 Theological, 308 Collegiate, and 36 Academic students.

The new recommendations were 90; and the number of annual renewals 460. Among those who received aid the past year were 36 Foreign, 8 Welsh Calvinistic, and 55 Colored Students.

During the year, 72 students completed their theological course at the various Seminaries.

The appropriations to 15 students have been, from various causes, discontinued.

The number of students aided by the Board, during the year, was smaller by almost one fifth than last year, and the smallest reported for five years. The diminution was due in some measure to the debts, which for the last two years have burdened the Board, and discouraged many whose hearts were inclining them to seek the office of the ministry, and partly by the rule made by the last General Assembly, cutting off most of the academic students, and reducing the number of such from 98 to 36.

Still, however, encouragement may be found in the fact, that the number of students who this year completed their theological course is five more than last year; and more still in the fact, that the whole number aided is thirty per cent in advance of the entire average aided by both the Old Board and the Committee previous to the reunion.

The receipts for the year, including $4111.15 from the Special Committee of the last Assembly, have been $97,105; the payments, $97,083.10; leaving a balance of but $22.14, and a deficiency still remaining to the amount of $11,500. This deficiency, though but one third of the amount lacking this time last year, is yet to be paid out of the summer contributions. It is fair to estimate the wants of the coming year at $100,000 more, or $111,500 in all.

During the year the Board has published a very valuable Manual, embodying in a compact form the principles and facts relating to the work under its charge; and the Committee recommend, that the attention of the Church be specially called to this Manual, as a source of information calculated to awaken a new interest in this great Cause.

On the whole, the Committee would express its gratification, in which it feels assured that the Assembly and the whole Church will share, that this Board, after a most trying period of embarrassment, has this year paid promptly all the appropriations it has assumed; that it has considerably reduced the debt reported last April; and that it is now in a healthful condition, and its prospects bright for future success in its work.

The Committee beg leave to recommend,

1. That the special attention of Church Sessions be called to the duty of carefully and conscientiously assuring themselves, in all cases, not only of the piety and mental capacity of the Candidates they recommend, but also of their real pecuniary necessities, so that there may be no draught upon the funds of the Board not really needed.

2. That the Assembly recommend, to the churches which adhere to the system of annual collections for the Board, the month of February as the most suitable for the collection for this Board, and that the collections for other causes be so arranged as not to come into conflict with this.

3. That this Board be earnestly commended to the churches for a decided increase in their contributions, in view of the increase needed in the ministry for Home and Foreign work, and the increase also of aid which should be given to some, at least, of the students.

Finally. We observe that there are on our roll 258 more churches than ministers, including those disabled by age and other causes, and those at work in other fields than that of the pastoral; and then that the annual gain from all sources to the roll of our ministers falls considerably short of the annual gain in the number of our churches; and, further, that a very considerable portion of even this inadequate gain is due to the agency of this Board.

Now, as with all our appliances, the supply of ministers is sadly inadequate, and as without this agency this supply would be largely diminished, it requires no one word of argument to demonstrate that the existence and vigorous working of this arm of our ecclesiastical system is a vital necessity.

The Report of the Special Committee on the debt of the Board, referred to this Committee, has been considered, and the Committee recommend, that it be placed on file among the papers of the Assembly, and the Committee discharged.

To fill the two existing vacancies in this Board, the Committee recommend to the Assembly the names of Rev. Henry A. Boardman, and Rev. Samuel A. Mutchmore.

Resolved, that, in the consideration of the Reports on the several Boards and Committees, each Secretary shall be allowed thirty minutes.

The Rev. William Spear, Secretary of the Board of Education, addressed the Assembly.

The Report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, on the subject of Total Abstinence, was taken from the docket. The following substitute was offered for the report of the Committee:

Whereas: The use of intoxicating liquors as a beverage, and the traffic in them, are two of the main fountains of the woes and miseries that affect humanity, being evil and only evil; and,

Whereas: The Spirit of the Lord has so recently aroused, in our country, new agencies of opposition to these evils, and inspired Christian men and women to contend mightily for their complete banishment from the land; and,

Whereas: The conflict is now going on among and around us, its magnitude and importance being seen and felt by all, and the attention of the whole country being directed to it:

Therefore, this Assembly, realizing the urgency of the moment, in the need of emphatic and unambiguous testimony on the side of righteousness, temperance, and judgment, feels called upon to reiterate its former deliverances on the subject of Temperance; and, further, to resolve,

1st. That all friends of morality, much more, all who profess love and loyalty to Jesus Christ, should abstain from the use of and the traffic in intoxicating liquors as beverages; should discountenance and oppose such use and sale in others; and should endeavor, in every practical way, to overcome their influence and remove their existence.

2d. That it is inconsistent with Christian principles to vote for men to make or execute the laws of the land, who are known to favor the licensing or protecting of a destructive and sinful traffic.

3d. That we render thanks to God for the new and wonderful illustration of the power of earnest, importunate prayer and of faithful labor, which we have recently received in connection with the women's prayer movement.

It was moved to postpone these resolutions in order to take up the following substitute:

Resolved, That, in view of the prevalence of the terrible sin of Intemperance, this Assembly cordially approves and earnestly recommends the practice of Total Abstinence from the use of intoxicating liquors as a beverage, and rejoices in the recent progress made in abating the use, manufacture, and sale of the same, and exhorts all to persevere in earnest effort to diminish and extirpate this crying evil.

Speeches were limited to five minutes.

The following telegram from the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church was presented and ordered on record:

"The General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North-America reciprocate your fraternal salutations, and with all their heart invoke for you the presence and blessing of our common Lord and Saviour. JOHN J. BROWN, Moderator.
J. F. COOPER, Permanent Clerk."

Pending the consideration of the resolutions on temperance, the Assembly adjourned until to-morrow at 9 o'clock A.M.
Closed with prayer.

SATURDAY, May 30th, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and spent the usual time in devotional exercises.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Judicial Committee reported Case No. 3, a paper relating to the conveyance of Church property, Lot 162, in Lima, Allen Co., Ohio. The congregation desire to dispose of the property to pay the debts of the present Church which they assumed at the union.

The Committee recommend the execution of a quit-claim deed by the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, to the Trustees of the Presbyterian Church of Lima, Ohio. The report was adopted.

Judicial Case No. 4, Rev. E. Erskine vs. Synod of Harrisburg, was taken from the docket and referred, by consent of parties, to a Commission, consisting of Rev. Messrs. James M. Crowell, Frederick W. Brauns, James M. Shields, and William Campbell; and Messrs.

Henry A. True, William F. Lee, and William Speed, for hearing and adjudication.

The Committee, to whom was referred the Report of the Committee of the last Assembly on a Formula for the Admission of Church-Members, presented a report, which was accepted, and made the second order of the day for Monday next.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries was made the third order of the day for Monday next.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Sustentation was made the order of the day immediately after that on Home Missions.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions presented their Report, which was accepted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Home Missions, having attentively considered the Annual Report of the Board, respectfully recommend the following matters to the consideration of the General Assembly:

I. There has been great and unusual spiritual prosperity in the churches assisted by the Board. These churches have shared largely in the religious revival which has prevailed so extensively throughout our land, and also in Great Britain. The increase in their number of communicants is reported as 33 per cent greater than in the preceding year. The whole number added on profession of faith to these churches exceeds 6000. This increase of numbers is believed to be attended with as marked an increase of prayerfulness and of Christian zeal and fidelity in these churches. The Assembly surely will not fail to begin its review of its Home Missionary work for the year with devout and thankful acknowledgment of this abundant divine mercy.

II. The following missionaries have departed this life during the year, viz.:

Rev. Ellis W. Lamb, April 2d, 1873.
Rev. John Summers, Oct. 8th, 1873.
Rev. Levi P. Sabin, Nov. 10th, 1873.
Rev. Melancthon Hughes, Nov. 18th, 1873.
Rev. J. Sanford Smith, Sept. 17th, 1873.
Rev. Martin B. Gregg, Aug. 13th, 1873.
Rev. J. Mead Drake, Dec. 7th, 1873.
Rev. Henry J. Acker, Jan. 1st, 1874.
Rev. Samuel A. McElhinny, Jan. 29th, 1874.
Rev. Samuel B. Shaw, March 20th, 1874.

These all, having testified the Gospel of the grace of God, entered with peace and joy into their everlasting rest.

III. The proper work of the Board has evidently been prosecuted with a diligence and fidelity deserving the cordial commendation of the Assembly and the Church.

IV. As in former years, our field of Home Missions is still rapidly extending, by the flow of population into the newer States and Territories, and some of the problems in our Home Mission work are becoming exceedingly difficult, by the large accessions of foreign population.

V. The Board is seriously hindered in its great work, and the comfort and usefulness of our missionaries are impaired, by the lack of funds. Of the $352,000 recommended by the last General Assembly to be raised during the year, less than $300,000 were realized; of which over $57,000 came from legacies. The income was less than in the preceding year by $7567.32, and there is now reported due to missionaries $19,500.

VI. The Annual Report gives merited prominence to the relations of Home Missions to Sabbath-Schools.

On the one hand, Sabbath-Schools are recognized as constituting an important part of the field of labor of missionaries, who are sent to feed and lead and shelter the lambs as well as the sheep; and on the other hand, the Sabbath-Schools are encouraged to take part in raising funds for this Cause. A special encouragement is wisely given to this effort, by assigning some one missionary as a correspondent and co-laborer in the Home Mission work, to any Sabbath-School which will contribute $250 to the treasury, this being about the average sum received from the treasury by a Home Missionary. Your Committee regard this method of interesting Sabbath-Schools, and also churches and individual donors, in particular men and fields, as of great value.

VII. "The Bureau for Unemployed Ministers," ordered by the last Assembly, has been organized by the Board, and is rendering valuable service. Its investigations seem to justify "the conclusion that many exaggerated statements have been made, and opinions entertained in regard to the number of our ministers without employment—statements unjust to the ministry, discouraging to the Church, and injurious to religion."

Your Committee recommend the continuance and the vigilant activity of this Bureau, not only for the defence of our ministry against such unevident and unjust reproaches, but also for assisting to find suitable opportunities for labor for honest and worthy men and churches who may providentially need such assistance.

VIII. Your Committee would specially commend the considerate and fraternal effort of our Board to harmonize our work with that of our Congregational brethren on the same fields, so as to avoid waste of means and strength, and to make the resources of both Bodies go as far as possible in accomplishing the common end—the thorough evangelization of our country. We may congratulate both denominations upon the evidence found by their Secretaries, that there has been less of unworthy competition heretofore than has sometimes been alleged.

IX. The proper grouping of fields, so as best to utilize the services of missionaries able to minister to more than one congregation, engages the attention of our Board and Secretaries. This will, of course, be facilitated by the new adjustment of the Sustentation work, and that addition to the work of the Home Board gives it increased importance. It is to be hoped that congregations asking and accepting aid from the Church, will cordially second these efforts of the Board.

It is also of vital importance, that congregations receiving aid be urged to the most earnest and diligent endeavor to become self-sustaining. Let the children be ambitious to grow and to run alone, and to leave the lap of the mother to their successors.

The women of our Church are invited by the Board not only to continue their generous and affectionate endeavors to promote the comfort of the missionaries' families by donations of "boxes," but also by organized effort to furnish money for the increase of their salaries. Some difficulty has been experienced in regard to this, in adjusting the arrangements for raising funds, both for Home Missions and for Foreign Missions, so that the efforts shall be in complete harmony.

The hearts of our sisters are in both these enterprises. The same women, who are most ardent in their desire to send the Gospel abroad, are most zealous in efforts for the evangelization of their own neighborhood and their own land. A portion of them have thought it best to let the same organization embrace both objects, and to let the work of both be supervised by the same ladies. Others have thought that the whole work will be most efficiently done if a separate Board of ladies have charge of each. Your Committee are informed of consultations among the ladies interested, which give promise of harmonious adjustment, and of increased efficiency in the prosecution of the women's work in both departments.

In view of the difficulty of giving time to the management of additional Societies, in some localities, the proposal has come to us from a highly influential quarter, "that the women of every church (so far as possible) should give special attention to raising money for our Home Board two months every fall; for example, October and November (or November and December). This would give time to hold at least one meeting to present the object and to make collections, also for the putting up of boxes by those wishing or able to work only in this way."

It was further suggested, "that the Home Board should keep it in their own hands; that they should not wait for ladies to take it up of themselves, but should appoint a lady in each of several central positions, who, with such help as she could secure for herself, might bring this matter of raising money for Home Missions under our Board before the ladies' Societies, or the ladies in their appointed district."

Your Committee respectfully and emphatically commend these womanly and business-like suggestions to the approval of the Assembly, and to the maturing consideration of our Home Board. In one or another form, through existing organizations or otherwise, as their wise hearts, counseling with the wise minds of our Board may devise, we trust that a large increase of efficiency will be secured, and that steadily more and more this one mission work, for our land and for other lands, will become the work of our homes.

The Annual Report closes with a survey of the field.

Your Committee would ask attention to its vastness and variety, and marvelous promise. From the Rocky Mountain region, with its rich mines and its health-restoring air, inviting population; from Texas, receiving annually 100,000 people upon its fertile lands, and into its rapidly building towns, along its as rapidly extending railroads; from New-Mexico, where a superstitious native population of 100,000 need the Gospel to save their souls, and fit them for American citizenship; from Florida, to which so many from the North resort, and where we are told of 4000 Cuban refugees permanently settled; from the Indian Territory, where 70,000 people—Cherokees, Choctaws, Creeks, and others, are as ready for the Gospel as almost any population; their leading men, intelligent Presbyterians, earnestly invoking our help to evangelize their people, and to prepare them for the equal American citizenship, into which their old relations are probably soon to be merged; and from dear New-England, whose manufacturing enterprise attracts so many artisans from Scotland and Ireland and the Provinces, and whom generous New-England welcomes to the free exercise of our Christian faith under their preferred ancestral Presbyterian forms; from all these, representatives have come personally before your Committee, pleading in utmost earnestness for a great increase of means and of force in the prosecution of this work.

And now the Assembly has decided to commit to "our Home Board" all that work heretofore so earnestly and ably prosecuted under the name of "Sustentation," or the running and nourishing (into self-supporting strength, if possible) of feeble pastorates.

For both these departments, as they were then conducted separately, the last General Assembly asked the people to contribute $435,000.

In the present conditions of the field and the work, and the better adjustment of agencies, with the offered help of our sisters, and with the greatly increased spiritual strength resulting from the recent extensive Revival, your Committee would think it unworthy of our Church to propose the devoting to this Cause, during the coming year, of less than $500,000. We assuredly believe that, by properly bringing the request home to all the people, in their churches, and at their homes, this sum can be raised, and will be usefully expended by our Home Board.

The term of service of the following members of the Board expires with the present General Assembly, viz.: Rev. William C. Roberts, Rev. Thomas S. Hastings, Joseph F. Joy, Jacob D. Vermilye, and Edward A. Lambert. Your Committee recommend the reelection of them all.

The Standing Committee on Sustentation presented their Report, which was accepted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Sustentation would respectfully report to the Assembly, that they have carefully considered the subject referred to them. They have had placed in their hands the Third Annual Report of the Assembly's Committee on Pastoral Sustentation, and have conferred with the Secretary and Treasurer of the same. And, as the result of their examination and consideration, your Committee would recommend the following statement and resolutions for the adoption of the Assembly, to wit:

The last General Assembly, after a full discussion of this scheme of Sustentation, pronounced it no longer an experiment, but a part of the settled policy of the Church; and the discussions and decisions of the present Assembly give cheering assurance that the great cause of pastoral support has taken a deep hold upon the heart of the Church. The design of the action placing this scheme in the Board of Home Missions as a co-ordinate department, is thereby declared to be only in order to render it more permanent and efficient.

The principles on which the Assembly's Sustentation Fund is founded are simple and scriptural, and should be thoroughly taught to the churches by pastors. These principles are: First. That those whom God calls to preach the Gospel and gives to his Church, are to be supported by the Church. The second principle is one which grows out of the unity of the Church and the law of brotherhood which Christ has instituted. That is, the minister may claim his support from the whole Church, and not simply from the particular congregation which he is called to serve. Each minister belongs to the whole Church, and the whole Church is to be held responsible for his work, and its just reward.

The subject of Pastoral Sustentation is not new to the Church, having frequently been before the Assembly as far back as 1828. But it is only three years, since the convictions of the Church were crystallized into the definite and practical form intrusted to the Committee at Pittsburgh. This Committee, under the leadership of the efficient Secretary and Treasurer, appointed by the Assembly, has had to meet all the difficulties incident to every new enterprise, especially those which follow from inadequate means, and the failure of Presbyteries fully to understand its practical workings and its real intentions and benefits. Yet the Report of the work done shows not only a growing interest in the scheme, but a degree of success never before reached by any of our schemes of Church work in the same length of time.

The Committee on Sustentation report two hundred and sixty-six (266) pastorates as having received the benefits of the fund during the past year. The beneficent effects of the scheme are manifest from the fact, that thirteen of these pastorates report themselves as hereafter self-sustaining. This is evidently a large proportion of the whole number, and ought to give decided encouragement in the work, and confidence in the practical benefits of this method of treatment. Some of the churches which have attempted to come under the scheme, for various causes have become discouraged, and have failed to receive its benefits. Some have been weakened by loss of means or of members, and have found the burden too great for them. Others find it difficult to break off old and lax habits of payment; and the inflexible requirements of the scheme, which make it efficient, become irksome to them. In all such cases the fault is with the churches, or their pastors or Sessions, who fail to educate them in the duty and privilege of pastoral support. Every such case emphasizes the necessity and wisdom of the scheme adopted.

One hundred and fifty-five churches report an increase, in the aggregate of their contributions for the support of their pastors, of forty-four thousand five hundred and sixty dollars. They also report an increase in contributions to the Boards of the Church amounting to $9365. This makes a total gain of funds, raised directly through the operations of this plan of Pastoral Sustentation in these churches, of $53,871. But the reports have only come from a few more than half of the churches aided by the Committee. If those which have not reported have done as well, a fair estimate will show a gain of over $90,000. Last year there was a gain, from two hundred churches, of $39,000.

The contributions of the churches to the fund under charge of this Committee are equally encouraging, although inadequate to the demands of the work. The Committee began the year with $12,186.40 in the treasury; and received during the year $51,758.03, which gave them a total of $63,944.43 for the operations of the year.

In the two and a half years this Cause has been before the Church for its support, there has been contributed for its work $154,758; showing a great readiness on the part of the stronger churches to bear the burden of the weak. While, owing to the peculiar condition of the country and the Church, agitated with the discussion upon consolidation, the Committee have only had $63,944.43 during the year, they have paid out, according to agreements reasonably made, $67,388.63, leaving an indebtedness at the end of the year of $3444.20.

Besides this, there is due to pastors up to March 1st, which ought to have been paid at that time, $4000; and there will be due to pastors on the first of June, $14,500 more. The present and pressing demands of this fund require the immediate attention of the churches. Twenty-one thousand dollars must be speedily raised, or the pastors of these weaker churches must suffer.

The Secretary of the Sustentation Committee, who has served with great efficiency and faithfulness, both as Secretary and Treasurer, without salary, has tendered his resignation because of overwork and inability to discharge the duties of the office in connection with the high responsibilities of his theological chair.

In view of these facts, and the present exigencies of this Cause,

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly would repeat, and emphasize, its former action, commending the cause of Pastoral Sustentation to the earnest co-operation of the Presbyteries and churches.

Resolved, 2. That the present and pressing obligations of this Committee, demanding $21,944.20 on June 1st, require the immediate attention of all its friends. And the General Assembly hereby enjoins upon all such churches as have not contributed during the past year, to make a contribution at their earliest opportunity.

Resolved, 3. That the thanks of the Assembly are due and are hereby cordially tendered to the Rev. Melancthon W. Jacobus, Secretary and Treasurer of the Sustentation Committee, who has served the Church in this capacity for three years with distinguished ability and faithfulness, and without salary; and to the members of the Committee for the efficiency with which they have managed this important trust.

Resolved, 4. That the Third Annual Report of the Committee on Sustentation be approved, and published for circulation in the churches.

Resolved, 5. That the Committee on Sustentation be directed to turn over the books and accounts, with all funds in their hands, or that may come into their hands, belonging to the Sustentation Fund, to the Board of Home Missions; after which, the said Committee shall be dissolved.

Rev. Melancthon W. Jacobus then addressed the Assembly on the subject of Sustentation.

Whereupon it was Resolved, That an effort be now made to raise the debt reported by the Board of Home Missions and the Committee on Sustentation.

Pledges and money were received to a considerable amount (about $39,000) from Presbyteries, Churches, Societies, Sabbath-Schools, and individuals.

The Assembly then took a recess until 2.15 o'clock P.M.

After the recess,

The Report of the Committee on engrossing the action of the Assembly on the Consolidation of the Boards was presented and adopted, as follows:

In providing for the Consolidation of the Boards of the Presbyterian Church, and for the oversight and control of its benevolent work, the General Assembly hereby enacts:

First. The Board of Foreign Missions shall continue as it is.

Second. The Board of Home Missions shall be located in the city of New-York. It shall employ but one Treasurer, who shall, if required, receive funds for distribution among the Boards of the Church, according to the proportion settled by the General Assembly; and it shall engage such official and clerical aid as may be needed for the efficient prosecution of its work. This work of the Board shall be divided into two departments—that of Home Mission, and that of Sustentation. The claims of each of these departments shall be presented to the churches for a separate collection. Each collection shall be applicable to its own department exclusively, and the churches are hereby directed to contribute to each; and the Home Board is hereby ordered so to alter its rules as to adopt and operate the Sustentation scheme in all cases to which it applies, subject only to such modification as the Assembly itself may hereafter direct. The churches, now or hereafter connected with the Home Board, shall be required to come under the scheme of Sustentation just so soon as, in the judgment of their respective Presbyteries, they are able. As a rule of the Board, no church should be continued under the Home Mission department for a period of more than five years, unless for special reasons satisfactory to its Presbytery. And every church, aided by the Home Board, shall contribute annually to each Cause, for which collections are recommended by the Assembly.

And it is also ordered by the Assembly, that the pecuniary obligations of the Committee of Sustentation shall be and hereby are transferred to, and shall be liquidated by, the Board of Home Missions, out of the funds contributed for the work of Sustentation, specially provided for such obligations.

Third. The Committee on Freedmen shall continue as at present located and constituted, for the period of five years, during which period its affairs shall be conducted with the view to the final merging of the Committee with the Board of Home Missions; and, as soon as possible, the churches under the care of the Committee for Freedmen shall be transferred to the Board of Home Missions.

Fourth. The Board of Church Erection shall continue as it is at present.

Fifth. The Board of Publication shall continue as at present, with a collection from the churches for its missionary work.

The department having this work in charge shall be separately constituted, and shall keep a distinct account with the Board. It shall be its duty to disseminate the publications of the Board by donations to Ministers and to needy churches, and by sale through its appointees, who shall be called the Missionaries of the Board of Publication, and who shall be appointed, subject to the approval, and shall be under the control, of the Presbyteries.

It shall also supervise the whole Sabbath-school work of the Church, in connection with the Presbyteries; and it shall aim to lift this important agency of Christian evangelization into the prominence and efficiency which it deserves, and which the great needs of our own country have so largely called for at the present time.

And, furthermore, in addition to the amount appropriated by the Board from the collections made by the churches, it shall receive and apply donations specifically designated for the Sabbath-school work.

It is also enjoined upon the Presbyteries, by the General Assembly, that they give special attention to the appointment and to the supervision of the Missionaries of this Board, who labor within their bounds.

Sixth. The Board of Education and the Committee on the Relief Fund shall remain as at present, save that they shall employ but one Treasurer, who shall also be Treasurer of the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly.

In view of these changes, it is ordered that the Standing Committee of Benevolence and Finance be discontinued, with the grateful acknowledgment of the Assembly of the important work which they have accomplished in developing the liberality of the Church, and bringing into such prevalent favor the plan of periodic contributions to the benevolent work of the Church as a whole.

It is also ordered by the Assembly, that the following shall be the list of Causes for which the churches are required to make contributions, either by specific collections, or by systematic apportionment, according to the proportion fixed by the General Assembly, as the Sessions of the churches may severally determine:

Foreign Missions;
Home Missions;
Sustentation;
Education;
Missionary Work of the Board of Publication;
Church Erection;
Ministerial Relief;
Freedmen.

The Committee on Leave of Absence reported, that they have excused the following persons from the remaining sessions of this Assembly:

Rev. Samuel Loomis, of the Presbytery of Fairfield.
Rev. William R. Coles, of the Presbytery of Yadkin.

Elder Montgomery Patton, of the Presbytery of Dayton.
Elder John G. Morrison, of the Presbytery of Mattoon.

Elder Seth B. Cole, of the Presbytery of Hudson.
Elder Alexander R. McBath, of the Presbytery of Kingston.
Rev. James T. McCoy, of the Presbytery of Huron.
Rev. John Patton, of the Presbytery of Newcastle.

The Judicial Commission to whom was referred the Appeal and Complaint of the Second Presbyterian Church of Jacksonville, Illinois, and Rev. Emanuel R. Pirez vs. A Decision of the Synod of Illinois, Central, presented their report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Judicial Commission in the case of The Appeal and Complaint of the Second Presbyterian Church of Jacksonville, Illinois, and Rev. Emanuel R. Pirez against a Decision of the Synod of Illinois, Central, beg leave to report, that they find the action of the Synod of Central, Illinois defective, in that it does not recognize the fact, which appears upon the records of the Presbytery, that charges had been made against Rev. Mr. Pirez, affecting his moral and ministerial character, which charges had been made by persons recognized, by formal vote of the Presbytery, as accusers, and which charges were referred by the Presbytery to a Judicial Committee with instructions to report thereupon, but which charges have never been brought to an issue.

This Committee do, therefore, sustain the Complaint and Appeal of the Second Portuguese Church and of Rev. Emanuel M. Pirez, so far as to direct the Synod to remand the case to the Presbytery, with instructions to try, or formally dismiss, the charges above mentioned; and, in case of his innocence, determine the question of the expediency of the continuance of the pastoral relation, in such a manner as they may judge to be just to the contending parties and for the interests of religion.

The Rev. John Kelley presented a paper in reference to the transfer of certain church property in the Presbytery of Lima, which was referred to the Board of Church Erection.

It was Resolved, That a committee consisting of Rev. Messrs. William P. Breed, William C. Roberts, James G. Mitchell, Henry A. Nelson, and Nelson Millard, and Messrs. Eugene G. Woodward, Charles McClellan, and E. Hall Richardson, be appointed to report to the next General Assembly the expediency of raising the Committee of Ministerial Relief to the position of a Board.

The Assembly proceeded to the consideration of the Report of the Standing Committee on Home Missions.

Rev. Cyrus Dickson, one of the Secretaries of the Board of Home Missions, addressed the Assembly.

The Assembly then adjourned until Monday at 9 o'clock A.M.
Closed with prayer.

MONDAY, June 1st, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and spent the usual time in devotional exercises.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

It was Resolved, That a Committee, consisting of Rev. Messrs. Howard Crosby and Daniel W. Poor, and Mr. William F. Lee, be appointed to report a plan for condensing the remaining business of the Assembly, with a view to a final adjournment on Wednesday, if possible.

The paper in reference to the election of the Secretaries of the Boards was taken from the docket and referred to a special Committee, consisting of Rev. Messrs. Henry A. Nelson and William R. Bingham, and Mr. Jonathan Ogden, to report to the next Assembly.

The Commission on Judicial Case, No. 2, "A Complaint of Rev. James W. Wightman and others versus the Synod of Pittsburgh," reported, recommending that, as all the papers are not before the Commission, be it Resolved, 1st. That the attention of the Synod be called to the Book of Discipline, Chap. VII. Sec. 3, Art. 16.

Resolved, 2d. That the case be dismissed and the papers returned.

The report was adopted.

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions presented their Report. The Rev. David Irving, one of the Secretaries of the Board of Foreign Missions, and Mr. William Rankin, their Treasurer, addressed the Assembly.

The Assembly united in singing the first stanza of the Missionary Hymn, and were led in prayer by Rev. Charles C. Beatty.

"From Greenland's icy mountains," etc.

The Report was then adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee, to whom was referred the Annual Report of the Board of Foreign Missions, respectfully submit to the General Assembly the following statement of its affairs, and, for the adoption of the Assembly, the accompanying resolutions.

The Board of Foreign Missions has seldom, if ever, brought to the General Assembly, a more cheering Report, than that which covers its operations for the year ending April 30, 1874. To the last council of our Church, it will be remembered, that this Board came with great heaviness of spirit. It was oppressed with a debt, so large as to awaken the most serious apprehension. But, by heavenly attractions, a tide of beneficence rose so high in the Assembly as very largely to reduce it; nor did the tide entirely ebb, before this whole barrier in the way of the Board's progress was swept away. What an assurance is found in this fact of God's care and interest in this great work! For this result, your Committee feel that the Assembly should join in a season of special thanksgiving to the Church's great Head.

And the pleasure that this result affords, is with us all greatly enhanced, by the fact that it has been accompanied by no diminution, but on the contrary, by a sensible increase, of the ordinary receipts of the Board. God has here been better to us than our fears. The regular contributions of the Board have been nearly $50,000 in advance of the last year. And when, with this large aggregate in mind, $623,627.89, we remember the financial embarrassments of the country, the result is not only wonderful, but affords substantial proof that the heart of our Church is deeply interested in the great work of the world's evangelization.

In addition to this general notice of the financial history of the Board, your Committee cannot refrain from making special mention of two sources, during the year, of increased beneficence. From the Woman's Missionary Associations, now six in number, and covering large portions of our Church, the sum of $87,316.23 has been paid into the treasury of the Board—an increase over the last year of $20,000. Nor is this all of the happy results that flow from these organizations. Bringing the cause of Foreign Missions home to the hearts of the women of our Church, and giving them in this department of evangelism a place for personal activity, these organizations have enlisted in this work their affections and secured for it their prayers; and these affections and prayers, carried with them into the family, are, throughout all its membership, continually deepening Christian interest and beneficence in the preaching of the Gospel to all people.

And, to this source of enlarged income to our Board, we add that which is derived from the children of the Church. It is with peculiar pleasure that your Committee notice an acknowledgment of receipts from this source of $27,901—an increase from the last year of nearly $4000. The Church, we fear, has too generally forgotten to interest her children in the great work of sending the Gospel to the heathen. For the best friends and patrons of Foreign Missions, it has been thought, by some, that we must look to the older portion of our church-members. Young Christians, it is said, have not a spiritual eye that looks out so far as this. They are prone to limit their beneficence to what is immediately about them; to forget that the field is the world, and that Christ's commanded supplication for spiritual laborers comprehended the whole harvest field. But, if for this opinion there is any true ground, its best corrective must clearly be found in the family and in the Sabbath-school. Children, early trained to include the heathen in their beneficence, will not be apt in manhood or womanhood to neglect them.

But it is not simply in the history of the finances of the Board that you find occasion for gratitude. The Holy Spirit has descended upon several of the Missions in unusual manifestations. This is true, especially, in Mexico, Brazil, and China; indeed, where, in all the history of the churches of this land, has there been such an ingathering of souls as would enable us to write of them such language as is employed by our Board in speaking of those planted among the heathen?

"The whole number of additions to the Mission churches during the year has been about 1400, which is an increase of about twenty-five per cent on the previous membership."

And here, as your Committee refer to the work of God in Mexico and Brazil, they cannot fail to call to these nominally Christian countries of our own continent, together with Chili and the United States of Colombia, the special attention of this General Assembly. In the language of the Report with regard to the first named of these countries, Mexico, "No field in the world is riper for the harvest; and its nearness to our own country gives it a special claim upon the American churches." And so of Brazil. In an appeal of the Mission for men, after alluding to the breach between the Church and the State, and the probability of their entire separation, our brethren add: "It is an indisputable fact, that a very large proportion of those now nominally Catholic would cease to retain even the name, as soon as Catholicism should cease to be the State religion. * * A large portion of the community is also favorably disposed to Protestantism, by their hatred of Popish tyranny and priestcraft; and there is scarcely a doubt that, as soon as the law against it is removed, and it is attended with no social or civil disqualification, many now fearful and hesitating will adopt it, and from that many, yea, numbers, be gathered into the invisible as well as the visible Church of Christ." Your Committee hope that, as these facts become known to our churches, they will awaken in behalf of the work of God in these lands the special interest of Christians, and that the Board will soon be furnished with the funds necessary for the enlargement of this department of her work.

But, with all these occasions for rejoicing in the review of another year, in the history of our Board of Foreign Missions, there are some things in the Report submitted to the examination of your Committee, that have greatly saddened them, and one fact that they regard with a measure of mortification. We have been pained all through the Report to read of "curtailment," "retrenchment," "halting," retreating; in Syria, "of schools remaining closed, whose usefulness had been thoroughly established;" in Persia, "of the work at different points being affected by retrenchment;" of structural interests in providing chapels, etc., almost everywhere remaining at a standstill, and above all of devoted men and women, craving the privilege of giving their lives to preaching the Gospel to the heathen, but denied from the want of the necessary funds to send them forth. There is a single sentence in the Report of our Board, that, in the opinion of your Committee, should awaken in every Christian's heart the most serious reflection : "The application of several highly commended candidates, who had offered themselves for the service of the Board, has been deferred until the financial outlook shall be improved." Oh ! how long shall that delay continue ? At a time, when almost everywhere the strongholds of Satan are giving way before the soldiers of the cross, shall there be no advance ? Will the Church be satisfied by simply holding the ground already won ? Shall her ear be deaf to all those voices of Providence, solemnly commanding her to go forward ? Will she be untrue to her opportunities and to the great command of her divine Head ? Very properly resolved, so far as possible, in the future to avoid all indebtedness, will not the Church so enlarge her beneficence as to enable the Board not simply to maintain those positions already won on the great field of heathenism, but steadily to advance in her conquest for Christ of the whole world ?

The fact, in the review of the year, that has been regarded with some measure of mortification by your Committee, is the decline in the number of churches contributing to our Board of Foreign Missions. This number, generally less than two thirds of all our churches, is this year still further reduced by 124. Nor are these non-contributing churches always among the smallest and feeblest of our fold. In some of our Presbyteries, your Committee find, that large and wealthy churches have given nothing to this Cause. And in such cases can the ministry be blameless ? Surely no necessities of home work, of church building, or of ministerial support can be so pressing as to excuse any church of Christ from doing its part, however small, in the great work of sending the Gospel to the perishing in heathen lands.

In view of these statements, with regard to the history of the Board of Foreign Missions for the present year, your Committee present, for the adoption of this General Assembly, the following resolutions :

1. That the Assembly gratefully acknowledge the efficient aid and wonderful success of the Woman's Missionary Associations in raising funds, and kindling interest in behalf of missionary work during the present year; and, confident that there still remains a resident power in the churches, as yet undeveloped, they call upon the 300,000 women belonging to our various congregations, to give their countenance and support to these auxiliary organizations, so that there shall be no watchword, rallying mightier force in all the land than that of "Women's work for women through the whole world."

2. That our Sessions and Sabbath-School Superintendents be urged to keep continually, before the children in their families and classes, the great subject of Foreign Missions, that the sense of responsibility may deepen on their maturity, and grow with their years; that the grace of self-denial and the habit of giving may become a constant part of their training; that the purpose of their lives may become one with the purpose of God in saving the world; and that, from the earliest moment of their intelligent thought, they shall be made to feel that they have a personal work to do for Jesus Christ.

3. That, in view of the fact that the work of evangelization in lands nominally Christian is daily assuming vast proportions and increasing importance, and in view of the fact that several missions in such countries have been suddenly left upon the hands of the Board, received from Societies to which our churches have formerly contributed, the friends of this great Cause are urged to increased liberality in that special behalf, so that fields may be occupied at once which are already open, and the Board may be encouraged to undertake yet more extensive enterprises of mission work on the eastern continent as well as on our own.

4. That, in view of the fact that the estimated expenses of the Board, for the next year, demand a sum equal at least to that expended for the last year, and in view of the common prudence of keeping out of debt, now that the Board has safely emerged from it, the Assembly recommend, that the churches be exhorted to raise the sum of $600,000 in behalf of Foreign Missions for this current year.

The term of the following members of the Board expiring during the sessions of the Assembly, your Committee recommend their re-election, viz.: Rev. William M. Paxton, Rev. John D. Wells, Robert Carter, William A. Booth, Ezra M. Kingsley.

The following resolution was also adopted: That, in view of the special blessing of God on the Missions of our Church, during the last year, even amid cruel retrenchment in the expenditures in the Mission field, this Assembly pledge themselves, before our Lord Jesus Christ, to undertake, by bringing all the churches in the respective Presbyteries to contribute to Foreign Missions, and by an increase of contributions, to add the much needed per-centage to the receipts of the Board during the year now begun.

The Committee on Condensing the Docket presented their report, recommending the following orders in the dispatch of the remaining bussiness of the Assembly:

Monday, June 1:

From 12 to 12½ o'clock P.M., Formula of Admission.
From 12½ to 1 o'clock P.M., Report on Theological Seminaries.

They recommended, also, the following resolution:

Resolved, That, for the remainder of the sessions of this Assembly, no member shall speak longer than three minutes on any resolution or amendment, and shall speak thereon but once, with the exception that Chairmen of Committees may, besides the reading of their reports, occupy five minutes in speaking thereon. It is, moreover, understood that the Secretaries of the Boards may occupy 30 minutes each.

The Report was adopted.

It was

Resolved, That the thanks of this Assembly are hereby presented to the Banking House of David Stuart & Co., of Liverpool, England, for their sympathetic and gratuitous assistance in promoting exchange for the purposes of the Board of Foreign Missions.

A paper on the relations of Church Sessions and Boards of Trustees was referred to the Committee on the Polity of the Church.

The order of the day, the consideration of the "Formula for the Admission of Church Members," was taken from the docket, and the whole subject indefinitely postponed.

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries presented their Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries beg leave respectfully to report:

1. Princeton Seminary.

During the past seminary year, forty new students have been received to the Seminary, and twenty-seven have completed their course. The whole number in attendance, including five resident licentiates, has been one hundred and three. Several of the recent graduates will enter mission fields at home and abroad, and others have been engaged for pastoral charges.

Mr. James F. McCurdy, a graduate of the class of 1871, has been appointed tutor in Hebrew, and has discharged his duties in a very satisfactory manner.

The Board of Directors elected the following persons to fill vacancies regularly occurring in their own number: Ministers—John C. Backus, Henry A. Boardman, William E. Schenck, John Hall, Elijah R. Craven, William C. Cattell, John Thomson. Elders—Ezra B. Fuller, George Junkin, Thomas C. M. Paton.

They have also elected Rev. James O. Murray as a Director to fill the unexpired term of the Rev. William Adams, resigned.

The Faculty of the Seminary now consists of six Professors and a Tutor in Hebrew. Of these the Assembly will be pleased to learn that the venerable Charles Hodge still fills the chair of Theology, with his wonted ability, being in full health and vigor, his eye not dimmed nor his natural force abated, although in the seventy-seventh year of his life and the fifty-third of his Professorate.

The Faculty have recently combined written with oral examinations of the students, at the close of the seminary year, with great and manifest advantage. The students prepare themselves more thoroughly, and are more fairly tested, while the examining committee of Directors have far better opportunity to judge of their attainments.

Measures are in progress to provide new recitation and lecture-rooms, renovate old buildings, and provide the necessary funds for this and other purposes.

2. Auburn Seminary.

This Institution is under the control of a Board of Commissioners composed of two ministers and one layman from each of the Presbyteries comprised in the Synods of Albany, Central New-York, Geneva, and Western New-York. It has five Professors, of whom one, Rev. Herrick Johnson, has been appointed, during the last year, Bellamy and Edwards Professor of Sacred Rhetoric and Pastoral Theology. He has accepted and entered on his duties. Thirty-seven students have been in attendance during the year, of whom seventeen were new students, and eight completed their course. Great additions and improvements are going forward in funds, buildings, and other appointments and appliances of this Institution. This is largely due to the grand munificence of Col. Edwin B. Morgan, of whom your Committee desire to make honorable mention.

3. Western Seminary.

Eighty-two students have been in attendance at this Institution during the last year, of whom twenty-nine were matriculated as new students, and thirty-nine were graduated. The great body of the students have been diligent and successful in their studies, and preserved in good health.

The venerable David Elliott, Emeritus Professor of Theology, and for nearly forty years a valued and honored member of the Faculty, died in peace at an advanced age, and his works do follow him. The Directors of the Seminary mention with profound regret the death of a highly esteemed member, the Rev. Henry L. Hitchcock, President of Western Reserve College.

The Rev. Samuel Thompson Lowrie, of Abington, Pa., was unanimously elected by the Board of Directors, April 23d, 1874, Professor of New Testament Literature and Exegesis, and has accepted the appointment.

At the same meeting, the vacancies existing or occurring in the Board of Directors were filled by the election of the following persons :

Ministers—William D. Howard, Robert B. Walker, James Allison, Richard Craighead, Archibald A. E. Taylor, and Thomas H. Robinson in place of Robert Dickson, resigned. Elders—James Laughlin, Benjamin Rush Bradford, Henry W. Williams.

The Faculty now consists of six Professors and one Tutor in Hebrew.

The new Professorship of Hebrew Literature and Exegesis has been endowed by the venerable Charles C. Beatty, so long honorably distinguished for his Christian liberality.

4. Union Seminary.

The following persons have been elected to fill vacancies in the Board of Directors of Union Theological Seminary.

Ministers.	Laymen.
Joseph Fewsmith,	William E. Dodge,
John Hall,	John Taylor Johnston,
James O. Murray.	John Crosby Brown,
	David H. McAlpin.

The Faculty at present consists of five Professors, and the following changes have been made among them during the past year :

Professor Henry B. Smith, having been disabled by ill-health, has been appointed Professor Emeritus, with the hope, that after a period of rest, he may, by the divine blessing, resume his instructions in the Seminary. Professor William G. T. Shedd has been transferred from the chair of Sacred Literature to that of Systematic Theology. The Rev. William Adams has been elected to the Presidency of the Faculty and made Brown Professor of Sacred Rhetoric, and has accepted the office.

Within the year Mr. James Brown, of New-York, has made the princely donation of three hundred thousand dollars to the Institution, thus setting a noble example to others, and lifting it from a condition of need and embarrassment to a state of ease and self-support.

Thirty-three have graduated the past year, a majority of whom are already engaged to enter fields of labor at home or abroad. The total number of students has been 113, of whom two were resident licentiates, and 37 in the Senior, 40 in the Middle, 34 in the Junior Classes. The condition and prospects of the Seminary are unusually bright and promising.

5. Danville Seminary has accomplished little during the past year, owing to the fact that its professorial chairs have, with slight exceptions, been vacant. Only one was filled at the meeting of the last Assembly, and that afterward became vacant. The Board of Directors then resolved to fill them all, and to be thus prepared to open the Seminary at the usual time, fully prepared for the instruction of students.

They accordingly appointed Rev. Stephen Yerkes, to the chair of Biblical Literature and Exegetical Theology; Rev. George D. Archibald, to that of Church Government and Pastoral Theology; Rev. James A. Lyon, to that of Didactic and Polemic Theology; and Rev. John M. Worrall to that of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History. Professor Yerkes accepted, the residue declined, With the sanction of the Directors, two young men have been prosecuting theological studies under Professor Yerkes.

In March of this year, the Board of Directors elected the Rev. Nathan L. Rice to the chair of Didactic and Polemic Theology, and Professor Leroy J. Halsey to the chair of Church Government and Pastoral Theology. Professor Rice declined, Professor Halsey has not yet signified his intentions.

Vacancies in the Board of Directors have been filled as follows:

Ministers.	Elders.
Samuel H. Thomson,	D. J. Curry,
Archer C. Dickerson,	W. H. Kinnard,
James T. Lapsley,	Isaac W. Scott,
John M. Worrall,	J. I. Landis,
John H. Nesbitt.	R. Appersen.

Your Committee have hope, that measures now in progress will lead to an early filling of vacancies in the Faculty, and the full re-opening of the Institution.

6. Seminary of the North-West.

The number of students in attendance at this Institution the past year has been twenty-nine—six more than the year preceding. Of these, fourteen were matriculated the present year, and six completed their studies, receiving the usual certificate. The Directors report excellent health, and enthusiastic application to study on the part of the students, together with "superior qualifications and faithful attention on the part of the Professors." Most of the graduating class have already entered fields of labor, and two of them as pastors of important churches.

An effort, with hopeful prospects of success, was begun in the early part of the year to raise $50,000 for the erection of a chapel so long and so much needed. About $20,000 had been subscribed, when the movement was arrested by the financial panic. It is hoped that the effort may soon be successfully resumed, the contemplated chapel being of prime and indispensable necessity.

Vacancies occurring in the Board of Directors have been filled as follows:

Ministers.	Elders.
William S. Curtis,	S. P. Farrington,
George C. Noyes,	Jacob S. Farrand,
Lewis H. Reid,	Charles C. Brown,
Samuel Hodge,	Samuel Harvey,
Charles L. Thompson.	Daniel B. Green.

The Faculty consists of five Professors, including the Professor-elect to the chair of Christian Evidence and Ethics, recently created by the Directors, who is the Rev. Robert W. Patterson, recently pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in Chicago. Your Committee call the attention of the General Assembly to the following extract from the Report of the Board of Directors touching this subject:

"On May 27th, 1873, the Board thought it best to create a new Professorship, the title finally adopted being Christian Evidences and Ethics, and appointed the Rev. Robert W. Patterson thereto. He promptly signified his willingness to accept, on condition that provision should be made for his support. At length the Second Presbyterian Church of Chicago, of which he had long been Pastor, guaranteed the payment of the salary in the event of acceptance, not however, through the channel of the Seminary treasury; whereupon he signified his acceptance. The Executive Committee then arranged for his inauguration during the session of the Board in April. In doing so, they thought they had his concurrence; but as the time drew near, he expressed a wish to members of the committee that the inauguration might be deferred until the General Assembly shall have sanctioned the appointment. This, the Board presumed, the Assembly would undoubtedly do. The inauguration has of course been postponed."

7. Lane Seminary.

The whole number of students in the three classes of Lane Seminary has been 56, with one resident minister (of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church), attending seminary exercises, in the several classes, at his own discretion. The class which has just completed its course consisted of nineteen.

Five Professors have been engaged in the work of instruction, all of whom are to continue in the work, except Prof. Nelson, who leaves to resume the pastoral work, to which he thinks himself better adapted, but with the sincere feeling that the condition and prospects of the Seminary were never before so gratifying. He leaves with full confidence in his late colleagues.

Rev. Edward D. Morris, late Professor of Church History, has been elected to the chair of Systematic Theology. He has not yet signified his intention in respect to the matter.

8. San Francisco Seminary.

This Institution reports ten students in attendance during the year, five of whom have been licensed to preach the Gospel. An increase of students is expected the next year, including one from China and one from Japan.

The Faculty now consists of four Professors. It is hoped that the Directors may be able to report to the next Assembly the endowment of an Oriental Missionary Professorship.

The rapid growth of the Pacific coast, in population and wealth, renders it a field of peculiar promise for Christian effort, and of special present urgency for the founding and maintenance of Protestant and evangelical institutions.

The efforts of the Rev. T. M. Cunningham, to raise an endowment in the East, met with encouraging success, until arrested by the financial panic. They are, however, to be resumed next autumn, with good prospects of success.

9. Blackburn University reports 200 students in her various departments, of whom eleven are in a course of preparation for the ministry. Several candidates for the ministry have been obliged to break off their course of study for want of means. The faculty of instruction in the highest departments remains unchanged.

10. Lincoln University, Theological Department.

A very full report of the condition of this Institution, by its President, has been put in our hands, which will appear in the Appendix. Its important statements are, that there are six Professors who give instruction in theology, most of whom also teach in the Academic Department, in which there are over sixty students looking forward to the ministry. Of the present Professors, the Rev. Caspar R. Gregory, late of Bridgeton, N. J., was elected, during the past year, to the chair of Sacred Rhetoric. He has accepted and entered on its duties.

The Directors inform us that the prevalent impressions, that colored students excel chiefly in memorizing and imitative faculties, and in popular oratory, while they are less apt in severer studies, is contradicted by their experience; and that the only reason for not carrying them through the full course of study prescribed in the older seminaries is the urgent necessity, in the state of the colored population of this country, for bringing them sooner to their work, than so long a course of study would permit.

The report also presents in full the solemn and explicit acceptance of the Confession of Faith and Catechisms of the Presbyterian Church, and promise to teach them, and to teach nothing inconsistent therewith, which are required of every Professor who gives instruction in the theological department. This will, also, appear in the Appendix.

11. Biddle Memorial Institute.

This Institution, under the care of the Presbyterian Committee of Missions for Freedmen, has two classes of students in theology, namely, six seniors and eight juniors. Its faculty consists of four Professors, who also give instruction in other departments. It is believed to be performing a work of great importance to the colored people of the South.

12. German Theological Seminary of the North-West.

This Institution has had twenty-three students in attendance, of whom twelve were new ones, during the past year. Four of these have been licensed. The Faculty remains unchanged.

The movement, hopefully begun in the early part of the year, to increase the funds of the Institution, under the care of Rev. William L. Green and Rev. Jacob Leisveld, was arrested by the financial panic, but is soon to be resumed, with encouraging prospects of success. Your Committee commend it to the favor of the Church. This Institution is deemed of high importance in evangelizing the vast German population of this country, especially in the interior and West.

13. German Theological School of the Presbytery of Newark.

This young and promising Institution has advanced until it has developed a regular Faculty of five Professors and teachers, with a curriculum as near that of the more advanced theological seminaries as the circumstances allow. The number of students, the last year, has been fifteen in the Theological, and seven in the Academic Department. Its need of endowment, and its experience in efforts to further it during the past year, are the same as those of other younger seminaries already given.

It is as indispensable to the Christianizing of the large German population of our Eastern cities, as that of Dubuque is to the same population of the West.

Your Committee are of opinion that the highest interests of American Protestant Christianity require that these institutions be fostered, until they are brought to the highest state of efficiency.

The Assembly proceeded to the order of the day, viz., the Reception of Delegates from Corresponding Bodies: when the Rev. Alexander Young, of the United Presbyterian Church of North-America, the Rev. Mosheim Rhodes, of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the United States of America, and the Rev. Nevin Woodside, of the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church in North-America, were introduced, and, having addressed the Assembly, were responded to by the Moderator.

The Report on the Eldership, and the Report of the Judicial Committee, were made the order from 8 to 9 o'clock P.M. to-day, and the Report of the Standing Committee on Publication was made the order of the day for Wednesday, from 9 to 10 o'clock A.M.

The Consideration of the Report on Home Missions was resumed, and the Report adopted.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Sustentation was then adopted.

The Standing Committee on Publication presented their Report.

The Rev. William E. Schenck, one of the Secretaries of the Board, addressed the Assembly.

The Report was then adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee, to whom was referred the Thirty-sixth Annual Report of the Board of Publication, offer to the Assembly for consideration the following Report:

The money received from all sources during the year, including the balance on hand, from the previous year, of $9520.31, has been $240,647.91. The total amount expended has been $228,414.93, leaving a balance, in the treasury, March 31st, 1874, of $12,232.98—exceeding the balance of last year by $2712.67.

The amount of sales has been:

By the Book-store, ...	$62,974 58
By Colporteurs, ...	42,004 69

The receipts from the periodicals have been:

From the Sabbath-School Visitor,	$18,886 62
From the Presbyterian at Work,	24,398 60
From the Monthly Record,	6220 62

The amount of donations has been:

By Colporteurs, at catalogue value,	$8519 40
By the Missionary Committee,	9519 79
Making the total value of publications disposed of for the year,
This total includes the credit sales.	$172,524 30

The amount received for the Missionary Fund, during the year ending March 31st, 1873, was $55,892.16, including about $6000 received from the business department of the Board. The amount received last year was $47,798.48 from churches and individuals, which, with $6546.35 received from the Board (see Report, p. 63), makes $54,344.83. In other words, the business department has paid nearly one eighth of the amount needed to carry on the missionary work out of its gross profits. The expenses of the Missionary Department are as follows:

Paid Colporteurs for services,	$28,418 22
Expenses of Colporteurs,	7,410 41
Freight of do.,	2,238 09
Net value of books given away,	12,722 22
Salary of Superintendent of S. S. Work,	3,000 00
Traveling Expenses of do.,	555 89
Making a total of	$54,344 83

The Missionary Committee have made, during the year, 661 grants, amounting to $9519.79; of which 320 were made to Sabbath-schools, 61 to mission churches, mostly in frontier States and Territories, 210 to pastors, missionaries, and others for gratuitous distribution, 43 to needy ministers and missionaries for their own use, 27 to Freedmen's churches and Sabbath-schools. Some grants have also gone to Japan, India, Liberia and the Gaboon in Africa, Brazil, Mexico, Jamaica, and the Bermudas.

The Board have had in commission during the year 136 colporteurs, laboring the whole or portions of the year. By these colporteurs 71,196 volumes were sold; by them and the Missionary Committee, 73,971 volumes were given away, and also 3,132,433 pages of tracts, and 129,765 families were visited, the larger part of whom were conversed and prayed with. By the action of the present Assembly, the name "colporteur" is henceforth to disappear from our records, and those employed in the work of distributing the publications of the Board are to be known as Missionaries of the Board of Publication. By the action of the General Assembly of 1870:

"Each Presbytery is directed to appoint one or more of its members a Presbyterial Publication Committee; which Committee shall in that Presbytery supervise the work of securing an annual collection for this Board from each of its churches; shall search and recommend to the Board suitable persons to act as colporteurs; shall correspond with the Board in reference to its work in that Presbytery; and shall do whatever else may tend to promote the work and interests of the Board, and to secure a thorough distribution of the Board's publications within and throughout the bounds of the Presbytery." (See Minutes, page 115.)

Should any colporteur or missionary prove to be inefficient or unfaithful, that Committee is expected to report him to the Board, when his commission would at once be withdrawn. It is therefore earnestly pressed on the attention of those Presbyteries where the work is prosecuted, that they give to it their prompt and thorough inspection —exercising Presbyterial supervision most thoroughly.

The efforts of the Board in the Sunday-School Department under the superintendence of Mr. J. Bennet Tyler, have had a speedy and cordial response from the Church. The Board can in no way come so closely into contact with the heart of the churches, as by a vigorous prosecution of efforts in this direction. It is gratifying to notice the progress already made. Synodical and Presbyterial Institutes have been held in several States. The Presbytery of New-Castle holds six each year. One at Cincinnati was continued for four days. The Sabbath-School Association of that city and Presbytery held ten successful normal meetings during the year. There has been a noticeable increase in the circulation of the Lesson Leaf, since its form and its mode of circulation have been changed, reaching now to 180,000 copies weekly. The Presbyterian at Work, designed for Sunday-school teachers and other Christian workers, has reached a circulation of 33,000, which is rapidly increasing. During the past year, 1748 Sunday-schools have been visited, and seventy-six new Sunday-schools organized in destitute localities by those engaged in the Missionary work of this Board. The action of this Assembly evidently contemplates still greater prominence for this department of our Church work. Nothing can be more vital to our growth and prosperity as a Church of Christ. If the Presbyterian Church means to keep abreast of other Churches, she must keep her Sunday-school interest in the foreground. It is believed by us that, so far as the Missionaries of the Board of Publication can be made to act as Sunday-School Missionaries, organizing Sunday-Schools in destitute localities, and fostering them where they already exist, this advance will be warmly responded to by the Church. Owing to the general condition of business, the scarcity of money, and the number of sales during a large part of the year, the Board have published fewer new volumes than usual, seven only having been added to their Catalogue during the year.

The last Assembly having approved of the plan and progress of the Book of Praise, instructed the Board of Publication to stereotype and publish the same. This has been done, and the hymn-book is to be made in four forms:

1. Hymn and Tune Book in large type.
2. Hymn and Tune Book in small type.
3. Hymn Book in large type.
4. Hymn Book in small type.

Specimen pages have been submitted to the Assembly, and the known qualifications of the compiler furnish the strongest ground of confidence for its merits, and so it is earnestly hoped for its adoption by the churches.

The Committee recommend, that hereafter six members of the Board be chosen from Presbyteries outside the city of Philadelphia, as being in their judgment calculated to promote interest in the operations of the Board. They further recommend the election of Rev. Samuel A. Mutchmore in place of Rev. Herrick Johnson, for the term to expire in 1876; of Rev. Robert R. Booth in place of Rev. John L. Witherow for the term to expire in 1876; Ezra M. Kingsley in place of George W. Simons, whose term would have expired regularly in May, 1875; and the re-election of the following members whose term now expires:

Ministers—Alexander Reed, J. Greer Ralston, Robert M. Patterson, Thomas Murphy, James M. Crowell, Stephen W. Dana, Richard H. Allen, William T. Eva.

Laymen—Theodore W. Baker, John Sibley, James T. Young, H. Lenox Hodge, William Montelius, George W. Mears, William E. Camp, Horatio B. Lincoln.

The Committee on Nominating a Place for the Meeting of the next Assembly named the Second Presbyterian Church of Cincinnati, Ohio, and the report was adopted.

The Committee of five, appointed by the last General Assembly to confer with a similar committee of the Southern General Assembly, was enlarged by the addition of five members, so as to consist of Rev. Samuel J. Niccolls, Rev. Henry Darling, Rev. Edwin F. Hatfield, Rev. Thomas H. Skinner, Rev. Henry J. Vandyke, Rev. Ebenezer Erskine, and Messrs. Benjamin Whiteley, James K. Moorhead, Joseph W. Edwards, and Samuel M. Breckinridge.

The thanks of the Assembly were returned to the Rev. T. De Witt Talmage and his congregation, for their kind invitation to hold the meeting of the next Assembly in the Brooklyn Tabernacle.

Adjourned until 8 o'clock P.M.

Closed with prayer.

MONDAY, June 1st, 8 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Report of the Special Committee of the last Assembly on the Eldership was considered, and the following Overture was ordered to be sent down to the Presbyteries, as an additional section, if approved by a majority of the Presbyteries, to the thirteenth chapter of the Form of Government:

"VIII. If any particular church, by a vote of members in full communion, shall prefer to elect ruling elders for a limited time in the exercise of their functions, this may be done: provided the full time be not less than three years, and the session be made to consist of three classes, one of which only shall be elected every year; and provided that elders once ordained shall not be divested of the office when they are not re-elected, but shall be entitled to represent that particular church in the higher judicatories, when appointed by the session or the Presbytery."

The Judicial Committee reported Case No. 5, "An Appeal of George Fishback vs. The Synod of Illinois, South," recommending that the case be dismissed, for the following reasons, viz.: 1st. Because the appellant is not a party aggrieved. 2d. Because the papers are irregular and defective. 3d. Because the appellant did not file his reasons within ten days after the Synod. 4th. Because the constitutional question involved in the case is the subject matter of an Overture from the Assembly to the Presbyteries.

The report was adopted.

They also reported Case No. 6, "A Complaint of the Rev. Peter Hassinger vs. The Synod of Illinois, South," recommending that the case be dismissed for the following reasons, viz.: 1st. Because the decision, by the General Assembly of 1872, of the question involved, covers the case. 2d. Because an Overture on the same question has just been sent to the Presbyteries.

The report was adopted.

The Judicial Committee was discharged.

The Committee, to whom was referred the Complaint of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America against the Presbytery of Philadelphia, Central, presented their report as follows:

The Special Committee, to whom was referred the Complaint of the General Synod of the Reformed Church against the Presbytery of Philadelphia, Central, have attentively considered the facts and principles pertaining to the case, and now respectfully report:

The essential facts appear to be the following: Happily there is no disagreement in the statement of them, on the two sides.

1. The Presbytery, on the 9th of June last, received under its care a congregation, which had until that time been under the care of a Classis of the Reformed Church, and had been known as the Third Reformed Church of Philadelphia, and united it with the Western Presbyterian Church of Philadelphia, giving the new organization the name of Immanuel Church.

2. On November 17th, 1873, the Presbytery received, as a member, Rev. Charles Wadsworth, a member until then of the Classis of Philadelphia—the Classis having refused to grant him letters of dismission.

The Delegate of the Reformed Church, as instructed by the General Synod, presents these facts to the consideration of the General Assembly, alleging that the action of the Presbytery "is not in accordance with the friendly spirit of the terms of the correspondence which exists between the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church and the General Synod of the Reformed Church."

The grounds on which this allegation is based are the following:

1. That the congregation was received by the Presbytery "separately from the pastor," who "had taken no active part in the proceedings." This act of the Presbytery is regarded by the General Synod as an assumption of the power to dissolve the pastoral relations between one of their ministers and his congregation. They hold this to be a violation of the article of our correspondence, which declares "that the ministers of one shall not in any case intrude upon the office of the ministers of the other Church."

2. That "this was done at the instance of a congregational meeting. In other words, it admitted the right of that congregation, at its own will and pleasure, and without the pastor, to withdraw from its chosen church relation."

3. That this was done on the ex-parte statement of the commissioners from the congregation, without consulting the Classis, and without verifying the commissioners' statement by the records of the Consistory or otherwise.

4. That all this "was done without regard to property rights."

We understand our brethren's claim to be, that the congregation, not being independent, but "a member of an ecclesiastical organization," viz., the Reformed Church, its property must remain in connection with that organization, unless, perhaps, there be none to dispute its possession. Such they affirm to be "the ruling of the Supreme Court."

On the part of the Presbytery it is set forth in their records—

1. That "it has been a matter of common conversation in Philadelphia for several years, that the Reformed Church contemplated making this change."

2. That "the time came in 1873 when the congregation thought that such a change was desirable and absolutely essential to their existence as a church."

3. That (as they were assured by the commissioners from the congregation) the Consistory of the Church, the Grand Consistory, and the Joint Consistory, successively convened for the purpose, unanimously recommended to the congregation this change of ecclesiastical relations; and that subsequently the congregation, regularly and constitutionally convened, adopted that recommendation.

4. That any application to the Classis, for its consent, was deemed wholly useless, inasmuch as, in a similar case, the Classis had recently declared that "it could find nothing in the Constitution to justify authoritative action."

5. That the Presbytery being well acquainted with the situation and the field, sincerely and firmly believed, and do still believe, that the transfer of the Third Reformed Church to its care, and its union with the Presbyterian Church to which it has been united, was of essential importance to the cause of Christ; and that the reversal of this action would be disastrous to the sacred interests involved.

Your Committee, after attentive study of the case, reach the following conclusions:

1. There is no reason to think that the Presbytery had any disposition to encroach upon the province of the Classis, or to disturb either the pastoral or ecclesiastical relations of one of its congregations.

They appear simply to have been willing to receive, in brotherly love, a congregation and a minister who wished to come to them from a sister church, to whose judicatory no unkindness and no discourtesy was intended, and with which the Presbytery desired the most cordial fellowship.

2. The Presbytery seems to us to have erred in not directly consulting the Classis, so as to make sure that there had been no mistake as to the facts, and that the fraternal spirit in which the Presbytery desired to act might have been manifest to the Classis from the beginning.

3. While we regret this unintended lack of courtesy on the part of the Presbytery, we cannot deny the right of a congregation or of a minister to withdraw from the jurisdiction of either a Classis or Presbytery, for reasons such as those alleged in this case. To forbid this would seem to us "not in accordance with the friendly spirit of the terms of the correspondence" between the two bodies, and an injurious abridgment of congregational and ministerial liberty.

4. The question of property is to be left to the civil tribunal. The Assembly exhorts the congregation to submit it frankly and unreservedly, and by no means to imperil spiritual interests by protracted or strenuous litigation.

5. The Assembly cannot regard the act of the Classis, in deposing Mr. Wadsworth, after his reception to membership in the Presbytery, in the state of facts already recited, as impairing his good standing in the Church and the Ministry.

The Report was adopted, and the Stated Clerk was instructed to communicate it to the General Synod, by the Delegates to that Body.

Adjourned until to-morrow, at 8½ o'clock A.M.
Closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, June 2d, 8½ o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and, after the usual devotional exercises, the minutes of last session were read and approved.

The Report of the Committee on Conference with the Committee of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America, was ordered on record, and is as follows :

The Committee appointed by the last General Assembly to "meet a similar Committee from the General Synod of the Reformed Church, for the purpose of conferring in regard to the desirableness and practicability of a union between the two Churches," hereby report, that the two Committees met in joint session, in the city of New-York, on the 15th of January, 1874, and again on the 14th of May ; and, after a full and frank conference, adopted the following report, to be presented to their respective Bodies :

The Committees are convinced, that some closer union than has hitherto existed between these two denominations is truly desirable, and most obviously in the interest of their missionary work in the newer parts of our own country. For, while it is evident that the two Bodies hold each other in that warm respect and sympathy which must result from their close affinity in doctrine and polity, and while this mutual regard is unequivocally attested by such correspondence as has long been maintained between them, it is equally plain that, in the practical matter of church extension, their very resemblance to each other must increase the likelihood of wasteful collisions. This great evil seems to admit no certain cure, short of some arrangement which may bring at least the home missionary work of the two denominations under a common system.

But, in suggesting such a remedy for this chief and pressing evil, the Committees have met the very natural question, whether the two Churches may not, with great profit, extend such co-operation, if once begun, to other forms of denominational work. And they are bound to declare, that their conferences have suggested no decisive reason why the advantages of such co-operation, and of the impression which it will be apt to make upon the whole community, may not ultimately be thought to be great enough to warrant an actual union of the Churches themselves.

2. The Committees, however, are fully agreed that a matter so large and so delicate as the union of these independent and historic Churches, should, in no way, be pressed to a conclusion, but should come about, if at all, as the result of the deliberate, well-informed, and general choice of the members of the two Churches. They have, therefore, thought it premature to propose to their respective Bodies at this time any scheme of union in any form, being fully persuaded that, even if the General Assembly and the General Synod shall be quite ready to concur in the sentiment of this Report, a harmonious result will in no way have been retarded, by the caution and deliberateness with which the Committees have thought it their duty to act.

3. But, while the Committees are thus entirely unprepared to commend any scheme of union, they have found it very easy to agree upon a statement of some of the dangers against which such a scheme, if ever proposed, should effectually guard.

Inasmuch as nothing commends the two Churches to each other but their actual and well-known characteristics, it would be unreasonable, they think, to effect a union under any conditions by which the characteristics of either Church should be obliterated. It is especially evident, that the relations of the Reformed Church to the Reformed Christians of Continental Europe, and of the Presbyterian Church to the Presbyterians of Great Britain, would be of permanent and equal value in reinforcing any united Church from these distinct European communities. And since these separate relations could not be manifested, except by keeping the twin roots of the united Church in open sight, it would seem that any wise union, whenever effected, ought to make equal provision for maintaining the historical name and symbols of either Body. The Committees are also agreed that no union would ever be wise, in which such peculiarities as may already prevail in either denomination, in liturgical usage, in the term of service of elders and deacons, and in the tenure and administration of the temporal property of the congregations, should not be effectually guarded from disturbance ; so that congregations, sessions, and consistories should be absolutely secured, not only in their present local names and legal functions, but in all those time-honored customs to which they have become so rightfully attached. It is still further evident, that there are important interests connected with denominational trusts and institutions which cannot even be adequately weighed without particular study ; and which, in any possible scheme of union, would deserve to be guarded on both sides with the most scrupulous care.

It is only upon such conditions of caution and of equal mutual consideration between the two churches that the Committees can think the suggestion of union likely to be productive of any important results. Assured, however, of the entire reasonableness of these conditions, and fully believing that the providence and Spirit of God will not withhold from this great and interesting question such decisive light as shall unite the members of the two Churches, in either refusing, or in choosing, to be more closely related, the Committees further agree,

4. In referring to the wisdom of the General Synod and the General Assembly, the question of the propriety of continuing the conference between them for another year.

The Committee of Conference, as appointed by the last Assembly, was continued.

The order of the day, the Report on Temperance, was taken up, and the following paper was adopted :

Resolved, That, in view of the prevalence of the terrible sin of Intemperance, this Assembly cordially approves and earnestly recommends the practice of Total Abstinence from the use of intoxicating liquors as a beverage, and, rejoicing in the recent progress made in abating the use, manufacture, and sale of the same, exhorts all to persevere in earnest prayer and effort to diminish and extirpate this crying evil.

The next order of the day was taken up, viz., the Report of the Special Committee, to whom was referred the subject of Woman's right to speak or pray in social prayer-meetings, and, under the action of the previous question, the following resolution was adopted:

In response to Overture No. 24, the Assembly expresses no opinion as to the scriptural view of Woman's right to speak and pray in the social prayer-meeting, but commits the whole subject to the discretion of the Pastors and Elders of the churches.

The Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief presented their Report, which was accepted.

The Rev. George Hale, Secretary of the Committee, addressed the Assembly.

The Report was adopted, and is as follows :

The Committee, to whom was referred the Report of the Trustees of the General Assembly in relation to the Relief Fund for Disabled Ministers and their Families, respectfully report.

This subject is one which strongly appeals to our sympathies, and should receive the profound and prayerful consideration of this General Assembly, and the churches hereby represented. Of all the duties of social and relative life, few have been expressed with greater emphasis in the Word of God, than the duty of the Church to her ministry. Under the former dispensation, this duty was interwoven with and pervaded the social character of the Jewish nation. Special national provision was made for the support of the priesthood and the whole tribe of Levi. Nor is there any reason to suppose that this provision, commanded by God, and approved by the nation, was wanting in adaptation to the end contemplated or inadequate to the supply of the wants of the ministry. It is only when the nation becomes forgetful of its obligations to God, and when spiritual declension prevails, that we hear the plaintive words of the prophet, "The meat-offering and the drink-offering is cut off from the house of the Lord: the priests, the Lord's ministers, mourn."

This law of ministerial support is changed, but only in the mode of administration. The law has passed over to the Gospel dispensation, has survived all changes, and lives in its spirit. The Apostle of the Gentiles re-affirms the law, and claims under it the right of maintenance: "Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple, and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar? Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel." This duty the Church recognizes as binding and obligatory; and yet, however painful and humiliating, it must be confessed she has failed to observe it both in the letter and in the spirit. The ministry of the Presbyterian Church has been heretofore, and is now, inadequately supported. While able to labor, a pittance, barely sufficient to preserve life, has been doled out to them. It is impossible for many of our ministers to make any suitable provision for their families, or their own old age. Their life is a struggle with poverty, their old age a state of painful dependence, and their dying-bed, which should be luminous with the rays of Heaven's own sunshine, is oft darkened with clouds as the eye falls on the loved wife, partner, so long, of life's labors, joys, and sorrows, and on the children of their mutual affection, so soon to be fatherless.

It is gratifying that an improved condition of things, at present, obtains; that the attention of the Church is being directed more particularly to this subject; and that the liberality of God's people flows out in increasing volume to make glad the hearts of God's honored servants.

The financial condition of the Fund, as we learn from the Report of the Committee, is as follows: The total receipts, with corresponding expenditures, from all sources, for the year ending April 1st, 1874, were $79,374.45.

This amount was derived from the following sources, viz.:

Balance from last year,	$14 68
By contributions from churches and individuals,	72,254 78
Interest from Permanent Fund,	6,417 95
Interest on deposits,	162 04
Money returned,	525 00
Total receipts,	$79,374 45

This amount was disbursed as follows, viz.:

Appropriations to disabled ministers, widows and children of deceased ministers,	$70,077 04
Trustees of General Association for Permanent Fund,	3,196 50
Salary of Secretary for one year,	2,500 00

lar study ; and which, in any possible scheme of union, would deserve to be guarded on both sides with the most scrupulous care.

It is only upon such conditions of caution and of equal mutual consideration between the two churches that the Committees can think the suggestion of union likely to be productive of any important results. Assured, however, of the entire reasonableness of these conditions, and fully believing that the providence and Spirit of God will not withhold from this great and interesting question such decisive light as shall unite the members of the two Churches, in either refusing, or in choosing, to be more closely related, the Committees further agree,

4. In referring to the wisdom of the General Synod and the General Assembly, the question of the propriety of continuing the conference between them for another year.

The Committee of Conference, as appointed by the last Assembly, was continued.

The Rev. Alexander McLean, one of the Corresponding Secretaries of the American Bible Society, was introduced, and addressed the Assembly on the work and claims of that Society.

Whereupon, it was

Resolved, That this General Assembly takes great pleasure in again heartily commending the American Bible Society to the sympathies, prayers, and benefactions of all our churches.

It was

Resolved, That the funds contributed to the cause of Foreign Missions should not be appropriated by the Board of Foreign Missions for Synodical purposes.

The whole subject of defraying the expenses of Synodical meetings in foreign lands was referred to a special committee consisting of Revs. Messrs. J. Ambrose Wight, Samuel P. Halsey, and Edwin F. Hatfield, and Messrs. Ezra M. Kingsley and William L. Skidmore, to report to the next Assembly.

The Standing Committee on Church Erection presented their report, which was accepted.

The Rev. Henry R. Wilson, Secretary of the Board of Church Erection, addressed the Assembly. The Report was then adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Church Erection beg leave to submit the following Report, viz.:

The minutes of the Board show a good average attendance of its members at its stated meetings, and a commendable care in the transaction of its business, thereby meeting the responsibilities of the trust committed to them by the General Assembly. The evident tokens of Divine favor to this important branch of the Church work call for sincere gratitude and thanksgiving to God, as well as for greater effort on the part of ministers and churches to increase its usefulness and efficiency.

The Fourth Annual Report of this Board, owing to the order of the Assembly to close the account on the 1st day of April instead of the first of May, covers a period of only eleven months, during which time the receipts from the churches were larger by $14,580 than during the corresponding months of the previous year. This increase was made during a severe financial crisis, and hence it shows more clearly the high place Church Erection work holds in the confidence and affection of the Church. The Board was enabled to give timely aid to a larger number of churches during the past year, in spite of difficulties arising from great stringency, in the money market, than during the preceding year. Its appropriations were all promptly paid as soon as the terms were met for which they were made, thereby maintaining the good name and credit of the Board in the localities where its benefactions were received.

Another gratifying feature in the Report is the increased number of churches contributing to this Cause during the year, thus enabling the Board to enlarge its operations and lay a broader foundation for its opening field of usefulness in the future.

The aggregate receipts of the Board for the eleven months covered by the Report were $96,500, and if the amount received during the month of April of the year before, viz., $28,000, be added, the annual contributions would reach the sum of $124,500. This shows a healthful growth, but not the full maturity of the work. New demands are constantly springing out of the rapid enlargements of the bounds of our beloved Zion, that can be met by this Board only through increased liberality on the part of the churches.

During the past year, over two hundred applications, formal and informal, were made for an amount exceeding $162,000. Those on hand at the beginning of the year not disposed of for various reasons (not the least of them the want of funds), swell this amount to nearly $200,000. These facts clearly show that the measure of contributions needed for Church Erection will grow larger and larger as the Great Head of the Church is blessing the efforts of our Home Missionaries.

Appropriations were made to 166 churches that have actually completed and are now occupying their houses of worship. These are under the care of 84 Presbyteries, and scattered over 29 States and Territories, as follows: Massachusetts, New-York, New-Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, East and West-Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, South-Carolina, Florida, Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Dakota, Texas, Utah, Montana, Nevada, Colorado, Oregon, and Washington Territory. The amount granted to these churches is nearly $86,000, averaging $500 to each church.

The cry comes from Texas, Kansas, and especially, from some portions of the South and the far South-West, where the people are too poor to raise the two thirds of the cost of the building as required at present by the rules of the Board. The Committee feel, that there seems to be a difficulty here that should be met in some way, but they are not prepared to suggest a solution of it to the Assembly. These calls come, in many cases, from the members of Presbyterian families of the older States, who are now scattered as sheep having no shepherd in all these far-off regions.

The Board, in the opinion of your Committee, has wisely recommended the construction of houses of worship that will not be so costly as to overburden the people, and demand such large sums from the fund of the Board of Church Erection as to limit its aid to a smaller number of needy applicants. It further protests against the evil consequences of having individuals assume obligations, in order to report the church free of debt, so as to secure the appropriation of the Board. By this means, the form only of the debt is changed, and, soon after the appropriation has been received, the way is open to make personal appeals to benevolent individuals, or liberal churches, to pay the debt thus concealed from the Board. Thus, the receipts of the Board are materially diminished, and the funds so obtained, not being included in the mortgage that secures them to the Church, are sacrificed, in case the property should be alienated from the Presbyterian Church. Such a course occasions great embarrassment to the Board, and great injustice to the persons giving of their money to pay that which was solemnly declared to be paid. This is carried to such an extent that, in some instances, known to your Committee, more money has been raised by these special appeals than received from the Board, and for which no security is given that it shall not be diverted in case the church thus aided be abandoned. This is an evil which the Presbyteries should be careful to correct.

A judicious plan of insuring church edifices has been inaugurated by the Board, important alike to its own interest and that of the churches. In one case, $2000 were realized, and the church thereby assisted to rebuild its house of worship. About $200,000 of insurance have been secured within the past year, the policies being held by the Board.

The important work of providing Manses has been wisely committed to this Board by the General Assembly. As the object is distinct from that of erecting churches, no money, save that contributed expressly for that purpose, can be devoted to it. Some progress has been made in this direction, one manse having been completed by the aid of a friend of the Cause, who contributed a hundred dollars for that purpose. The subject is earnestly recommended to the prayers and liberality of the churches, in the hope that the daughter, at no distant day, may come up in this respect to her honored mother, the Church of Scotland.

Your Committee would recommend the following resolutions for adoption by this General Assembly, viz.:

Resolved, 1st. That we recognize the goodness of God in disposing his people to increased interest and liberality in this important work, which gives strength and permanency to our evangelistic efforts.

Resolved, 2d. That this General Assembly enjoin upon all the Presbyteries to appoint Committees on Church Erection, who shall carefully inquire into the condition of the organizations applying to this Board for aid, and see that all the churches within their bounds contribute to this object.

Resolved, 3d. That Presbyteries should see that church edifices no longer in use, to which appropriations were made by the late Board of Church Extension, be sold, and the proceeds, at least the amount received from the Board, be refunded.

Resolved, 4th. That the following-named gentlemen, whose term of service on the Board has expired, be reappointed, viz., Rev. Joseph Fewsmith, Rev. John Thomson, Rev. Elijah R. Craven, Joseph R. Skidmore, Frederick G. Burnham, Jonathan Ogden, and Remington F. Randolph; also, that Rev. Charles S. Robinson be appointed to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Mr. Winthrop S. Gilman.

A recess was taken until 2 o'clock P.M.

After the recess,

The Committee to consider the propriety of appointing Delegates to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, reported, recommending no action; and the report was adopted.

The Mileage Committee presented their report, which, having been amended, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Mileage would respectfully report to the General Assembly, that they have performed the duties with which they were charged, having satisfactorily settled 162 accounts with the Presbyteries, through their Commissioners to the Assembly.

Of the 174 Presbyteries connected with this body, eleven Foreign Missions, and six Freedmen Presbyteries—17 in all—are regarded as exempt from assessment. One of the Foreign and five of the Freedmen bodies have this year contributed to the Mileage Fund.

Commissioners are present from one hundred and fifty-five of the Home Presbyteries, Montana and New-Orleans being the only ones not represented.

The whole amount collected for Mileage has been		$32,481 16
Amount paid Commissioners	$25,234 42
Incidental expenses	2 00
		25,236 42
Leaving on hand		$7,244 74

which is two hundred and fifty-five dollars less than the Treasurer wanted reserved to pay off debts and the current expenses of the coming fiscal year.

The Mileage Expenses of this Assembly have been $1388.25 more than the same expenses last year; and had we been called on to pay to the Presbyteries of Montana, New-Orleans, and Santa Fé the same amount as last year, the expenses would have been $1252.98 more; thus necessitating the deduction of a percentage.

Your Committee, in view of such contingencies in the future, recommend the adoption of the following resolution.

Resolved, That the Mileage assessment for 1875 be and is hereby fixed at seven (7) cents per church-member.

With some reluctance, but after due consideration of their duties to themselves and to the Assembly, your Committee have felt constrained to take action, with reference to several irregularities which have come to their knowledge, and are as follows:

Whereas, reports have come to the Mileage Committee, which they have reason to believe are true, that in one case last year $350 was paid to a Commissioner and to another $300, for their expenses from their fields of labor to the General Assembly and return, who did not so return; also, that a Commissioner, who was spending the season near Baltimore, when commissioned by his Presbytery, with the understanding that he should make no claim for mileage, nevertheless claimed and received $140; therefore,

Resolved, That the Treasurer of our General Assembly be and is hereby instructed to inquire into these several cases, and, if said representations be found true, to call upon the parties concerned for the return of any funds that were not justly due them as Commissioners to the Assembly at Baltimore in 1873.

Your Committee conclude with the usual recommendation.

Resolved, That the Mileage Committee be and hereby are directed to pay to our Treasurer the balance remaining in their hands.

The Committee were, at their own request, discharged, with the hearty thanks of the Assembly.

The Sabbath Question was made the order of the day for to-morrow from 9 to 10 o'clock A.M.

The Board of Foreign Missions were requested to give, to the Board of Church Erection, a title to the church property in Las Vegas, New-Mexico.

The Commission on Judicial Case No. 4, "A Complaint of the Rev. Ebenezer Erskine vs. the Synod of Harrisburg," presented their Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The case is briefly as follows: The Presbytery of Carlisle, at its meeting in Greencastle, Pa., April, 1872, on petition of Rev. R. M. McCracken, restored to the privileges of the Church Mr. W. C. Coons, who had some years previously been suspended by the Presbytery from the communion of the Church. At a meeting of the Presbytery at Fannettsburg, October, 1873, eighteen months afterward, the Presbytery revoked this action. Against this revocation by the Presbytery, Rev. Ebenezer Erskine and Rev. R. M. McCracken complained to the Synod of Harrisburg, in session at Lock Haven, October, 1873.

The Judicial Committee of the Synod reported the papers to be in order, and recommended that the Complaint be dismissed, which report was adopted. Against this action of the Synod, Rev. Ebenezer Erskine complains to this General Assembly.

Your Commission find this Complaint in order, and, after careful consideration, recommend to the Assembly the following action, viz.:

The action of the Synod of Harrisburg, in dismissing without trial the Complaint of Rev. Ebenezer Erskine against the Presbytery of Carlisle, is hereby declared irregular and unconstitutional, for the following reasons:

1. Because the Synod dismissed the case without trial after having admitted that the papers were in order.

2. Because no reasons were assigned for dismissing the Complaint, in violation of Book of Discipline, Chap. 4, Sec. 23.

3. Because the Presbytery of Carlisle was allowed to vote in the case, contrary to the provisions of Book of Discipline, Chap. 7, Sec. 4, Art. 7.

The case is therefore remanded to the Synod of Harrisburg, with directions to take it up and issue it.

A Paper from the Presbytery of Louisville on the subject of Education was referred to the Board of Education.

The Standing Committee on Freedmen presented their Report, which was accepted. The Rev. A. Craig McClellan, the Secretary of the Freedmen's Committee, addressed the Assembly.

The Report was then adopted, and is as follows:

In reviewing the work and Report of the Assembly's Committee of Missions for Freedmen, for the past year, your Committee report that they find these noticeable facts:

1. That the work has been prosecuted with increased efficiency and success in the Church Department. This is shown by an increase of thirteen (13) in the number of churches; an aggregate increase of one thousand and forty-five (1045) communicants, of whom 835 were received on profession of faith: and an increase of four hundred (400) Sabbath-School scholars.

2. That the school work of the Committee has suffered a small decrease as to the number of schools. Scarcity of funds compelled retrenchment somewhere; and, notwithstanding the peculiar importance of educational interests among the colored people of the South, contraction was less difficult there than elsewhere. Yet, in the educational work as a whole, there has been a substantial advance, the result of the efficient labors of the young men and women of the Normal Schools, who spend their vacations in organizing and operating parochial schools, in which not only secular knowledge is imparted, but the truths of Scripture and the Catechisms of our Church.

3. That there is a greatly increased interest, among ministers and churches, in missions for Freedmen, as manifest by an increase of 458 in the number of contributing churches. This, added to the increase of last year (335), makes a total in two years of 891 churches; a ratio of increase that, if continued, will bring nearly all the congregations, under the Assembly's care, into the circle of contributing churches within the five years fixed for the separate existence of the Committee.

4. That, notwithstanding this remarkable and gratifying fact, the revenue of the Committee has been much less than that of last year; showing that the prevailing financial troubles have seriously affected the amounts received from individual churches.

5. That the indebtedness of the late Freedmen's Department of the Presbyterian Committee of Home Missions, assumed by this Committee at the re-union, has been diminished by the sum of $980.05; but that there remains still an indebtedness of $3965.35 on the same account.

6. That the work of missions in all its phases opens more widely than ever before the Committee. The field of operations is confined almost entirely to the Carolinas, with a few missions in Georgia and Tennessee. But the whole South invites to similar labors. The necessity for the varied features of the missions also continues, viz.: 1. The work of Church and Sabbath-school; 2. Of Catechist or lay-evangelist; 3. Of parochial schools of lower grade, seminaries, academies, and normal or training schools for teachers.

7. That there is decided advance among the churches under the Committee's care in the direction of self-support. But for the present, progress of this kind among a people possessed of so few material, social, and educational resources, must be limited and slow.

8. That there is a manifest increase of sympathy with the Committee's work among the white population of the South; a fact that we recognize with great pleasure.

These facts are respectfully submitted for the consideration of this General Assembly, together with the recommendation of the following action:

I. The Assembly again commends to its churches its Committee of Missions for Freedmen, especially urging ministers to present to the people this work in all its features. The Assembly would emphasize this direction, in view of its action looking to the future consolidation of the Committee of Missions for Freedmen with the Board of Home Missions, so that in the interegnum there shall be no loss, but rather a large gain to the Cause.

II. The Assembly heartily commends the fidelity and economy of the Committee, in the prosecution of the work committed to them.

III. The Assembly directs that the Annual Report of the Committee be printed under its supervision; that the minutes of the Committee be approved; that the present members of the Committee be continued; and that Charles H. Hubbard be appointed a member of the Committee, in place of Robert Beer, resigned.

The Special Committee, appointed by the last Assembly, on the subject of Voluntary Societies, presented their Report, which was approved and ordered to be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

The Moderator announced the following Committee on the Pan-Presbyterian Council: Rev. Messrs. Howard Crosby, William M. Paxton, Charles S. Robinson, James McCosh, Samuel J. Niccolls, James I. Brownson, Charles A. Dickey, William C. Roberts, Alexander Reed, William P. Breed, Thomas H. Robinson, and J. Addison Henry, and Messrs. Charles A. Drake, Thomas O. Lowe, and William F. Lee.

The Standing Committee on Benevolence presented their Report, which was accepted, and, pending its adoption, the Assembly adjourned until 8 o'clock P.M.

Closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, June 2d, 8 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Standing Committee on the Narrative of the State of Religion, presented their Report, which was adopted, and ordered to be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

The Committee, appointed to adjust the relations of the Treasurer provided for by the action of the Assembly, with reference to the Board of Education and the Committee on the Ministerial Relief Fund, recommended the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly be empowered to elect said Treasurer annually, and that all details, pertaining to the manner and time of such election, be left to said Board in conference with the Board of Education, with instructions to secure their prompt adjustment.

The resolution was adopted.

The following schedule was adopted as the amended order of business for to-morrow:

8½ to 9 o'clock A.M., Prayer-meeting.
9 to 10 " " Sabbath Question.
10 to 11 " " Polity of the Church.
11 to 12 " " Synodical Records.
12 to 1 " P.M., Conference Committees and Elections.
1 to 2 " " Miscellaneous.

The Report on the subject of a Cheap Paper was taken from the docket, and the following substitute for the Report was adopted:

Resolved, That the Report of the Committee on the Cheap Paper be referred to the Board of Publication, with instructions to conform The Presbyterian at Work (as far as practicable) to the general plan of the Report.

Adjourned until to-morrow, at 8½ A.M.

Closed with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, June 3d, 8½ o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and spent the usual time in devotional exercises.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The order of the day, viz., the Report of the Committee of the last Assembly on Sabbath Observance, was taken from the docket.

The Report was accepted; the resolutions recommended by the Committee were adopted; and the whole Report was recommended to the Board of Publication to be printed as a tract. The following are the resolutions as adopted by the Assembly:

Resolved, 1. That it is the duty of all men to sanctify the Sabbath by a holy resting on that day from all worldly cares, avocations, and amusements, and to devote the entire day to the public and private worship of God, and to the duties of religion, according to the precepts and example of our Lord and his apostles.

Resolved, 2. That the observance of the Sabbath is indispensable to the preservation of the knowledge of God, and to the maintenance of vital religion in the Church and the world.

Resolved, 3. That the observance of the Sabbath is, further, of the greatest importance in order to the preservation of civil and religious liberty, and as furnishing the only ground for eminent and abiding national prosperity.

Resolved, 4. That, inasmuch as the work of any general moral or religious reformation belongs, under God, to the Christian Church, it is declared to be the solemn duty of all the ministers, ruling elders, and members of our Church to inculcate, respectively, from the pulpit, in the Sabbath-School, and in the family, the scriptural obligation to observe the Sabbath, and always and everywhere to set a proper example in this respect.

Resolved, 5. That, in the judgment of this General Assembly, it is the duty of the owners of stocks in steamboats, railroads, iron-works, and other corporate institutions which are in the habit of desecrating the Sabbath, to use all their influence to bring these companies to cease their operations on the Lord's Day.

Resolved, 6. That the cry of the eight thousand engineers, on the railroads of the country, for Sabbath rest, as brought out in their Convention at St. Louis, and presented in their Journal, and their efforts with their Companies to secure exemption from the violation of the law of God, and the allotted time for Sabbath rest, religious instruction, and worship, meets with a hearty response from this General Assembly; and that we express for them our deep sympathy in their privations, exposures, and trials, and our earnest desire and prayer to God for their success in this direction; and send our earnest remonstrance to all these Companies against the practice of running trains on the Lord's Day, thereby excluding from these important and responsible positions the Christian men of the country, to the dishonor of religion, and to the endangering of the lives of the traveling portions of the community, by placing this business in the hands of a less moral class of men.

Resolved, 7. That this Assembly invokes the power of the pulpit, and of the religious and secular press of the entire country, in the vindication and enforcement of the sanctity of the Sabbath; that vain excuses for work and travel on the Lord's Day be set aside; that the public conscience be aroused; that secular business and secular recreations on the Sabbath be alike discountenanced; and that, with a faith and zeal which is according to knowledge, the friends of religion, morality, and civil and social order, are everywhere called upon to stand up for the divine law of the Christian Sabbath, and to labor, by precept and example, to secure its proper observance.

Resolved, 8. That this Assembly would solemnly admonish all our people, ministers and laymen, who travel in foreign countries and in remoter parts of our own land, not to forget the divine command, "Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy."

Resolved, 9. That this Assembly still further, with the view of securing this important result, enjoin upon all the Presbyteries, at their ensuing meetings, to take such action, and, without delay, to adopt and carry into effect such measures, as, in their judgment, may seem best, in order to the better and more general observance of the Lord's Day.

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Assembly recommend to Pastors and Elders the formation, in all our churches, of Women's Mission Circles, in connection with our Home and Foreign Mission Boards, that thus all the Christian women of our Church may be actually interested in the great Missionary Cause, to the deepening of their own piety, as well as the enlargement of our evangelistic work.

The Report of the Committee of the last Assembly, on Life Insurance, was taken from the docket, the thanks of the Assembly were tendered to the Committee for their Report, and the whole subject indefinitely postponed.

The subject of the Representation of the Presbyteries in the General Assembly, referred from the last Assembly, was taken from the docket and the following resolution adopted:

Resolved, That a Committee be appointed, consisting of Rev. Messrs. Howard Crosby, Lyman H. Atwater, Herrick Johnson, James Allison, and Samuel A. Mutchmore, and Messrs. Henry M. Blossom and William G. Johnston, to inquire into the expediency of a Reduced Representation in the General Assembly, and if such be deemed expedient, to propose a suitable plan to accomplish it.

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That all moneys contributed to the objects for which contributions are required by the Assembly, whether contributed through the Treasurer of the Board of Home Missions, or otherwise, shall be duly acknowledged in the usual manner by and for the special Boards for which the moneys are intended.

The Committee on the Polity of the Church presented their Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Overture No. 1. From the Presbytery of Saginaw, on Secularized Ministers.

Referred to the Digest, and no action recommended.

Overture No. 2. From the Presbytery of Newton, asking the General Assembly, if, at a pro re nata meeting, business, necessarily resulting from action taken at such meeting but not included in the call, can be properly transacted. For example; at a pro re nata meeting to dissolve a pastoral relation, and dismiss the pastor, the following items, which were not in the call, were transacted:

Arrangements were made for declaring the pulpit vacant;

Supplies were furnished for the vacant pulpit;

A neighboring pastor was appointed Moderator of the Session of the vacant church, according to a standing rule of the Presbytery;

The Minister dismissed left the important Committee on Systematic Beneficence without a Chairman, of which Committee, the remaining members were not able to act: at this 'pro re nata' meeting this vacancy was filled.

The Committee recommend the following answer: only such action should be had at a pro re nata meeting as is essential to complete the business directly connected with that named in the call for said meeting.

In the case submitted, the appointment of the chairman of a Permanent Committee of the Presbytery was not within the limits of the call for the pro re nata meeting.

Overture No. 3. From the Presbytery of Westchester, asking the Assembly to determine, 1. In what way the action of the General Assembly of 1872, in the matter of limiting licenses to preach (Digest, p. 401), shall be applied to those who were licentiates at the time such action was taken.

2. In what sense the words "extraordinary cases," in the action of 1873 on this subject (401), are to be understood.

3. To make an explicit deliverance, as to the powers of the General Assembly over the functions of the Presbytery in granting and continuing licenses to preach the Gospel.

4. That the General Assembly appoint a Committee to prepare a formula for the reception of members into the Church, for baptism, marriage, and funeral occasions, to report to the next General Assembly.

The Committee recommend the following answer:

1. The action of the Assembly of 1872 requires, that all licenses then in force expire in four years from the date of that action.

2. The determination of the sense of the words "extraordinary cases," must be left to the Presbytery, in connection with the circumstances of each case.

But it is clear that their reference is to the preparatory studies of the Candidates, and not to a class who had only a higher usefulness, and not the ministry, in view.

3. The Assembly has no power over the functions of the Presbytery in granting and continuing licenses, save that of review and control.

4. No action is called for, with reference to formulas for baptism, marriage, and funeral occasions.

Overture No. 4. From the Church of Victor, N. Y., praying to be transferred from the Presbytery of Geneva, Synod of Geneva, to the Presbytery of Rochester, Synod of Western New-York. The Committee recommend, that the prayer of the church of Victor be granted.

Overture No. 5. From the Presbytery of St. Lawrence, on the distribution of the printed Minutes. The Committee recommend that no action be taken.

Overture No. 6. From the Presbytery of Portsmouth, on a change of the Form of Government. No action recommended.

Overtures Nos. 7, 8, 9. From the Presbyteries of Kittanning, Clarion, and Blairsville: "When two churches in different Presbyteries, or Synods, are so situated as to make it apparent to the Presbyteries, to which they belong, that they should be united in one pastoral charge, the pastoral relation may be constituted, and both churches shall, for the time being, be under the care of that Presbytery of which the pastor is a member, and this presbyterial relation shall continue only so long as they retain the same pastor." The Committee recommend the adoption of the overture.

Overtures Nos. 10, 11, 12, 13. From the Presbyteries of Omaha, Nebraska City, and Kearney, praying to be constituted a Synod to be called "The Synod of Nebraska." The Committee recommend that their petition be granted, and that the time of the first meeting of the Synod be the first Thursday in October next, at 7 o'clock P.M., in the First Presbyterian Church of Nebraska City. That the Rev. Nahum Gould preach the sermon, and preside at the organization of the Synod, until a Moderator be chosen; or, in case of his absence, or inability to act, the oldest minister present.

Overture, No 14. From the Presbytery of Newark.

The Committee, in reply, recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1st. That, on the reception of a minister, by certificate of dismission from another Presbytery, it be recommended to the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery receiving him, to notify the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery granting the certificate, of the fact of the reception.

2d. That the name of every minister receiving a certificate of dismission be retained on the roll of the Presbytery dismissing him, until notice of his reception be received from the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery receiving him.

3d. That similar recommendations be sent to Sessions concerning the dismission and reception of church-members.

Overture, No. 15. From the Presbytery of Baltimore, in regard to responsive and ritualistic services.

The Committee recommend these resolutions:

1. That the practice of responsive service in the public worship of the sanctuary is without warrant in the New Testament, and is unwise and impolitic in view of its inevitable tendency to destroy uniformity in our mode of worship.

2. That the sessions of the churches are urged to preserve, in act and spirit, the simplicity of service indicated in the Directory for Worship.

Overture, No 16. From the Presbytery of Allegheny, respecting certain particulars in the request of the Stated Clerk to be observed in the form of the Narrative. The paper has been placed in the hands of that officer, and, as no action had been taken by the Assembly on the subject, the Committee recommend that no answer be given.

Overture, No. 17. From the Presbytery of Champlain, respecting imperfectly organized churches. The Committee recommend, that no action be taken, reference being made to the action of the last Assembly.

Overture, No. 18. From the Presbytery of Steubenville, on a Reduction of Assessments. The Committee state, that this Overture has been made known to the Mileage Committee, and recommend that no farther action be taken.

Overture, No. 19. From the church of Spencer, Presbytery of Binghamton, praying to be transferred to the Presbytery of Chemung, Synod of Geneva. The Committee recommend that the prayer of the church in Spencer be granted.

Overture, No. 20. From the Presbytery of Cleveland, in regard to representation of Collegiate churches. The Committee recommend, that no action be taken, reference being made to the Digest, page 138.

Overtures, Nos. 21 and 22. From the Presbyteries of Lackawanna and Binghamton. The Committee recommend the following answers to the questions proposed:

1st. That Stated Supplies should not preach in the pulpits of any Presbytery without its consent; and, when the consent is refused, the Presbytery to which such minister serving as Stated Supply belongs, being notified, should recall him within its own bounds.

2d. That, inasmuch as evidence has come to the Committee, that the Presbytery of Binghamton has commenced the trial of the minister charged with preaching heresy, by the Presbytery of Lackawanna, since that Presbytery decline to act as prosecutors, no further action is needed.

Overture, No. 23. From the Presbytery of Mankato, in regard to the church of Waseca, Minn.

The Committee recommend the church be referred to the Board of Church Erection, as being authorized to give relief in such cases.

Overture, No 24. From a member of the Presbytery of Utica, asking, "Is a minister a member of a particular church, and, as such, is he elegible to the office of ruling elder in that church?"

The Committee recommend, that the Assembly answer "No;" and refer to the Digest, page 339.

Overture, No. 25. From Mr. B. Darley, asking, "Is it in accordance with Presbyterian law and usage, that Deacons distribute to the church-members the bread and wine in the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper?" The Committee recommend that the Assembly answer "Yes;" and refer to the Digest, page 119.

Overture, No. 26. From a member of the Presbytery of Whitewater, asking, "May chapter 14, section 3, and first clause of our Form of Government, be so construed, as to allow a Presbytery to license a member of a Methodist Episcopal, or Congregational, or other Evangelical church, without his first becoming a member of a Presbyterian church? Or does the expression 'some particular church' mean some particular Presbyterian church?"

The Committee recommend, that inasmuch as the Candidate must be under the care of the Presbytery, and promise to submit himself to its government, the Assembly answer the overture in the negative, and define the phrase "some particular church" to mean some particular Presbyterian church.

Overture, No. 27. From certain missionaries, members of the Synod of India, on the formation of a general organic or Presbyterian union in India. The Committee recommend that, for the sake of both the churches at home, and the churches in heathen lands, the Assembly deem it unwise, for the present, to sever their ecclesiastical relations.

Overture, No. 28. A Memorial from the Pastor, Elders, and Church of Union City, Indiana.

The papers connected with this Overture are of such a nature as to involve a Complaint against the action of the Presbytery. So far as this is true of them, they should have been sent to the Synod. These papers also propose a number of questions in polity; but they are so much involved with a difficulty in a particular church, which needs to be investigated in order to be properly understood, that it is deemed inexpedient to answer them.

The papers, therefore, are returned to the persons who presented them.

Overture, No. 29. On the respective rights of Sessions and Boards of Trustees in regard to church and Sabbath-school property. The Committee recommend the adoption of the following, viz.:

1. That the Constitution of our Church charges the Session with the supervision of the spiritual interests of the congregation, and all services and matters pertaining thereto; and that any action, by the Board of Trustees, unauthorized by the congregation, tending to annul or contravene in any way such supervision and control, is illegal and void.

2. That, as regards the church building, Sabbath-school, and Lecture-room, the Trustees have no right to grant or withhold the use of either, against the wishes or consent of the Session.

Overture, No. 30. From the Presbytery of St. Clairsville, on Home Missions. The Committee recommend this answer :

The Presbytery has power to determine who shall statedly preach in the pulpits of its churches, as declared in the answer to the Overture of the Presbytery of Lackawanna on essentially the same subject.

It was further

Resolved, That this Assembly, in its answer to Overture, No. 27, does not intend to discountenance any action of our missionaries, in connection with missionaries from other Presbyterian bodies, which does not subject them to any ecclesiastical jurisdiction other than that to which they are now subject.

The following resolution was, also, adopted :

Resolved, That this Assembly warns the churches under its care against the spirit of worldly conformity now prevailing, and reminds the church sessions that all known departures from the Word of God in all the pleasures and duties of private, social, and civil life of their members, are under their supervision.

The following resolution was, also, adopted :

Resolved, That in view of the numerous cases of mortality as shown in the necrological list of the past year, embracing as it does a large proportion of the middle-aged and comparatively young, as well as the aged and infirm, this Assembly solemnly enjoins on all its ministers increased consecration in the service of our Divine Master, bearing vividly in mind his own awakening admonition, "The night cometh."

The Committees on the several Synodical Records following reported, recommending their approval as far as written : On the Records of the Synods of Albany, Baltimore, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Colorado, Columbus, Erie, Geneva, Illinois North, Illinois Central, Illinois South, Indiana North, Indiana South, Iowa North, Iowa South, Kansas, Kentucky, Long Island, Minnesota, Missouri, New-Jersey, New-York, Pacific, Philadelphia, Tennessee, Toledo, Utica, Wisconsin, and Western New-York ; and the Records of these Synods were approved.

The Committee appointed to examine the Records of the Synod of Harrisburg reported, recommending their approval, with the exception of the Judicial case on pages 179 and 180, in which the Synod found the papers of a Complaint in order, and dismissed the case without assigning a reason. The report was adopted.

The Committee appointed to examine the records of the Synod of Michigan reported, recommending their approval as far as written, with this exception, viz., the calling of a pro re rata meeting at Petersburgh, September 4th, 1873, for the purpose of changing the time of the regular meeting, in order that the Synod might not be in session during the meeting of the Evangelical Alliance in the city of New-York.

It appears from the record that the Moderator issued a call for this special meeting of the Synod, basing his authority on the form of Government, chapter 10, section 10.

Your Committee think that this section refers to Presbyteries, and not to Synods.

The report was adopted.

The Report of the Committee on the Records of the Synod of Pittsburgh, as amended, was adopted as follows:

Your Committee would respectfully report, that the records have been well kept, and are in good order.

And would further report that on pages 214 and 215 we find this minute: "The Judicial Committee report," etc., etc. (See Minutes.) The case appears to have been taken up, and the parties heard; and on page 227 it is recorded, "The complaints," etc., etc.; also, "A committee," etc.; and on page 231, "The report of said Committee," "In not sustaining," etc. We also find, on page 227, this minute, "The Committee on the Records," etc.

With reference to this action, your Committee would respectfully move the adoption of the following minute, viz.: Inasmuch as it is contrary to the spirit and principles of the Presbyterian Church, and subversive of the true design of ecclesiastical discipline, for a superior judicatory to compel an inferior court to reverse its decision, rendered after a full, fair, and impartial trial, without assigning and placing on record some specific reason for such reversal,—that the Records, so far as they relate to this point in this case, be disapproved.

The Report of the Committee of Conference with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church was accepted, and the Committee continued, the Rev. William E. Moore being substituted for the Rev. Henry A. Nelson, at the request of the latter.

The Committee of Conference with the United Presbyterian Church reported that they had addressed a communication to said Church, to which no reply has been received.

The report was approved, and the Committee continued.

The Committee of Conference with the Old School Synod of Missouri reported that no correspondence had been held with that Synod, since the last Assembly.

The report was approved, and the Committee discharged.

The action of the Assembly, fixing the place for the meeting of the next Assembly, was reconsidered, and the First Presbyterian Church of CLEVELAND, Ohio, was chosen.

The Sessions of the churches of Cleveland were appointed a Committee of Arrangements.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Benevolence was taken from the docket. Pending its consideration,

An invitation was presented from the Vice-President of the Denver and Rio Grande Railway Company, offering a special train and free excursion over the entire length of that road, to the Assembly on their Western Excursion.

Whereupon, it was

Resolved, That the thanks of the Assembly be tendered to William J. Palmer, Esq., Vice-President of the Denver and Rio Grande Railway Company, for the courteous and liberal invitation extended to this Assembly, and that the question of accepting this invitation be referred to those members of this Body who may visit Denver.

The Committee on Correspondence presented their Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Correspondence would report, that communications have been received from the following Delegations to Corresponding Bodies.

1. From the Delegation to the several Corresponding Assemblies of the Free Church of Scotland; the Church of Scotland; the Synod of the United Presbyterian Church of Great Britain and Ireland; and the Presbyterian Church in Ireland.

2. From the Delegation to the General Assembly of the Canada Presbyterian Church, and to the Synod of the Presbyterian Church in Canada in connection with the Church of Scotland.

3. From the Delegation to the Synod of the Presbyterian Church of the Lower Provinces of British North-America, and to the Synod in the Lower Provinces in connection with the Church of Scotland.

4. From the Delegation to the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North-America.

5. From the Delegation to the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

They recommend the appointment of the following Delegates to Corresponding Bodies:

1. To the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North-America—Rev. Melancthon W. Jacobus; Rev. James Y. Mitchell, Alternate.

2. To the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the United States—Rev. William E. Knox.

3. To the General Assembly of the Welsh Calvinistic Presbyterian Church in North-America—Rev. John D. Jones.

4. To the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church—Rev. John W. Bailey; Rev. Edward B. Wright, Alternate.

5. To the General Assembly of the Canada Presbyterian Church—Rev. Joseph E. Nassau; Rev. James Gardner, Alternate.

6. To the Reformed Presbyterian Church—Rev. Charles A. Dickey.

The Committee would recommend that this Assembly reciprocate the courtesy of Foreign Bodies, by sending Delegates to them respectively as often as they send delegates to us.

The Assembly took a recess, until 2 o'clock P.M.

After the recess,

The consideration of the Report of the Committee on Benevolence was resumed, and it was amended by making the apportionment to Home Missions Four Hundred Thousand Dollars, instead of Four Hundred and Seventy Thousand, as recommended in the original Report of the Committee. It was then adopted, and the Stated Clerk directed to rearrange the pro rata accordingly. The Report, as thus amended and adopted, is as follows:

The Committee on Benevolence, to whom was referred the Report of the General Assembly's Committee on Benevolence and Finance, together with several resolutions offered to the Assembly on this subject, respectfully submit that there is no matter of more importance requiring the consideration and action of this Assembly.

The principles of Christian Benevolence presented so clearly, and advocated so earnestly, by the Committee of which Mr. Winthrop S. Gilman has been Chairman for three years, have been steadily growing in favor with our churches; and, we are satisfied, will be more cordially sustained, the more they are studied under the guiding and sanctifying influence of the Word and Spirit of God. These principles are formulated as follows, viz.:

1. That all giving to religious objects should be from spiritual motives, and as an act of worship to Almighty God, a grateful gift to our Divine Redeemer, and a means of grace to our own souls.

2. That giving should be systematic, oft-repeated, and not left to the casualties of special or moving appeals, or of temporary ability or inconvenience.

3. That, in order to make property in the highest degree useful, and its acquisition a check to covetousness, and a means of spiritual improvement, each should decide beforehand upon a definite proportion of income which he will set aside at stated periods for benevolent objects. The proportion of not less than one tenth is recommended, to be increased as God may prosper. And, from the fund thus laid by him in store, let each make his offerings for the support of the work of the Church.

4. That the several different congregations of believers, taken collectively, constitute one body; and that, in the Presbyterian Church, all parts of the body are represented in the General Assembly; that the obligation, therefore, to support church work, which is undertaken by the General Assembly, in obedience to the command of Christ (Matt. 28 : 19, 20), rests equally upon every member of the Presbyterian Church, in proportion to the ability of each.

These principles were substantially enunciated by the General Assembly at Baltimore, and certainly will not be receded from, whatever "broader, bolder plans" may be devised in the future, than any heretofore proposed, "to promote throughout the Church the regular and systematic consecration of property to the Lord."

While the present judgment of the General Assembly is, that the Committee on Benevolence and Finance, located for three years with unpaid officers in New-York be, at their own request, discontinued; it is at the same time decided, that the Treasurer of the Home Board shall receive and pay out to all the Boards of the Church whatever money may be sent to him for distribution.

We do not forget that, during these years of the existence of the Committee, now discharged from the important and gratuitous service which they have cheerfully rendered in their endeavor to develop the liberality of the Church, they have done their own work and borne their own expenses. It would be ingratitude on our part to politely bow this efficient Committee out of office, without acknowledging, in the most public manner, that the thanks of the Assembly and of the whole Church are due to them, and especially to Mr. Gilman.

And now, in order to meet a permanent want of the Church, it is recommended that the Standing Committee on the Benevolent Work of the Church, consist of one member from each of the Synods, to be appointed annually by the Synods, and that this Committee, thus constituted, shall determine in advance, as far as possible, the amount of money needed for the different Boards, and shall take such advisory action as shall be seen fit in regard to the wisest and most efficient modes of disbursement.

The sum of one million six hundred and twenty-two thousand dollars ($1,622,000) will be required for carrying forward successfully the various schemes to the prosecution of which, we, as a Church, are already committed. Nothing less than this amount will pay for the work that ought to be done, and can be done, during this year, if all the people, of whom the Holy Ghost hath given us spiritual oversight in the Lord, will, along with their prayers, send in their contributions "according to their several ability."

We do not believe, that all the churches under the care of the General Assembly are yet prepared, to adopt any of the many plans now in use for calling forth systematically the benevolence of our Christian people; but your Committee consider, that the plan of weekly offerings in the sanctuary, as an act of worship, is God's appointed plan—the true and scriptural method which we recommend for adoption by all our churches.

The following schedule of contributions has been adopted by the Committee, and is recommended for the approval of the Assembly, viz.:

Foreign Missions	$600,000	or .37	per cent.
Home Missions	400,000	" .24⅔	"
Sustentation	100,000	" .06⅛	"
Church Erection	150,000	" .09¼	"
Education	112,000	" .06⅞	"
Ministerial Relief	110,000	" .06¾	"
Freedmen	75,000	" .04⅔	"
Publication	75,000	" .04⅔	"
	$1,622,000	1.00	"

It was Resolved, That the Committee of seven appointed by this Assembly to inquire into the expediency of raising the Committee on Ministerial Relief to the position of a Board, be further instructed to inquire and report on the whole subject of providing relief for disabled and superannuated ministers and the families of deceased ministers, with a few to enlarged powers and increased efficiency in the prosecution of this important branch of Church work.

It was also Resolved, That the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly be instructed to correspond with the Committee on Foreign Correspondence of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, Rev. J. Marshall Lang, Glasgow, Convener, with reference to a Union Presbyterian Church in the city of Rome, and report to the next General Assembly.

The Stated Clerk was directed to cast the ballot of the Assembly for Trustees of the Board of Church Erection, and Trustees of the Presbyterian House.

The following were accordingly elected Trustees of the Board of Church Erection, for three years: Rev. Messrs. Alexander Reed, Marvin R. Vincent, and George S. Bishop; and Messrs. Nathan Lane, Hezekiah King, and Charles Collins.

Also, for two years, in place of Mr. Winthrop S. Gilman, resigned, Rev. Charles S. Robinson.

The following were elected Trustees of the Presbyterian House, for two years: Rev. Messrs. Alexander Reed and David A. Cunningham; and Messrs. William E. Tenbrook, Alexander Whilldin, and John B. Gest.

It was Resolved, That a Committee, consisting of Rev. Messrs. Ezra F. Mundy, Edwin F. Hatfield, and Lewis Lampman; and Messrs. Louis Chapin and Alanson Sheley, be appointed to consider the matter of mileage charges of commissioners to the General Assembly, with a view to provide such regulations as shall tend to greater uniformity in the allowance for mileage; who shall report to the next General Assembly; their report to be considered on the second day of the sessions.

The Committee on Leave of Absence made a final report, as follows: The following persons have been excused from the remaining sessions of this Assembly:

Rev. Samuel P. Halsey, of the Presbytery of Brooklyn.
Rev. J. Clement French, of the Presbytery of Brooklyn.
Rev. Milton Bradley, of the Presbytery of Kalamazoo.
Rev. Henry M. Giltner, of the Presbytery of Nebraska City.
Rev. Ziba N. Bradbury, of the Presbytery of Steuben.
Rev. Luther A. Ostrander, of the Presbytery of Dubuque.
Elder James B. Jamison, of the Presbytery of St. Clairsville.
Rev. Henry C. Pringle, of the Presbytery of St. Clairsville.
Elder Hugh Brower, of the Presbytery of St. Clairsville.
Elder William M. Marsh, of the Presbytery of Newton.
Rev. O. Howell Hazard, of the Presbytery of North-River.
Rev. Andrus F. Ashley, of the Presbytery of Schuyler.
Elder Aaron R. Jordan, of the Presbytery of Schuyler.

The Standing Committees, having completed their business, were severally discharged.

The observance of the first week of January next as a Week of Prayer for the Conversion of the World, and of the last Thursday of January next as a Day of Prayer for Schools and Colleges, and for the youth of the land and the world, was recommended to the churches.

The following Resolutions of Thanks were, by a rising vote, adopted unanimously:

Resolved, That the unanimous and cordial thanks of this General Assembly be tendered to the Rev. Charles A. Dickey, Chairman, and to the other members, of the Committee of Arrangements, for their efficient labors and abundant courtesy, which have so happily provided for the entertainment and personal comfort of the individual Commissioners, and the ready prosecution of the labors of this Assembly.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Assembly are hereby given to the Trustees and Session of the First Presbyterian Church, for the use of their beautiful and commodious edifice in its manifold appointments; and to the Postmaster and his gentlemanly assistants, who have so efficiently brought the facilities of the post-office within continual easy reach of the Assembly.

Resolved, That this Assembly desires to express its appreciation of the labors of the Committee of ladies and gentlemen of the various Presbyterian churches, who have, from day to day, provided a bounteous lunch, which has not only refreshed the members, but has also, in the time which it has saved the Assembly, largely aided the prosecution of its business.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Assembly are due especially to Henry M. Blossom, Esq., the Secretary of the Committee of Arrangements, for the musical entertainment, provided by his labors, which so delighted the Assembly, and for his unwearied efforts to provide for the comfort, and facilitate the business, of the Assembly; to E. Anson More, Esq., Chairman of the Transportation Committee; to the Rev. Samuel J. Niccolls and to the Rev. Charles H. Foote for their continued courtesy and kindness; and to the gentlemen who organized the visit made by the Assembly to the Railroad Bridge spanning the Mississippi.

Resolved, That the Assembly returns its grateful acknowledgments to the several Railroad Companies who have passed the Commissioners at reduced fares over their roads; and to the conductors of the Assembly Journal, and of the daily papers of this city, for their efforts to furnish full and accurate reports of the proceedings of the Assembly.

Resolved, That the warmest expression of thanks is due from this Assembly to the people of St. Louis, who have, with large-hearted hospitality, opened their houses and made them our homes during these protracted sessions, and whose delicate attention and appreciative kindness have made us, the while, almost forget the homes we have left behind.

A unanimous Vote of Thanks was also tendered to the Moderator for the faithfulness, ability, impartiality, and courtesy, with which he has presided over the proceedings of this Assembly.

The Stated Clerk was directed to publish at least the usual number of copies of the Minutes of this Assembly, with the customary Appendix.

The Janitors' bill, and the bills for stationery and traveling expenses of Delegates and Committees, with the salaries and traveling expenses of the Stated and Permanent Clerks, were ordered to be paid.

The roll was called.

The minutes of this session were read and approved.

After the offering of solemn praise and thanksgiving, the business of the Assembly having been completed, and the vote taken for the dissolution of the Assembly, the Moderator, with prayer and the Apostolic Benediction, declared the Assembly dissolved, and required another Assembly, chosen in the same manner, to meet at the First Presbyterian Church in the city of CLEVELAND, Ohio, on the third Thursday of May, 1875.

APPENDIX.

I. Annual Narrative

OF THE

STATE OF RELIGION

WITHIN THE BOUNDS OF THE

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

IN THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

ONLY eight short years have passed since, in this same goodly city of St. Louis, our beloved Church was represented by two General Assemblies. What changes those years have brought!

The two Assemblies of 1866 are now one. The lamentable division of thirty-three years has been healed—so healed that neither scar nor seam can be discerned in the expanding, peaceful, hopeful, thoroughly one Church of to-day.

For this we both "thank God and take courage." And specially is this expression of gratitude appropriate here and now; since it was in this city and, in part in this very house, were begun those fraternal conferences (yea, and holy communions) which, under the blessed guidance of God, were consummated four years afterward in a reunited, rejoicing Church.

And specially do we "take courage," since, by the unanimous and impressive action taken by this Assembly, in response to the overture of certain members of the "O. S. Synod of Missouri," we hope the way is preparing for another union, which, let us believe, will not terminate until all our Presbyterian brethren of the South are once more enrolled in the Church of their fathers. The Lord hasten it in his time!

It has been to your Committee both instructive and soul-stirring, to review the record of a single year—the testimony to the love and guidance, the tenderness and care of a covenant-keeping God. If not pre-eminent as a period of remarkable providences, it has been one presenting gracious and numerous evidences of the right hand of God.

Our growth has been great; our beneficence increased (more having been given this year to Foreign Missions than was ever before poured into the Treasury of any church in this land); our harmony has been undisturbed; our ministry have been laborious; our people have developed unusual zeal; hope and trust pervade the Church. Seldom do we find tokens of depression or fear. The Church's motto, on all sides, seems accepted, "GO FORWARD!"

In the Narratives which have been put into the hands of your Committee from 133 of the 172 Presbyteries of our widely-extended Church, we trace everywhere the tokens of prosperity in Zion. It is impossible, however, to present any detailed evidence of this in the brief summary of a single Narrative. Some of the Records, moreover, are exceedingly meagre and imperfect; a few of the Presbyteries (as Lehigh and Northumberland) reporting that one half of their churches had entirely failed in statistical reports. But from the voluminous data in our possession, we condense the following facts, given as concisely as possible, our object being to give record and not rhetoric, figures of arithmetic, not figures of speech.

Revivals.

A large proportion of the Presbyteries report revivals of religion; some defined as "powerful" and "protracted," or "Pentecostal," not only quickening, strengthening, sanctifying the people of God, but gathering a multitude of ransomed souls into the Church of Christ.

The work of grace in this city, for example, is defined as of almost unparalleled power; healing sectional strifes and divisions; promoting heaven-born charity; reaching the poor, the intemperate, the debased, and enrolling one thousand names in the army of our God.

On the other hand, from some quarters comes the cry of lamentation over drought and barrenness. Nevertheless this sweeping survey reveals a year of abundant benediction; a Church edified and advanced; the Lord having added to the Church, daily, the saved—tens of thousands redeemed.

Sabbath-Schools.

Among the evidences of our prosperity, we find most uniform testimony of good cheer concerning the Sabbath-schools of our Church. Great prominence is given to this subject in nearly all the Narratives. Increase of zeal and faithfulness on the part of teachers; of numbers and interest on the part of scholars; of helpfulness and liberality on the part of parents and patrons; and, lastly, increase, also, in the proportion of those under Sabbath-school instruction who have professed their faith in Jesus. As contributing to these blessed results, reference is made (1) to the "International Lesson Series;" (2) to the "Presbyterian at Work" and "Lesson Leaf," as well as other publications; (3) to Teachers' weekly-meetings for Prayer and Study; (4) to Sabbath-school Institutes and Associations under Presbyterial Supervision; (5) but pre-eminently to the Holy Spirit of God, taking of the things of Christ and showing them unto both teacher and taught.

No sufficient evidence, however, came before your Committee to warrant them in asserting, that the Shorter Catechism of our Church is systematically taught in our schools, and we, therefore, do most earnestly commend that wondrous summary of Sabbath-school doctrine to the use of all instructors of our youth.

Beneficence.

Another testimony, to encourage the Church, is the year's record concerning systematic consecrated beneficence. The narratives largely refer to the financial embarrassments of the year; yet very few acknowledge a decrease in gifts; while a large number report an increase of benefactions, church debts removed, and other proofs of a growing liberality, notwithstanding the monetary crisis and the stagnation of trade.

In the matter of Church Erection and Church Extension, encouraging progress is to be recorded. Many of our Presbyteries report new church organizations effected, and an almost equal number tell us of new church buildings erected and older ones rebuilt or renewed and beautified. Scores of suitable structures have sprung up during the year, here and there throughout the great West, chiefly owing to the timely though limited aid of our Church Erection Board; yet these Presbyterial Records only add to the perhaps already universal conviction of our Church, that our great need in this direction is, the help of the stronger, through the Church Erection Board, in aid of the weaker—means to multiply, and ministers to man, new churches.

On the whole, our growth has not been commensurate with our membership, our means, and our manifest mission in this land. We are at fault in esprit de corps. We build schools, and colleges, and seminaries of learning, and aid other branches of the Church, sometimes to the sad oversight of our own. "These ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone." Let us arise and build.

In the cause of

an unprecedented interest is revealed by the Narratives.

One remarkably uniform record is the union of prayer and effort in the attempted overthrow of this soul-destroying sin and curse. Frequent mention is made of a temperance movement attended, or followed, by a revival of religion. The noble labors of women in this work are frequently referred to with commendation, as well as admiration; although others testify with decided qualification; and others commend the help thus given, not, they significantly add, "by parading the streets in praying bands, but by going from house to house obtaining signatures to remonstrances." Abundant evidence is before us of God's answers to prayer in this behalf. Therefore, again would we recognize and reiterate the truth, that the people of God should, in this great Cause, shine as lights in the world; presenting examples of abstinence and sobriety, and aiding in every wise way the work of extirpating this terrible and unparalleled curse.

Special notice is given, in the reports, of the organization of Auxiliary Missionary Societies, and Children's Bands, to develop a true spirit of missions in our Church, in behalf of both the Home and Foreign Field, and recognizing the remarkable successes which have attended these efforts thus far—notably in the collection, this year, of more than $60,000 by the Women's Foreign Missionary Society. Shall we not commend this plan to the women of all our churches, as a sphere of service pre-eminently effective and important?

WOMAN'S WORK FOR WOMEN,

SABBATH DESECRATION is frequently alluded to. The power of worldliness to mislead, and long journeys on business in our ever-enlarging country made excuses for Sunday travel as almost unavoidable, lead us once again to proclaim, "Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy."

FAMILY RELIGION

is reported as in some sections of the Church very largely neglected; though, from other Presbyteries, we learn of a more consistent and hopeful estimate of the family altar.

We note, also, among

OTHER MATTERS,

that, with a single exception noted, peace and harmony seem to have marked the year as one favored of that Father who is "Love," that Saviour whose symbol is the "Lamb," and the presence of that blessed Spirit, who is represented by the gentle "Dove."

Several Presbyteries speak of an unusually large number of VACANT PULPITS being, this year, again occupied; and many report MANSES for their ministers built, or purchased—an eminently important matter, gradually by experiment growing into wide favor in our Church.

Young People's Associations, for mutual help and development in prayer and church work, are highly commended from various parts of the land.

Visitation by Ruling Elders, in accordance with their high office, and the teaching of God's word, is specially reported to the Assembly. In one Presbytery in Pennsylvania, a revival of religion is traced directly to the use of this scriptural instrumentality, devout visitation from house to house with words of prayer, encouragement, and counsel.

The Free Pew System

is declared to be successful, whenever fairly tested, in increasing both the attendance on the sanctuary, and the revenue of the congregation. The attendance on the means of grace, in the Church at large, is reported as a marked increase on the past.

Ministerial Obituary.

But, in our cup of rejoicing and thanksgiving, tears are mingled. Sorrow has come to our hearts as we review the "Roll-call of the Dead," and report to the Assembly that eighty-five of our beloved fathers and brethren have during the year fallen asleep in Jesus; some of them pre-eminent in admiration and love of the Church—Doctors Elliott, and Spring, and Fisher, and Hitchcock, notable among them: the first three having been Moderators of the General Assembly of our Church;—and many more, less prominent, but no less precious to our Master and to his people. All these have outrun us and come first to the sepulchre. We follow swiftly on. May we emulate their virtues, meeting faithfully our mission, until we, like them, shall enter into rest.

Conclusion.

Let us then recognize these abundant proofs of the loving-kindness of our God. Let us be encouraged by the past to intenser love and toil for the future. Let us trustfully commit our beloved Church to the care of its ever present Saviour and Head; and, on this dividing line, apprehending fully the retrospect and the prospect, let us thankfully, hopefully, exclaim, "Now unto Him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto Him be glory in the Church by Christ Jesus, throughout all ages, world without end. Amen."

Messrs Robert L. and Alexander Stuart, of New York City, have conveyed, on conditions specified in the deed of gift, two lots of land adjoining the Seminary premises, containing about three acres. On one of these stands the dwelling-house occupied by Professor Aiken. The Board of Trustees have accepted the trust on the terms proposed.

The number of volumes now in the Library is 24,955, or 859 more than last year; of which 349 are donations; from Robert Lenox Kennedy, Esq.,

203 volumes, including the British "Ordnance Survey of the Peninsula of Sinai," under Captains Wilson and Palmer (5 vols. folio), 20 works on Assyriology, besides 172 others; from Messrs. Robert L. and Alexander Stuart, two sets of the Ante-Nicene Christian Library, Vol. IV. of Codex Vaticanus (completing the set), Commodore Perry's U. S. Japan Expedition (4 vols. 4to), 53 volumes in all; from William Libbey, Esq., of New-York, a valuable set of 42 volumes; from Levi P. Stone, Esq., 18 volumes, and 33 from miscellaneous sources.

The new Library Catalogue will be published this year, the classification, arranging, and cataloguing of the Library having been completed.

Measures have been adopted with reference to the improvement of the Chapel, and other buildings.

Committees appointed by the Board statedly examine the securities in the hands of the Financial Agent and the Treasurer, reporting in detail. These securities are held in the name of the Trustees of the Seminary, and can neither be sold nor transferred without a special order of the Board.

Respectfully submitted,

Signed, in behalf of the Board of Trustees,

Princeton, April, 1874. GEORGE HALE, Secretary.

II. AUBURN SEMINARY.

Annual Report of the Faculty.

The general superintendence, management, and control of Auburn Theological Seminary belong to a Board of Commissioners, composed of a representation of two clergymen and one layman from each of the Presbyteries comprised in the bounds of the Synods of Albany, Central New-York, Geneva, and Western New-York. The Commissioners fill the places of the Trustees as they become vacant; appoint the Professors; and, with the concurrence of the Trustees, fix the salaries, and make all necessary appropriations of funds. Each Commissioner holds his office three years; one going out of office, and the Presbytery supplying his place by a new election, each year. Vacancies occasioned by removal are filled by the Presbyteries as they occur.

The Commissioners and Trustees, at their annual meeting in May, 1873, took final action, declaring, "That, hereafter, the appointments of Professors in this Seminary be primarily made conditional upon the approval of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and that such appointments be complete and authoritative only upon securing such approval;" and the Assembly of 1873 recognized this action. See Minutes, p. 529.

The Examining Committee on the part of the Commissioners is composed of those members who are serving their third year of office.

The Faculty is at present constituted as follows:

Rev. Samuel M. Hopkins, D.D., Hyde Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Church Polity.
Rev. Edwin Hall, D.D., Richards Professor of Christian Theology.
Rev. Ezra A. Huntington, D.D., Taylor Professor of Biblical Criticism.
Rev. Willis J. Beecher, A.M., Professor of Hebrew Language and Literature.
Rev. Herrick Johnson, D.D., Bellamy and Edwards Professor of Sacred Rhetoric and Pastoral Theology.

Pending the action of the Assembly in regard to confirming his election, Dr. Johnson has provisionally filled the chair of Sacred Rhetoric and Pastoral Theology since the first of January, 1874. Until that time, the retiring Professor, Rev. Jonathan B. Condit, D.D., had continued to act.

Since the last Report, the following seventeen students have been received:

TO THE SENIOR CLASS.

James Kennier Wilson, on testimonials from New College, Edinburgh.

TO THE MIDDLE CLASS.

Eugene Cheeseman, a graduate of Hamilton College.
Lewis Hall Morey, a graduate of Rochester University, on letters from the Rochester Theological Seminary.

TO THE JUNIOR CLASS.

Myron Nevins Bartholomew, a graduate of Hamilton College.
Hermann Carl George Brandt, " " " Elias Baldwin Fisher, " " " Charles Frederick Goss, " " " George Marsh Janes, " " " Randall Pease, " " " Christopher Snyder Vincent, " " " Ormond Worthington Wright, " " "
William McDuffee, an under-graduate of " "
Hezekiah Webster, " " "
Benjamin Bonney Dayton, a graduate of Rochester University.
Ferdinand Valentine Krug, " Western Reserve College.
Warren Bradley Riggs, " Yale College.
William Henry Niles, " Cornell University.

James Anderson, admitted last year, after resting from study for one year, for the recovery of his health, has been in attendance this year on the Junior Class.

Rev. George Grantham Smith has studied in the Seminary during a part of the year, as a resident graduate.

The whole number of students has been thirty-seven.

The following members of the Senior Class have completed the course of three years, and received the usual diplomas:

Robert Luckey Bachman,
Maurice Dwight Edwards,
George Flavel Humphreys,
George Cheever Jewell,
George Washington Leonard,
William Reed,
George Russell Smith,
Benjamin Alexander Williamson.

A substantial addition to the library of the Seminary is now being made, through the gift of $6000 by Albert H. Porter, Esq., of Niagara Falls. This amount is being used in filling an alcove with Patristic and Rabbinical works. This is in addition to the increase of the library from its ordinary sources of income. Since our last Report, 394 select volumes have been purchased for this alcove, and 83 for other departments; while 76 volumes have been received by donation; making a total increase of 553 volumes.

Since our last Report, the requisite sums have been either subscribed or guaranteed to make up an additional endowment of $300,000. One fourth of this is given by Hon. Edwin B. Morgan, of Aurora, and is to be used in the erection of a new dormitory building. Of the remainder, $90,000 is, by the terms of the subscription, added to the endowment of the present five Professorships. And most of what remains is designated for investment as a permanent fund.

The corner-stone of the new building was laid, May 7th, 1874. The building is to be completed by July, 1875, at a cost of not far from $100,000. It is to be 216 feet long by 45 feet wide, with five stories, and to accommodate about 70 students, each with a study and a bed-room.

The rooms in the old dormitory building were freshly fitted up in 1872, and were never more comfortable than at present.

All which is respectfully submitted.

Approved by the Faculty, WILLIS J. BEECHER,
Clerk of Faculty.

III. WESTERN SEMINARY.

1. Annual Report of the Directors.

The Board of Directors of the Western Theological Seminary, at Allegheny City, present to the General Assembly the following as their Forty-seventh Annual Report:

Since our last Report, the following twenty-nine students have been matriculated, viz.:

Wilson Asdale,	a graduate of	Western University.
Frank Alva Barr,	"	" "
John Mitchell Birch,	a graduate of	Washington and Jefferson College.
James Alpheus Cook,	"	Muskingum College.
Joseph Miller Duff,	"	Western University.
Samuel E. Elliott,	"	Westminster College.
Samuel G. A. Fields,	"	Madison University.

Samuel T. Street.
Charles Symington.
William D. Wallace,	"	Muskingum College.
William J. Wilson,	"	Westminster College.
John B. Worrall,	"	Centre College.

Of these, James A. Cook, John C. Gourley, and John J. Graham, entered the Middle Class; Samuel G. A. Fields entered irregularly. Homer Sheely entered as a resident licentiate. The others entered the Junior Class. John J. Graham was received from Princeton Seminary.

The summary of the year shows: Resident Minister, 1; Resident Licentiate, 1; Senior Class, 40; Middle Class, 17; Junior Class, 23; total, 82.

The health of the students has been remarkably good. Attention to studies and faithfulness in the discharge of duties have been commendable.

All the Professors have been present and regularly at work during the term.

In the early part of the term, our venerable Emeritus Professor, the Rev. David Elliott, D.D., LL.D., exhibited his wonted interest in the affairs of the Institution; but his strength gradually declined through the winter, and on Wednesday afternoon, March 18th, 1874, he peacefully fell asleep in Jesus. He rests from his labors, and his works do follow him.

The following thirty-nine students, having completed the three years' course and fulfilled the requirements of the Institution, have received diplomas, viz.:

J. Elbridge Andrews,
John S. Axtell,
J. P. Barbor,
George W. Bean,
A. Fulton Boyd,
M. H. Bradley,
James D. Caldwell,
Silas Cooke,
George Copland,

Eugene P. Dunlap,
William F. Ewing,
John M. Galbraith,
W. C. Hartzell,
J. H. Hawk,
James T. Houston,
R. H. Howey,
E. Fletcher Hyde,
E. R. Jones,
Thomas D. Logan,
Joseph J. McCarrell,
Robert McCaslin,
J. M. McCauley,
Henry R. McDonald,
W. W. McLean,
James McLean,
H. G. Mendenhall,
N. H. Miller,
Robert B. Porter,
David B. Rogers,
D. J. Sanders,
W. R. Templeton,
J. W. Van Eman,
R. A. Watson,
Hugh P. Wilson.

W. M. Eaton, having only studied two years in the Seminary, could not, under the rules, receive a diploma, but was granted a certificate from the Faculty, setting forth the facts in his case.

It is with profound sorrow that we mention the death of the Rev. Henry L. Hitchcock, D.D., President of Western Reserve College, who departed this life, June, 1873. For nearly two years he had been an efficient member of this Board.

At a meeting of the Board, held April 23d, 1874, the Rev. Samuel Thompson Lowrie, of Abington, Pa., was unanimously elected Professor of New Testament Literature and Exegesis.

The following persons were elected at our annual meeting, in April last, to fill vacancies existing or occurring at that time, viz.:

Ministers.

William D. Howard, D.D.,
Robert B. Walker, D.D.,
James Allison, D.D.,
Richard Craighead,
Archibald A. E. Taylor, D.D.,
Thomas H. Robinson, D.D., in place of Robert Dickson, D.D., resigned.

Elders.

James Laughlin,
Benjamin Rush Bradford,
Hon. Henry W. Williams, LL.D.

Also to fill the term of the Rev. Henry L. Hitchcock, D.D., deceased, Rev. Carroll Cutler, D.D. To fill the term of the Rev. James Eells, D.D., resigned, the Rev. Charles S. Pomeroy. And to fill the term of the Rev. Rev. Joel Stoneroad, resigned, the Rev. John M. Barnett.

PROFESSORS AND INSTRUCTOR OF THE SEMINARY.

Rev. Melancthon W. Jacobus, D.D., LL.D., Professor of Old Testament Literature and Exegetical Theology.
Rev. Samuel Jennings Wilson, D.D., LL.D., Professor of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History.
Rev. Archibald Alexander Hodge, D.D., Professor of Didactic, Historical, and Polemic Theology.
Rev. William H. Hornblower, D.D., Reunion Professor of Sacred Rhetoric, Church Government, and Pastoral Theology.
Rev. Samuel Thompson Lowrie, Professor of New Testament Literature and Exegesis.
Rev. Luther Halsey, D.D., LL.D., Lecturer Extraordinary on Practical Theology.
Rev. Edward P. Crane, Instructor in Hebrew.

Dr. Herron, from Rev. A. Williams, D.D.

Respectfully submitted,

THEODORE H. NEVIN,
JOHN A. RENSHAW, Committee.

IV. LANE SEMINARY.

Annual Report of the Trustees.

The Board of Trustees of Lane Theological Seminary would respectfully report to the General Assembly, to meet at St. Louis, Mo., Thursday, May 21st, 1874, viz. The Trustees are as follows:

Rev. George M. Maxwell, D.D., President.
James Taylor, M.D., Anthony H. Hinkle, Franklin V. Chamberlain, Vice-Presidents.
Rev. William Van Vleck, Corresponding Secretary.
Rev. Cornelius H. Taylor, D.D., Recording Secretary.
Rev. Joseph G. Monfort, D.D., Treasurer.

Rev. Benjamin Graves,	Huntsville, Ala.
Ezekiel Ross, Esq.,	Cincinnati, Ohio.
Edward D. Mansfield, LL.D.,	Morrow, Ohio.
Rev. John M. Boal,	Urbana, Ohio.
Rev. Addison Kingsbury, D.D.,	Zanesville, Ohio.
Rev. E. Perkins Pratt, D.D.,	Portsmouth, Ohio.
Preserved Smith, Esq.,	Dayton, Ohio.
Hon. C. W. Potwin,	Zanesville, Ohio.
Rev. Israel W. Andrews, D.D.,	Marietta, Ohio.
Rev. Joseph F. Tuttle, D.D.,	Crawfordsville, Ind.
Rev. Oscar A. Hills,	Cincinnati, Ohio.
Mr. G. W. McAlpin,	Cincinnati, Ohio.
Hon. Stanley Matthews,	Cincinnati, Ohio.
W. W. Scarborough, Esq.,	Cincinnati, Ohio.
John Shillito, Esq.,	Cincinnati, Ohio.
Mr. H. F. West,	Cincinnati, Ohio.
Hon. Chauncey N. Olds,	Columbus, Ohio.

The following constitute the Faculty, viz. :

Rev. Henry Smith, D.D., Professor of Sacred Rhetoric.
Rev. Llewellyn J. Evans, D.D., Professor of Hebrew and Old Testament Exegesis.
Rev. Edward D. Morris, D.D., Professor of Theology.
Rev. Thomas E. Thomas, D.D., Professor of New Testament Greek and Exegesis.

Rev. H. A. Nelson, D.D., resigned the chair of Theology at the close of the Seminary year, and Rev. E. D. Morris, D.D., was elected to the vacancy. The chair of Church History, it is expected, will be filled in a few weeks.

The Board of Trustees, with much regret, accepted the resignation of Dr. Nelson, in view of his desire to return to the pastoral work. His connection with the Seminary has been a continual illustration of his faithfulness and efficiency as a teacher; and, in all relations, he has been eminently useful, diligent, and beloved.

Since our last report, the following new students have been received :

SENIOR CLASS.

Gideon S. W. Crawford,	of	Knoxville, Tenn.
Edward D. Vance,	"	Erie, Pa.

MIDDLE CLASS.

William Carson,	of	Weston, Mo.
William S. Pryse,	"	Prescott, Wis.
Ferdinand G. Strange,	"	Elm Point, Ill.

JUNIOR CLASS.

James E. Alexander,	of	Cloyd's Creek, Tenn.
Francis M. Allen,	"	" " "

Sidney J. Brownson,	"	Red Wing, Minn.
Calvin A. Duncan,	"	Maryville, Tenn.
William Foulkes,	"	Oshkosh, Wis.
Francis W. Iddings,	"	Lexington, Ind.
Jeremiah Inman,	"	Morristown, Tenn.
John O. Jennings,	"	Mound Station, Ill.
Charles A. Kanouse,	"	Morristown, N. J.
Milton A. Mathes,	"	Strawberry Plains, Tenn.
John McDowell,	"	Chicago, Ill.
Henry L. Nave,	"	Danville, Ind.
James Omelvena,	"	Evanston, Ill.
Samuel C. Palmer,	"	Windham, Ohio.
Edwin J. Rice,	"	Burnside, Ill.
William F. Rogers,	"	Chattanooga, Tenn.
Joseph H. Vance,	"	Erie, Pa.
Charles L. Work,	"	Bremen, Ohio.

The whole number of students in attendance has been 56. Of these, nineteen were granted diplomas at the Anniversary, on the 14th instant, viz.

Edward W. Abbey,	Henry Farwell,
James R. Collier,	Joseph Hughes,
Gideon S. W. Crawford,	Benjamin H. Lea,
Samuel P. Dillon,	D. Ross Moore,

Jeremiah Moore,
Horatio F. Olmstead,
Samuel H. Parvin,
Charles Pelton,
David E. Platter,
James M. Shaw,
Charles E. Tedford,
Edward D. Vance,
William C. West,
Fernando C. Willett,
John W. C. Willoughby.

There is an excellent library, belonging to the Institution, which is daily accessible to members of the Seminary. It has been carefully selected, with special reference to the wants of students in Theology, and is annually enlarged through the income derived from a Library Fund, amounting at present to $9600. The Library is surpassed by none in this section of the country, and it is confidently expected that its endowment and resources will be so increased, as to give it a high rank among the theological libraries of the land.

The reading-room is comfortably furnished and supplied with many of the current reviews and periodicals; and a place of pleasant resort for the members of the Institution. All are welcomed, without expense, to the privileges it affords. In this room the library of the Smith Rhetorical Society is now placed.

A weekly rhetorical exercise, including drill in elocution, practice in reading, extemporaneous speaking, and the presentation of original essays, is conducted by the Faculty, and is attended by all the students. The Senior Class is also trained in extemporaneous discourse, and in the art of delivering written sermons, under the direction of the Professor in that department.

From the Treasurer's Report, May 7th, 1874, the following synopsis is taken:

Receipts of the year,	$47,659 25
Balance on hand, May 6th, 1873,	839 49
Total,	$48,498 74
Paid out during the year,	$47,349 26
Cash on hand, May 7th, 1874,	1,149 48
	$48,498 74

PERMANENT ENDOWMENT.

General Fund,	$214,111 44
Buildings and Grounds,	160,000 00
Scholarships,	30,145 41

Educational Fund,	178 00
	$414,544 85

CORNELIUS H. TAYLOR, Secretary.

G. M. MAXWELL, President.

V. UNION SEMINARY, NEW-YORK.

THE Board of Directors, as at present organized, is composed of the following gentlemen:

Class, whose term expires January 18th, 1875.

Rev. Edwin F. Hatfield, D.D.,
Rev. James P. Wilson, D.D.,
Rev. Robert Russell Booth, D.D.
Alfred C. Post, M.D., LL.D.,
Hanson K. Corning,
Joseph Howland.

Class, whose term expires January 18th, 1876.

Rev. William Adams, D.D., LL.D.,
Rev. Jonathan F. Stearns, D.D.,
Rev. Zephaniah M. Humphrey, D.D.,
Rev. Marvin R. Vincent, D.D.
Winthrop S. Gilman,
William A. Booth,
Henry Day, Esq.,
Daniel Willis James.

Class, whose term expires January 18th, 1877.

Rev. William M. Paxton, D.D., Vacancy.
Rev. Joseph S. Gallagher,
Rev. Thomas S. Hastings, D.D.
Norman White,
Charles Butler, LL.D.,
Ezra M. Kingsley.

Class, whose term expires January 18th, 1878.

Rev. Joseph Fewsmith, D.D.,
Rev. John Hall, D.D.,
Rev. James O. Murray, D.D
Hon. William E. Dodge,
John Taylor Johnston,
John Crosby Brown,
David H. McAlpin.

The Faculty consists of :

Rev. William Adams, D.D., LL.D., President, and Brown Professor of Sacred Rhetoric.
Rev. Roswell D. Hitchcock, D.D., Washburne Professor of Church History.
Rev. Wm. G. T. Shedd, D.D., Roosevelt Professor of Systematic Theology.
Rev. Philip Schaff, D.D., Davenport Professor of Hebrew.
Rev. George L. Prentiss, D.D., Skinner and McAlpin Professor of Pastoral Theology, Church Polity, and Mission Work.

Since the last Annual Report, Professor Henry B. Smith, having been disabled by loss of health, has been appointed Professor Emeritus, with the hope that, by the divine blessing, he may, after a period of rest, resume the duties of his chair.

Within the same period, the Rev. William Adams, D.D., LL.D., has been elevated to the Presidency of the Faculty, and made Brown Professor of Sacred Rhetoric.

Professor William G. T. Shedd has been transferred from the chair of Sacred Literature to that of Systematic Theology.

The year now closed has been one of unprecedented financial prosperity to this Institution. A princely endowment has been received from Mr. James Brown, of New-York, of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000), whereby the Seminary has been lifted at once from a condition of need, and even of embarrassment, to that of ease and self-support. This large accession to the resources of the Seminary has been most opportune, imparting a fresh life and impetus to all its operations; and a brighter future in its career of usefulness may be confidently anticipated.

The usual diplomas have been awarded to the following thirty-three graduates:

Charles E. Allison,
Abraham J. Beekman,
James P. Bryant,
Theodore F. Burnham,
Charles D. Crane,
Elbert W. Cumings,
Allen Ford De Camp,
Elijah W. Donald,
James T. Ford,
John K. Fowler,
James A. Gerhard,
Fisher Gutelius,
Matthias L. Haines,
John P. Hale,
Edward C. Hood,
Francis B. Hornbrooke,
Henry T. Hunter,
Amos A. Kiehle,
Charles Leaman,
Edward P. Linnell,
William A. Lynch,
William C. Macbeth,
William F. Matthews,
Duncan L. McKechnie,
John C. Miller,
Oliver C. Morse,
Norman F. Nickerson,
William D. Perry,
Mellen D. Stone,
Charles R. Stroh,
David J. Waller, Jr.,
John L. Wells,
Robert H. Wilkinson.

Eighteen of the class have already places in view in churches at home; one goes as a Missionary of the Presbyterian Board to China; and one will devote himself to his own African race in this country.

Very respectfully submitted, E. M. KINGSLEY, Recorder.

New-York, May, 1874.

VI. DANVILLE SEMINARY.

1. Annual Report of the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors of the Danville Theological Seminary present to the General Assembly their Twenty-first Annual Report, as follows:

The last General Assembly, having approved of the changes in the Plan of the Seminary proposed by the Board of Directors, remitted "the guardianship and control" of the Seminary to the Board, "the Assembly being still considered its patron, and the fountain of its powers, and retaining a veto power in the election of its Directors and Professors, and over all the acts of the Directors in financial affairs." A copy of this action, certified by the Stated Clerk of the Assembly, was presented to the Board at a called meeting, held the twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth days of June, 1873, and was ordered to be filed with the papers of the Board. Whereupon, the Board, with prayer for the guidance of the Holy Spirit, assumed the control of the Seminary.

It will be remembered by the Assembly that three of the Chairs of the Seminary were vacant at this time, by reason of the resignation of the former incumbents, as stated in our last Report. In the opinion of the Board, the interests of the Institution required the remaining Chair to be vacated, and, in the exercise of the authority vested in them by the Plan as amended, the Board secured that result. It was then resolved to fill all the chairs, so as to reopen the Institution with a full Faculty on the first Thursday of September following. Whereupon, the Rev. Stephen Yerkes, D.D., was elected to the chair of Biblical Literature and Exegetical Theology; the Rev. George D. Archibald, D.D., to the chair of Church Government and Pastoral Theology; the Rev. James A. Lyon, D.D., to the chair of Didactic and Polemic Theology; and the Rev. John M. Worrall, D.D., to the chair of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History. The Rev. Dr. Yerkes accepted; the other brethren declined.

On the 23d of August, 1873, it being understood that a few students desired to attend the Seminary, a Committee, which had been invested by the Board with full powers to do whatever might be needful to put the Seminary in operation, directed the Rev. Dr. Yerkes to render them such instruction as might be in his power. Two young men matriculated, and have been instructed by him in all the departments, throughout the session; viz., J. G. Venable and D. R. Crockett. Of these, Mr. Venable had previously spent one session in this Institution, and one in the Seminary of the North-West; and having passed a satisfactory examination before the Board, at its present meeting, he received the certificate of the Seminary.

In March of this year, the Board elected the Rev. Nathan L. Rice, D.D., to the chair of Didactic and Polemic Theology, and the Rev. Leroy J. Halsey, D.D., to the chair of Church Government and Pastoral Theology. Dr. Rice has declined to accept his appointment; and Dr. Halsey has not yet informed the Board of his determination.

The following persons have been elected to fill the vacancies occurring in the Board at this time, viz.;

Ministers.	Elders.
Samuel H. Thomson, LL.D.,	D. J. Curry,
Archer C. Dickerson, D.D.,	W. H. Kinnard,
James T. Lapsley, D.D.,	Isaac W. Scott,
John M. Worrall, D.D.,	J. I. Landis,
John H. Nesbitt.	R. Appersen.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

H. H. ALLEN, President.

R. A. JOHNSTONE, Secretary.
April 29th, 1874.

VII. SEMINARY OF THE NORTH-WEST.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

THE Board of Directors of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of the North-West report to the General Assembly in session at St. Louis, Mo., that the forty-fourth year of its history, since it was opened at South-Hanover, Ind., and the fifteenth year since it was reorganized and located in Chicago, has just closed.

From the Report presented by the Faculty, the Board learn that the number of students in attendance during the late session was twenty-nine, six more than during the previous year.

The following were matriculated at the opening of the term, viz.:

John P. Baker,	from	Grand View Academy, Iowa.
Harman C. Clendenning,	"	Chicago University, Ill.
Fuller P. Dalrymple,	"	College of New-Jersey, N. J.
Charles P. Graham,	"	Industrial University, Ill.
Edwin Hobbs,
Edward N. Lord,	"	Knox College, Ill.
George D. Marsh,	"	Western Reserve College, Ohio.
Thomas Martin,	"	Monmouth College, Ill.
George F. McAfee,	"	La Grange College, Mo.
James A. Mitchell,	"	University of Chicago, Ill.
Lewis H. Mitchell,	"	University of Wooster, Ohio.
William H. Penhallegan,
Edgar L. Williams,	"	N. W. C. University, Ind.
Thomas C. Nixen,	"	Amherst College, Mass.

Of these, Messrs. Dalrymple, Martin, and L. H. Mitchell, having studied theology one year, in other Institutions, were admitted to the Middle Class; the others constituted the Junior Class.

Six have completed the prescribed course of study, and received the usual certificate, viz.:

William Campbell,	Samuel T. Davis,
Henry M. Collinson,	John R. Sutherland,
Joseph D. Cowan,	Robert K. Wharton.

The most of these had been engaged for fields of labor before leaving the Seminary, and two of them are already ordained and installed as Pastors of important churches.

There have been uninterrupted health and application to duty on the part of all the Professors and all the students throughout the term. This fact the Board note with devout gratitude to God. With unfeigned satisfaction they also recognize evidences of superior qualifications and faithful attention on the part of the Professors, in the manifest increase of diligence, enthusiasm, and proficiency in their several subjects of study on the part of the most of the students.

A year ago, it was hoped that before this time a subscription of $50,000 for the erection of a much needed Chapel and Library building would have been completed. C. A. Spring, Esq., the long-tried and zealous friend of the Seminary, devised the plan, and, aided by Charles Crosby, Esq., then agent, exerted himself with wonderful energy throughout the summer to carry it out. About $20,000 were subscribed, chiefly in Chicago ($5000 by one widely known as having founded the Institution at this place by the munificent donation of $120,000 toward the endowment of the four Professorships), when the financial panic was permitted to smite the country and arrest this effort. This has been the occasion of painful disappointment to many earnest friends of the Seminary. At its late meeting, the Board committed this matter to the newly re-elected General Agent, urging him to use such means as might be deemed best to carry the scheme to a successful issue during the coming year, if practicable.

The effort may complicate the Agent's work, and embarrass him in attempting to secure the funds imperatively required to meet the current necessities of the Seminary.

The Board with emphasis must repeat, to this Assembly, the declaration made to several preceding Assemblies, that the building contemplated is of prime and unquestionable necessity to the convenience and benefit of both Professors and Students. The Libraries are every year suffering very serious detriment for want of it. And the present building can afford no apartment suitable for public lectures by the Professors, or training for the pulpit on the part of students.

Will not the Assembly give this matter more than a passing and meaningless notice, and help to stimulate some person or persons who have it in their power, and to whom it would really be a glorious privilege, to do for this Seminary what some have already done generously for her older sister farther east? This building was a recognized necessity eight and nine years ago, and liberal patrons were then on the very point of erecting it, but untoward events hindered them. As, in the mysterious providence of God, they were prevented, cannot some others, who now have it in their power, be excited by the love of Christ to take hold of the enterprise where beloved brethren now dead or crippled were constrained to drop it so many years ago?

During the year, there have been added to the Libraries 109 volumes by donation of several friends, and 233 by purchase out of the income of the Library Endowment Fund, generously founded by Hanson K. Corning, Esq. The valuable books bought cost $486.

The Treasurer, James Otis, Esq., has presented his Report, duly audited and approved by our Board of Trustees. To enable the Auditing Committee to fully examine the Treasurer's Report and vouchers, the Board of Directors in 1873 ordered that thereafter the financial year should end with the 15th of March. However, the present Report covers the period from April 1st, 1873, to March 15th, 1874.

An analysis of the Treasurer's Report, and classification of the items embraced in it, shows the following—for the period above named:

RECEIPTS.

Balance, April 1st, 1873, ...	$1,228 30
Income from Endowment of Professorships, . .	13,636 75

Endowment Loans paid,	$12,000 00
Collected for Endowment Fund,	20 00
Account Scholarships (principal and interest not separated in Treasurer's Report),	1,982 29
Income of Corning Library Fund,	665 93
Miscellaneous—Collected for General Fund,	3,578 60
		$33,111 87

DISBURSEMENTS.

For Instruction,	$13,495 60
For Agency,	1,104 64
For Repairs, Insurance, Water Tax, etc., in and around building,	580 55
For Matron, Janitor, Coal, etc.,	813 69
For Printing, Catalogues, etc.,	112 15
For Scholarship Income, given to aid Students, on orders of the Faculty,	1,294 96
For miscellaneous expenses,	697 59
For Endowment re-loaned,	10,000 00
For Books, out of Corning Library Fund Income,	435 74
Cash on hand,	4,576 95
		$33,111 87

The cash on hand belongs as follows :

1. To Endowment of Professorships, not yet reloaned,	$2,082 82
2. To Income from said Endowment,	614 46
3. To Scholarship Fund (principal and interest not separated in Report),	1,414 50
4. To Income from Corning Library Fund,	296 06
5. To General Fund,	169 11
		$4,576 95

The Funds of the Seminary are as follows, viz.:

I. ENDOWMENT OF PROFESSORSHIPS.

Loans on Bonds and Trust Deeds, at 10 per cent,	$132,364 78
Subscription Notes unpaid, some probably worthless, at 6 to 10 per cent,	1,200 00
Cash ready for loan,	2,082 82
		$135,647 60

II. SCHOLARSHIPS.

Loans on Bonds and Trust Deeds, at 10 per cent,	$10,200 00
Two Subscription Notes due and unpaid, at 7½ per cent,	4,000 00
One Subscription Note not due, at 6 per cent,	500 00
Sundry Notes taken by former Agent for Alumni Scholarships, and put in hands of present Agent to try to collect, mostly uncollectable,	1,956 50
Cash in Treasury (interest not separated in report),	1,414 50
		$18,071 00

III. CORNING LIBRARY FUND.

Principal (form of investment not mentioned),	$2,360 22
Interest, Cash in Treasury,	296 06
		$2,656 28

IV. General Fund.

Due, and unpaid on Lots sold, ...		$666 66
Remaining payments on 609 notes taken, 1867–1872, by their then Agent, mostly for General Fund (a small moiety mixed with them for various projected Scholarships)—past due, . .	$7,289 00
Not quite due, .	3,415 00	—$10,704 00
(In hands of the present Agent for collection—much the greater part probably uncollectable.)
Remaining payments on 22 notes remaining of those taken mostly in 1865–6 by the then Agent, past due, ...		635 00
		$12,005 66

Of this sum, it is believed $205 will yet be collected, while the remaining $430 have become hopeless—being less than 4 per cent of the notes that Agent procured for the Seminary—$10,908.

On May 27th, 1873, the Board thought it best to create a new Professorship —the title finally adopted being Christian Evidences and Ethics—and appointed the Rev. Robert W. Patterson, D.D., thereto. He promptly signified his willingness to accept on condition that provision should be made for his support. At length, the Second Presbyterian Church of Chicago, of which Dr. Patterson had long been Pastor, guaranteed the payment of the salary in the event of his acceptance, not, however, through the channel of the Seminary Treasury. Whereupon, he signified his acceptance. The Executive Committee then arranged for his inauguration during the session of the Board in April. In doing so, they thought they had his concurrence. But, as the time drew near, Dr. Patterson expressed a wish to members of the Committee that the inauguration might be deferred until the General Assembly shall have sanctioned the appointment. This the Board presumed the Assembly would undoubtedly do. The inauguration has of course been postponed.

The Professorships are as follows:

Rev. Leroy J. Halsey, D.D., Professor of Historical and Pastoral Theology.
Rev. Charles Elliott, D.D., Professor of Biblical Literature and Exegesis.
Rev. William M. Blackburn, D.D., Professor of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History.
Rev. Francis L. Patton, D.D., Cyrus H. McCormick Professor of Didactic and Polemic Theology.
Rev. Robert W. Patterson, D.D., Professor of Christian Evidences and Ethics.
Robert L. Cummock, A.M., Professor of Elocution.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

Rev. Willis G. Craig, President.
Rev. Abbott E. Kittredge, Vice-President.
Rev. Lewis H. Reid, Secretary.

The Class whose term expires April, 1875 :

Ministers.	Elders.
Fielding N. Ewing,	Anson P. Waterman,
Arthur Mitchell,	John Forsythe,
Abbott E. Kittredge,	Nathaniel S. Bouton,
Arthur T. Pierson,	Henry G. Miller,

Rev. John M. Faris, General Agent. Address, 1060 N. Halstead street, Chicago, Ill.

Respectfully submitted, on behalf of the Board of Directors,

S. M. MOORE,
Chairman of Executive Committee.

VIII. BLACKBURN UNIVERSITY.

THE Trustees of Blackburn University respectfully report to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, in session at St. Louis: That, in general condition and prosperity the University occupies the same position as when we made our report last year. There have been in the Institution, during the past year, about two hundred and thirty students. Eleven young men are in the course of preparation for the Ministry, in the several departments of the University. We regret the necessity that caused a reduction in the amount of money appropriated to aid students for the Ministry. The effect has been that several young men have been obliged to leave us—some to teach, some to commence the work of preaching without completing the required course of three years' study, and some to enter other Institutions which are possessed of special funds for such cases.

Our Faculty of Instruction in the higher departments remains the same as last year.

By order of the Trustees,
May, 1874.

J. W. BAILEY,
President of the University.

IX. SAN FRANCISCO SEMINARY.

THE Board of Directors of the San Francisco Theological Seminary would respectfully report to the General Assembly, to meet in the city of St. Louis, Missouri, May, 1874 :

The Board of Directors elected by the Synod of the Pacific is as follows :

Ministers.	Elders.
William A. Scott, D.D., LL.D.,	Hon. Henry H. Haight,
Sylvester Woodbridge, D.D.,	Stephen Franklin,

Aaron L. Lindsley, D.D.,
Thomas M. Cunningham, D.D.,
Albert F. White, LL.D.,
William Wallace Brier,
William Alexander,
John Hemphill,
Alexander Fairbairn,
Nathaniel B. Klink,
Charles Shelling.
A. Hemme,
R. J. Trumbull,
Wales L. Palmer,
Elijah Bigelow.

The efforts of the Rev. Dr. Cunningham, which were begun with much encouragement among our Eastern brethren, were temporarily suspended, by the advice of our friends, on account of the late panic, but are to be renewed by him, God willing, early this autumn; and we have good reasons for believing, they will be successful. The conditional donation, reported to the Assembly last year, made by the First Presbyterian Church of Oakland, Cal., toward the endowment of the Professorship of Ecclesiastical History, has been secured, and the Trustees have the full title of the property for the Seminary. In other respects, our financial condition is not materially changed from what it was, as described in our last Report. We are acting strictly according to the rule on which we set out, namely, to incur no debts.

Not having as yet any Scholarships, some of our churches, at the request of the Synod, have made contributions for a Students' Contingent Fund, by which, with the aid of the Board of Education, our students have been comfortably provided for during the year.

Some valuable additions have been made to our Library. A course of Lectures was delivered during the Seminary term by a number of our ablest ministers, assisted by three members of the Faculty. These lectures were on important and appropriate subjects, and the public were cordially invited. They were well attended, and we think they will do much good to the Seminary.

The acting Faculty have all been diligent in the discharge of the duties of their respective Professorships. Since our beginning, we have had ten students. Five of them have been licensed to preach the Gospel, and two of them ordained. One left us to spend his third year at Princeton. One of our students is a graduate of the Medical University of Pennsylvania, and is pursuing his studies with us, to become a medical missionary in some foreign field. Our classes now are:

JUNIOR CLASS.

John A. Merrill,
D. N. Alexander,
John N. Crawford,
Dr. James A. Smith.

MIDDLE CLASS.

James Curry,
H. G. Kieme.

SENIOR CLASS.

James L. Drum.

Mr. Drum completes his full course of three years at the close of this term, and receives the usual certificate of graduation. We have received many letters from young men asking information, with a view to enter the Seminary, the next term. We have reason to expect one from Japan, and one from China. And, with the blessing of God on the aid given by the churches, we hope to be able to report, to the next Assembly, the endowment of an Oriental Missionary Professorship. We consider our prospects good for a considerable increase of students the next term.

This side of our continent is growing rapidly in wealth and population. The yield of last year in agricultural products, and in the precious metals, was much greater than for any previous year since the discovery of gold on this coast. The city of San Francisco has now a population of about (200,000) two hundred thousand, and is rapidly improving. The Public School system of the State is vigorously managed, and exerts a powerful influence. The leading denominations, including Romanists, are also earnestly engaged in building up Academies and Colleges, either openly and decidedly denominational in their character, or at least directly under their own control. In our opinion, there never was a more inviting or encouraging field opened for our Church to occupy, and in which to put forth her energies for the cause of TRUTH, than is now offered on this side of the American Continent. The conviction grows stronger and stronger, in the minds of the followers of Christ in the various branches of the Protestant Church on this coast, that the moment for vigorous exertion in behalf of the sound, thorough, Christian education of our youth, and for promoting the highest training and culture for the pulpit, has fully come, and should be seized without delay.

The acting Faculty consists of the following members:

Rev. WILLIAM A. SCOTT, D.D., LL.D., Professor of Mental and Moral Science, and Systematic Theology.
Rev. GEORGE BURROWES, D.D., Professor of the Hebrew Language and Literature.
Rev. DANIEL W. POOR, D.D., Professor of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History, and Church Government.
Rev. WILLIAM ALEXANDER, A.M., Professor of Exegetical Theology, New Testament Literature, and Homiletics.

Commending our cause to your sympathy and prayers, we are yours in the bonds of the Gospel of Christ.

In behalf of the Board, W. A. SCOTT, President.

R. J. TRUMBULL, Secretary.

X. GERMAN THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL OF THE NORTH-WEST.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS.

THE Board of Directors of the German Theological School of the North-West present to the General Assembly the following as their Annual Report:

1. STUDENTS AND FACULTY.

At the opening of the session, September 1st, 1873, eleven of the former students were in attendance. Twelve were admitted to the school during the session, viz.:

W. Warnshuis,	Otto Schulz,
J. C. Lathrop,	H. Snyder,
Theodore Schnitzler,	Carl Knecht,
Luebke Hundeling,	Louis Bartmann,
Frank Daubenberger,	Albert Schulz,
G. J. Bloemendaal,	C. Wynsma.

Four of these have been taking an irregular course, without special reference to the ministry.

During the year, two students have died. Four have been licensed to preach the Gospel, viz.: M. C. Buettel, Helmer Schmidt, Jacob Schaedel, and M. Wittenberger.

Two have been dismissed to enter actively the work of the Ministry, and two have been dismissed to the Theological Class of Westminster College.

The number of students now in the Institution is considerably larger than it was last year.

The Faculty is unchanged. During the past year, a course of studies has been carefully prepared, and the work of the Seminary systematized.

A catalogue (a copy of which is herewith presented) has been printed for the first time.

The examinations give evidence of faithfulness and industry, on the part of both teachers and students.

A good spiritual condition is manifest in the Institution.

2. Finances.

Rev. William L. Green and Rev. Jacob Liesveld are acting as Financial Agents of the Institution. They have been in the field only a part of the year, and, on account of financial embarrassments during the year, their work has been, in great measure, preparatory in its character. It is hoped, that the vigorous effort to be put forth during the coming year, will secure the funds necessary to sustain the Institution.

The receipts during the year have been . .	$3,366 91
The disbursements have been, . . .	3,398 75
Leaving $31.84 due the Treasurer.
Present liabilities, ...	$4,580 00
Assets, ...	11,417 25

The Funds of the Institution are so limited that only small and unworthy salaries can be paid. During the year, the President, Rev. Jacob Conzett, has received no salary.

3. Library.

Professor Lesko Triest, acting as librarian during the year, has numbered, classified, and catalogued the books of the library. There are 847 volumes.

The present Board of Directors is as follows:

Class of 1877.

Ministers.	Elders.
Ambrose C. Smith,	Philip Wetter,
Ernst Kudobe,	John Boell,
Jacob Liesveld.	C. Helming.

Class of 1876.

Ministers.	Elders.
John Van der Las,	B. M. Harger,
John Bantly,	J. H. Thompson,
Luther A. Ostrander.	R. Bickenbach.

Class of 1875.

Ministers.	Elders.
William R. Marshall, D.D.,	J. Mathis,
William Behll,	J. D. Metz,
John Beck.	D. A. McKinlay.

Respectfully submitted,

W. R. MARSHALL, President.

L. A. Ostrander, Secretary.

XI. GERMAN THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL, BLOOMFIELD, N. J.

Annual Report of the Directors.

1. Students.

The number of students is now twenty-two. The application of three candidates for admission has been denied.

The clothing and board of the students has been provided in part by themselves, and wholly provided by one of them. Four members of the Senior Class, Mr. Hanle, Mr. Landau, Mr. Loock, and Mr. Nordt, were licensed by the Presbytery in the autumn, one of whom, Mr. Nordt, since that time, has been supplying the Second German Church of Newark, at the urgent desire of that people, and on the condition that his attendance at the Seminary should not be interrupted. The other three have preached as occasion has invited.

2. Faculty.

Rev. Charles E. Knox, President, and Professor of Homiletics, Church Government, and Pastoral Theology.
Rev. George C. Seibert, Ph.D., Professor of Biblical Exegesis and Theology.
Rev. Johann U. Guenther, Instructor in Practical Theology.
Rev. E. W. Hering, Instructor in Church History and Homiletics for 1873–4.
Rev. Robert Aikman, Lecturer on Pastoral Theology for 1873–4.

3. Directors.

Ministers.	Elders.
1872—1875.
James P. Wilson, D.D.,	William F. Van Wagenen,
Elijah R. Craven, D.D.,	Philip Doremus,
Henry M. Booth.	James B. Pinneo.
1873—1876.
Joseph Fewsmith, D.D.,	Hon. Amzi Dodd,
William C. Roberts, D.D.,	Levi P. Stone,
Charles E. Knox.	William Rankin.
1874—1877.
Jonathan F. Stearns, D.D.,	F. Wolcott Jackson,
George C. Seibert, Ph.D.,	Moses M. Bradley,
Eldridge Mix.	Jeremiah Baker.

4. Finances.

The past year has not been favorable to the increase of the Endowment Fund, nor to the collection of income to meet the current expense. In consequence of the unfavorable influences of the year, the Board of Directors feared that their annual statement would reveal no advance in the endowment and a decided deficiency in their current account. They take satisfaction, therefore, in being able to report, that the amount received by the Treasurer, for both the endowment and for current expense, is really in excess of the amount expended.

RECEIPTS.

For the Endowment Fund,	$4,992 76
Current Expenses,	6,525 98
Special for Library,	175 00
Total,	$11,693 74

EXPENSES.

For Endowment,	$505 00
Current Expense,	9,512 11
		$10,017 11
Leaving a balance of		$1,676 63

The total amount of endowment from all sources was, at the end of last year : Subscribed, $30,545.37 ; payments, $27,795.79. This year : Subscribed, $35,526.32 ; payments, $32,853.12.

5. Anniversary.

The last Annual Examination was held in the Chapel of the Westminster Church, in Bloomfield, on Thursday, June 26th, and was attended by a good number of our friends. The Rev. Francis B. Wheeler, D.D., who was to have delivered the Annual Address in the evening, was detained by illness. Exercises were held in the evening in the Bloomfield Presbyterian Church, and addresses were made by Rev. Dr. Stearns, Rev. Dr. Mix, and Rev. Dr. Seibert.

At the end of the present academic year, the examination of the students in the preparatory department will take place on Wednesday, the 24th of June, in the afternoon, at the Seminary Building, under the direction of the Board of Directors. The examination of the Theological Department will be held on Thursday, the 25th, in the Westminster Chapel, at Bloomfield, in the morning and afternoon. The exercises of the graduating class, under the designation of The First Anniversary, will be held in the Bloomfield Presbyterian Church, in the evening.

6. Conclusion.

We pray for the blessing of God upon this important undertaking, an enterprise to which, as we believe, by his providence and by his spirit, we are now fully committed. We believe that already we have that blessing. We hope confidently for it in the future. And we look for results which shall assuredly be a blessing to Protestant Christianity in this land, to our own beloved Church, and to the world.

In behalf of the Board of Directors,

JONATHAN F. STEARNS,
President of the Board.

XII. THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT OF LINCOLN UNIVERSITY.

Annual Report of the Faculty.

The Faculty of Theology in Lincoln University respectfully present to the General Assembly the Fourth Annual Report of the Theological Department of Lincoln University.

The Board of Trustees consists of twenty-one members.

Rev. John M. Dickey, D.D., President of the Board.

Rev. William R. Bingham,
Rev. Beriah B. Hotchkin, D.D.,
Rev. John L. Withrow, D.D.,
Rev. George S. Mott,
Hon. William E. Dodge,
Alexander Whilldin,
Henry Disston,
Rev. Nathan G. Park,
Rev. Thomas McCauley,
Rev. Andrew B. Cross,
Rev. Samuel Dickey, Treasurer,
J. S. Helfenstein,
R. K. Hawley,
H. B. Harvey,
William G. Moorehead,
Gen. Thomas Beaver,
Theodore Strong,
*Rev. Francis R. Masters, D.D.,
Rev. Isaac N. Rendall, D.D.

The Committee, to which it is specially committed to take cognizance of the interests of this department, and to devise measures for its enlargement and more efficient management, consists of Rev. John L. Withrow, D.D., Alexander Whilldin, and Rev. Beriah B. Hotchkin, D.D.

With profound sorrow we report the death, in November, 1873, of Mr. James S. Hawley. By his death the University lost a zealous friend, and an intelligent, faithful trustee of all its interests. Among his last words were: "I trust in God. To distrust him after his promise, would be to dishonor him. I have no fear."

FACULTY OF THEOLOGY.

Rev. Isaac N. Rendall, D.D., President, and Professor of Christian Ethics and Apologetics.
Rev. Edwin R. Bower, A.M., John C. Baldwin Professor of Theology.
Rev. Gilbert T. Woodhull, A.M., Avery Professor of Hellenistic Greek and New Testament Literature.
Rev. Clement C. Dickey, A.M., Professor of Hebrew and Old Testament Literature.
Rev. Caspar R. Gregory, D.D., William E. Dodge Professor of Sacred Rhetoric.
Rev. William R. Bingham, Lecturer on Pastoral Care.

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees, held in Philadelphia on the 10th of September, 1873, the Rev. Caspar R. Gregory, D.D., was unanimously elected to the chair of Sacred Rhetoric, the Rev. Horace G. Hinsdale having resigned that chair.

The Rev. Thomas W. Cattell, Ph.D., has, at the request of the Faculty, continued his lectures on Sacred Geography and Biblical Antiquities.

Since the last report, William M. Hargrave, of N. C., Henry Mabry, of N. C., Daniel Murray, of Pa., and William Robeson, of Pa., graduates of the Collegiate Department of Lincoln University, and Boswell B. Palmer, of S. C., a student in the collegiate department, have been admitted to the Junior Class; John B. Rendall and Isaac W. Davenport have been advanced to the Middle Class; Jesse Kelley and John Treadwell have been advanced to the second year of the English course; and William H. Johns, of N. J., has been admitted to the same class. There were no graduates from this department this year.

The Professors, with one exception, give instruction in the Collegiate Department, in which there are over sixty students looking forward to the ministry, the most of whom are accepted candidates under Presbyteries and Boards of Education.

The course of study, as exhibited in the Catalogue, has been strictly followed. The examinations, at the close of the year ending on the 13th of May, 1874, gave satisfactory evidence of the diligence and success of the students. The Faculty take pleasure in testifying to the general competency of the students under their instruction in all the departments of study. In our experience, the widely cherished judgment that this class of students might excel in those parts of training which depend on memory and on imitative power, and particularly in popular oratory, but that they would be deficient in the more abstract and severer studies, receives no confirmation. If the full course of studies adopted in our older Theological Seminaries, and approved by successive General Assemblies, by the adoption of their Annual Reports, is a desirable preparation for the work of the ministry, there is no reason in their condition and capacities why any part of it should be withheld from our candidates because they are young men of color. The necessities of our colored population do not, however, permit the Church to wait for the preparation of ministers by so slow a process. Taking into account the disadvantages of early life, nine or ten years of study are necessary for this complete result. If this high standard is to be insisted on, our Church must refuse to gather congregations among the freedmen until such a ministry can be raised up. But the vast masses of the freedmen will not wait. The work of ecclesiastical organization is going on rapidly among them under the disadvantages and dangers of an illiterate ministry. It is impossible to present an adequate picture of the religious destitution of the freedmen. The only way in which the Church can relieve this destitution of the present generation is by sending to them at once large numbers of pious instructors, sufficiently trained to teach them the way of life in the familiar language of their thoughts and homes. This Institution is prepared to co operate with the Church in this matter. The entire expenses of a student in such a course of study would not exceed $113 per annum. The urgency of this interest is not as in other directions to keep full the ranks of an already existing ministry, or to keep pace with the growth of population, but to provide a competent ministry for a population that has not yet enjoyed this advantage, and which has come to feel the need and desire of it, not by the gradual change whereby a whole community is converted to Christianity, but by a change in their relations to the churches of our country, whereby they were suddenly cut off from advantages which they possessed in a state of dependence.

The property of the University, available for the purposes of theological instruction, consists of the halls used, in conjunction with other departments of instruction, for the accommodation of students for recitation-rooms and for purposes of worship ; three substantial buildings used as residences for Professors, and the endowments of Professorships and Scholarships.

The pressing wants of this Department are separate edificial accommodations, both for students and for instruction ; the endowment of the chairs of Hebrew and Old Testament Literature, and of Church History, and the erection of two houses as residences for the Professors.

The Income from the Endowment Funds has been as follows :

The John C. Baldwin endowment,	$1,575 75
The Mary Warder Dickey endowment,	1,003 81
The William E. Dodge endowment,	1,330 00
The Avery endowment,	1,285 00
The Dunlap Scholarship,	168 00
The Lloyd Scholarship,	150 00
Total,	$5,512 56

The proceeds of the Professorships, $5194.56, do not fully meet the salaries of the five Professors occupying the chairs of Apologetics, Theology, Hellenistic Greek and New Testament Literature, Sacred Rhetoric, and Hebrew. The Scholarships were occupied by students in the Theological Department.

The Board of Trustees, at its last annual meeting in June, 1873, adopted the following resolution :

"That each Professor in the Theological Department shall be required solemnly to subscribe the Confession of Faith, Catechisms, and Form of Government of the Presbyterian Church, agreeably to the following formula, viz. :

"In the presence of God and of the Trustees of this University, I do solemnly and ex animo adopt, receive, and subscribe the Confession of Faith and Catechisms of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, as the confession of my faith, or as a summary and just exhibition of that system of doctrine and religious belief which is contained in the Holy Scripture, and therein revealed by God to man for his salvation ; and I do solemnly ex animo profess to receive the Form of Government of said Church as agreeable to the inspired Oracles. And I do solemnly promise and engage, not to inculcate, teach, or insinuate any thing which shall appear to me to contradict or contravene, either directly or indirectly, any thing taught in the said Confession of Faith or Catechisms ; nor to oppose any of the fundamental principles of Presbyterian Church Government while I shall continue a Professor in this University."

May 20th, 1874. I. N. RENDALL, President.

XIII. BIDDLE MEMORIAL INSTITUTE.

REPORT OF THE FACULTY OF BIDDLE MEMORIAL INSTITUTE TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, IN SESSION AT ST. LOUIS, MAY, 1874.

THE General Assembly, at its session in Baltimore, took action to include this Institute in its list of Theological Seminaries "as soon as the official action of its Board of Trustees to this effect is presented to the Assembly." The annual meeting of the Board of Trustees occurs too late to take action in time for the present meeting of the Assembly. Anticipating the action of the Board of Trustees, the Faculty desire to present to the Assembly a report of the Institute.

The charter of Biddle Institute places it under the supervision of the General Assembly's Committee on Freedmen, by whom its Professors are chosen; and thus it is indirectly under the supervision of the Assembly without any action of its Board of Trustees.

The Faculty consists of Rev. Stephen Mattoon, D.D., President ; Rev. John H. Shedd, A.M., Rev. Robert M. Hall, A.M., Professors ; and Mr. F. H. Robinson, Instructor in the English Department. The instruction in the Theological course is, at present, divided between the President and Professor Shedd. The plan of the Institute embraces three departments—Preparatory, Collegiate, and Theological. The number of students in the several departments during the past year has been 130. Thirty-five of these are studying for the ministry, and fourteen are in the Theological Department.

The property of the Institute, in money, buildings, and land, amounts to about thirty-six thousand dollars. It needs a full endowment, enlarged accommodations for students, and an increase of its corps of instructors. Occupying a field, in importance second to no other within the bounds of our Church ; the only Presbyterian Institution of its kind in the Southern States, it deserves, and ought to have, the fostering care of the General Assembly, and the liberal gifts of the members of our Church. There is no other portion of our land where there is so great need of an educated ministry, or so few facilities to supply it, as among the colored people of the South.

Within the last few months, we have had calls for laborers from five Southern States, most of which we are unable to supply. There is a wide missionary field in all these States which the Presbyterian Church ought to cultivate.

In behalf of the Faculty,

S. MATTOON, President.

OFFICE OF THE BOARD.

Presbyterian Mission House, 23 Centre street, New-York, N. Y.

Abstract of the Fourth Annual Report.

The Board of Home Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, beg leave to present their Fourth Annual Report to the General Assembly.

We desire, before all other things, to acknowledge the mercy and loving-kindness of the Great King and Head of Zion to the Board, the missionaries, their families and fields of labor, and for the measure of success and prosperity enjoyed in the support and extension of the Gospel throughout our great country.

During the four years since the Reunion in 1870, there have been raised, by this Board of Home Missions, for its legitimate work, $1,214,886, at the rate of $303,721 per year, and supporting an annual average of 1095 missionaries, by whom 3500 churches and stations have been supplied with the Gospel, in thirty-eight of our States and Territories; 655 new churches have been planted; 1371 Sabbath-schools organized; and 43,157 members added to the Church. At the close of these four years, may we not exclaim with gratitude and joy, "God hath done great things for us, whereof we are glad"?

THE WORK—CHURCHES AND STATIONS SUPPLIED—PROGRESS.

There have been in commission during the year, from April 1st, 1873, to April 1st, 1874, 1012 men, laboring in thirty-six States and Territories.

Some 3500 churches and stations have been statedly or occasionally supplied with the Gospel by the missionaries: 153 new churches have been organized, and many new fields visited, where promising congregations will ere long be gathered: 273 new Sabbath-schools have been organized during the year; 1210 Sabbath-schools are connected with our churches, embracing some 100,000 children, teachers, and officers.

In addition to the work in the older States, new beginnings have been made in Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Dakota, Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri, Arkansas, Texas, the Indian Territory, New-Mexico, Wyoming, Utah, Nevada, Montana, Idaho, California, Oregon, and Washington Territory. If our income had been more abundant, many other promising places could have been occupied.

FINANCIAL.

The Fiscal Year of the Board has been one of perplexity and trial. From the very first, a deep concern was created by the action of the last Assembly, reducing the apportionment of the Board of Home Missions from $475,000, to $352,500; a reduction of $122,500! Then the great reduction in the Board's pro rata of moneys undistributed by the donors, increased the concern. For, although not so intended, it lessened the importance of Home Missions in the practical estimation of the Church. This is seen in some measure in the great falling off of $25,494 in the collections from the churches from the former year.

Further to increase the perplexity, the attention of the Church during the summer and early fall, was given to the removal of the great debt of the Foreign Board, largely to the exclusion of other objects, thus diminishing our income. Then, just at the time when many of the largest contributing congregations and individual donors were accustomed to give to Home Missions, they were suddenly crippled by the terrible financial crisis, which paralyzed the commerce of the country, and deranged all its industries. This not only diminished our income, but compelled many hitherto self-supporting churches to call to us for aid. Then, the public notice in the 'Record' for December, that the Sustentation Committee were unable to accept any more applicants for want of funds, compelled many of them to come to this Board for help.

The collections from the churches, under the operation of these and other causes, fell off from those of last year more than $25,000, and the Board would have been overwhelmed with debt, had not the benefactions of the dead come to us, as it were from their graves, in the shape of legacies. In this, though dead, they have spoken words of cheer and comfort to the living and laboring missionaries.

Notwithstanding these drawbacks and discouragements, the Board, by God's blessing through the darkest times, has endeavored to pay, fully and promptly, every missionary who has reported his labors, whilst thousands, depending on vast manufacturing, mining, and railroad corporations all over the land, have suffered for bread. To God be all the praise!

The receipts for the year, from April 1st, 1873, to April 1st, 1874, from all sources, have been $297,150.65, as follows:

From churches, ...	$216,413 35
Legacies, ...	57,368 62
Miscellaneous, ...	14,766 93
Cash on acc't of sale of Mission House, Phil.,	8,601 75
	$297,150 65

This is less than last year's receipts by $7567.32. The great loss is in the collections from churches—the more painful, as from this source the great supply must always be derived.

EXPENDITURES.

The payments for all purposes for the fiscal year from April 1st, 1873, to April 1st, 1874, including the balance of $7406.14 reported to the last Assembly, have been $304,544.70, leaving due on the 1st of April to the Missionaries, $19,500.

THE WORK SPIRITUALLY.

In its spiritual aspects, the work has been very hopeful and encouraging. In the autumn and early winter, especially during and since the Week of Prayer, God has graciously sent "times of refreshing" upon many of our churches.

There have been added to the Church during the year, as follows:

Profession of faith, ...	6,074
Certificate, ...	3,952
Total, ...	10,026

SABBATH-SCHOOLS.

Especial attention is given by the missionaries of the Board to the organization and conduct of Sabbath-schools. The command of the Saviour, —"Feed My lambs,"—must never be forgotten or neglected. There are 1210 Sabbath-schools on the mission fields, embracing 100,000 children and teachers; 273 new ones have been organized during the year.

SPECIAL BUREAU ON UNEMPLOYED MINISTERS AND VACANT CHURCHES.

The Board, in compliance with the instructions of the General Assembly (Minutes 1873, pp. 562–3), organized a "Special Bureau on Unemployed Ministers and Vacant Churches," consisting of Rev. W. C. Roberts, D.D., Chairman, Rev. T. S. Hastings, D.D., and Messrs. Joseph F. Joy, John Taylor Johnston, and George R. Lockwood.

Although notice has been given in all the newspapers of the Church, inviting information from the Synods on the subject, yet it has secured but little or no return. The Bureau sent a circular to the Stated Clerk of each Presbytery and Synod, asking what action, if any, had been taken in the premises, for the names and address of all unemployed ministers able to work, and all vacant churches in their respective bounds, with any information which might lead to their employment and supply.

Answers have been received from 12 Synods and 43 Presbyteries. Nine of the 12 Synods have taken action so far as to appoint Committees to carry out the direction of the Assembly. Three had taken no action in the matter.

The 43 Presbyteries have taken action, and report 95 vacant churches, and 52 ministers unemployed within their bounds. Many of these churches are supplied more or less regularly by neighboring ministers. Nearly all the ministers, whilst not settled as pastors or stated supplies, are, if able, generally engaged in preaching as they have opportunity, and in other kinds of ministerial services for the Church.

Many of these 52 ministers unemployed, reported by 43 Presbyteries, are preaching as temporary supplies to vacant churches. One is reported as having a nursery, one a trade, one a school, another a farm, and two are insurance agents. Thus, after deducting the aged and infirm, and those preaching as they have opportunity, but six are found in secular but honorable pursuits.

From these answers of the 43 Presbyteries and 12 Synods, we are compelled to the conclusion, that many exaggerated statements have been made, and opinions entertained, in regard to the number of our ministers without employment—statements unjust to the ministry, discouraging to the Church, and injurious to religion.

Constant attention has been given by both the Board and the Bureau, through the Secretaries, to secure employment for ministers requesting it, and supplies for churches.

It is recommended to the General Assembly to renew its injunction to the Presbyteries, the Synods, and the Board, to continue to carry out the action of last year on this subject.

WORK AMONG FOREIGNERS.

The Board is giving increasing attention to mission work among German, French, Spanish, Low-Dutch, Scandinavian, and Chinese speaking peoples. These fields of labor are growing in interest, extent, and importance,—in interest as the success is most manifest—in extent, as the numbers from these nationalities enlarge daily—in importance, as the welfare of the country is influenced by these migrations.

The work among the Chinese is growing and hopeful. Although the mission to the Chinese, in its ostensible form, is conducted by the Foreign Board, yet all our Missionaries and Churches on the Pacific Coast, and some in the interior, have ready access to these people through their urgent desire to learn our language. Multitudes are gathered into our Sabbath-schools, and receive instruction in our religion, as well as in our language.

WOMEN'S WORK.

Both Home and Foreign Missions need the prayers and sympathies of the women of the Church, and both need enlarged contributions.

It has sometimes been urged, that the Missionary Boxes, sent to the missionaries, ought to be the measure of the benefactions sent, from the Christian women in the churches, to their sisters in the Home field. But there are many who are beginning to see, that it is better to send more money to the missionaries. Missionary Boxes are of great value; but the Home Missionary work needs more money. Money is indispensable. More money for an adequate salary, is better than many boxes. And many of our female Missionary Societies so regard it, and cannot content themselves without adding donations in money for our treasury. The movement in behalf of Foreign Missions, awakens the conscience and sensibilities of the women in behalf of Home Missions.

IMPORTANCE OF THE FIELD AND WORK.

None but God only can estimate justly the importance of such a work, at such a time, and in such a country. The conversion of the world to Christianity depends largely on the churches and Christians of this land. Our work and our Church hold no mean place amongst the churches of the land or the world. With its members, its gifts, its past history, and present position, it cannot be overlooked, scarcely overestimated.

It was the unanimous and urgent conviction and testimony of the Foreign Delegates to the late illustrious Evangelical Alliance, that, humanly speaking, the spread of the gospel among all nations, depended upon this land; that the preservation and extension of civil and religious liberty throughout the world, under God, was chiefly committed to our care, because the other and older Christian nations are prevented, by their present or prospective struggles, from doing much outside themselves; that the Ark of the Covenant of the world's hope was intrusted to our keeping; that the gospel can alone save us from the fate of past republics, and keep us diligent and faithful to our great trust; and hence the inexpressible importance of preaching the gospel, and the firm planting of its blessed institutions, and the thorough evangelization of the masses from foreign and heathen lands, as well as of our own people.

May the Assembly, and the Churches, clearly and practically realize its importance, and act worthy of their convictions and responsibility.

Conscious of the great trust that God has committed to our use in men, and means, and gifts and talents, and opportunities; encouraged by the signs of the times as foreshadowing the speedy fulfillment of the predictions and promises as to the universal spread of the gospel; cheered by what God has already done, is now doing, and is able still more to do, let us arise and possess this great and "goodly land, which the Lord God of our fathers hath given unto us."

PRESBYTERIAN MISSION HOUSE, 23 Centre street, New-York, N. Y.

ABSTRACT OF THE THIRTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

THE Board of Foreign Missions report to the General Assembly as follows:

FINANCES.

The last mission year ended with a large debt. Through the remarkable action of the last General Assembly, this debt has been nearly removed, $123,503.11 having been received for this purpose. The Board feel very grateful for the removal of this burden, and rejoice in the grace given to so many of the churches, as shown by their liberal gifts to accomplish this end. At the same time, the Board recognize more deeply than ever the importance of so conducting the interests of this Cause, that special appeals for the removal of a debt may not become necessary.

The usual receipts of the Board from all sources, for the year ending April 30th, have been $499,482.87; the expenditures, $494,932.39; which sum, and the balance of the debt, $5192.39, amount to $500,124.68—leaving a balance against the Treasury of $641.91; as appears from the following statement of the Treasurer:

To payments as per accompanying statement,		$494,932 39
Balance from last year,		128,695 50
		$623,627 89
Donations from churches,	$262,726 82
Individual and miscellaneous sources,	41,307 16
Legacies,	88,373 89	$492,607 87
Special for the debt of 1873,		123,503 11
Interest on Waldensian fund,		1,400 00
American Bible Society for printing Bibles in India, China, and Siam,		5,675 00
Balance to new account,		641 91
		$623,627 89

It is with much pleasure that the Board can report the Treasury as virtually free from debt. In view of the great financial reverses of the country, which seriously affected the income of many of the friends of this Cause, it is a matter of thankfulness, that the receipts of the Treasury have been so liberal. But for the earnest efforts of the Board to reduce the expenses of the work wherever this could be done without danger to the vital intefests of the Missions, there would have been embarrassment; and this cautious line of proceeding will be adhered to, subject to the approval of the General Assembly, with the hope, however, that the receipts of the Mission Treasury will be sufficient to justify larger expansion hereafter.

The Board acknowledge, with pleasure, the liberal gifts received from the various Women's Missionary Associations; these have amounted to $87,316.23, being $20,000 more than were received from the same source last year; and with great pleasure they acknowledge the receipt of $27,901 from the children of the Church, an increase of nearly $4000 during the last year. The number of churches contributing to the Board, is 2838, which is 124 less than the whole number contributing last year.

PUBLICATIONS.

Of the Foreign Missionary, 7500 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 86,000 copies of the newspaper edition, are now published monthly. The Board still occupy several pages of the Record, published by the Board of Publication. Of the last Annual Report, 4500 copies were published.

REVIEW OF THE WORK.

In a general review of the mission year now closed, the Board find much reason for gratitude to the Great Head of the Church, for the blessings conferred upon their work. The Holy Spirit has descended upon several of the missions in unusual manifestations. The Missions in Mexico, Brazil, China, on the Nez Perce Indian Reservation, and among the Chinese in California, have especially been prospered. The whole number of additions to the mission churches during the year has been about fourteen hundred—which is an increase of about 25 per cent on the previous membership.

The Mission in Chili has been added during the year, and that in Mexico has passed from an uncertain experiment to a well-organized and eminently successful work. The number of new missionaries sent out to various fields, has been smaller than could have been desired, owing to the necessary restrictions imposed by the General Assembly, on account of the heavy debt of the mission treasury. The applications of several highly commended candidates, who had offered themselves for the service of the Board, have been deferred until the financial outlook shall be improved.

The zeal with which the liquidation of the above-named debt was undertaken by the last General Assembly—at which time $75,000 was pledged therefor—has been responded to by the churches since that time to such a degree, that the Board are able to report the whole amount, $128,000, as paid. It is with profound gratitude to God that so great a result has been accomplished, especially in view of the financial difficulties of the year. At the same time the receipts for current funds have been $47,491.99 in advance of the total amount received last year. Of this, about $88,000 has been received from legacies, and $87,316.23 from the Women's Boards from the Church. The zeal and devotion with which woman's work for her own sex in heathen lands has been carried forward, through these auxiliary organizations, is worthy of special commendation. It is the more to be appreciated, in view of the fact, that those who have been and are its movers have toiled unremittingly with no recompense, save that found in the favor and approval of their Divine Master. It is felt that the vitalizing influence of this work upon the whole Church is one of the most auspicious indications of its future success. On the whole, that the large aggregate of over $620,000, including the debt, should have been paid into the treasury during a year of so much financial hardship, is certainly remarkable. It affords substantial proof, that the hearts of God's people are deeply interested in the great Cause of publishing abroad the blessed gospel to all men; and it seems to renew the assurance, given by the Divine Master himself, that he will be with his Church in her conquests—always, even unto the end of the world.

It should not be forgotten, however, that some shades of sadness have gathered over the history of the past year. The announcement, that the Board of Foreign Missions are free from debt, has cost to some of the mission fields the most painful retrenchment. Not only have most of the structural interests of the work, in providing chapels, etc., remained at a stand-still; not only have devoted men and women been denied when craving the privilege of devoting their lives to the enlightenment of the heathen; but in many instances, useful work which had been commenced has been arrested. In Persia and in Syria many village schools, though costing so little in proportion to their results, have been closed, and the work of the press, whose value is now more than ever appreciated, has been curtailed.

In looking out upon the coming year, and seeing at how many points the providence of God seems to call for advancement, and yet steadily resolved to avoid indebtedness, the Board are impressed with a deep sense of the responsibility of their action. Shall their plans be laid broadly or narrowly? How far shall they walk by sight, and how far by faith? How far shall business principles unite with that trust in an overruling and supernatural power, which is, after all, the reliance in such a work? The past embarrassments commend wise caution, at the same time that past blessings warrant strong faith. In any case, the zeal and health of the churches, accompanied by their constant prayers, should be given to the Board in their great work. All the voices of Providence are speaking to God's people that they go forward.

OFFICE OF THE BOARD.

No. 1334 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Abstract of the Fifty-fifth Annual Report.

The Board first acknowledge the unspeakable kindness and mercy of God to them during the labors of the year.

A compendious "Permanent Manual" has been published, on "The Spirit and Work" of the Board, which is intended to be a condensed summary of the most important historical, ecclesiastical, and legal information related to the Cause; and the chief motives and encouragements to prayer, contributions, and efforts in its behalf. Pastors, church officers, candidates and their instructors, and church members should put the contents of the Manual to earnest practical use, and thus help to give an important impulse to the work.

CANDIDATES.

The Board have aided, during the year ending April 1st, on the recommendation of the Presbyteries, the numbers following:

Theological students,	206
Collegiate students,	308
Academic students,	36
Total aided during the year,	550

Of the above, there were new recommendations, 90; annual renewals of former recommendations, 460.

The number of German, Portuguese, and other foreign students was 36; of Welsh Calvinistic, 8; of colored, 55.

There are reported 72 candidates in connection with the Board, who have completed their studies at the Theological Seminaries, as follows: Western, Allegheny, 17; Princeton, 15; Lane, Cincinnati, 11; Union, New-York, 9; Bloomfield German Theological School, 7; Auburn, N. Y., 6; North-Western, Chicago, 2; German Theological School, Dubuque, 2; Blackburn University, 1; Danville, Ky., 1; San Francisco, 1.

Appropriations have been discontinued during the year to 15; that is, on account of protracted ill-health, to 2; for marrying, to 1; on account of irregularities, to 2; because of other provisions sufficient for their support, to 10.

The Theological students have been distributed among 13 Institutions, the Collegiate among 52, and the Academical among 17. Number of Presbyteries represented, 115.

The number of students, during the year, 550, is a diminution of somewhat less than one fifth from that of last year; which has been caused chiefly by the debts which have loaded the principal Boards for the last two years, and discouraged young men whose hearts otherwise would have inclined them to become ministers of the gospel.

This is still a large increase, thirty per cent, over the entire average number, 421, aided by the Old Board and Committee together, during the seven years previous to the reunion of the two branches of the Church of which they were the organs.

If the Church judges, that the present number is too small to meet the necessities of her vacancies and mission-fields, the remedy is chiefly to be found in such a liberal increase of contributions to the Board of Education, as will assure her young men of piety that she is sincere in her declarations; and that she will keep her promises of pecuniary assistance, after they have left other and often remunerative employments, at her solicitation.

CARE AS TO RECOMMENDATIONS.

The requirement of a pecuniary recommendation from the church session to the Presbytery, although it was not perfectly carried out in this first year, because of the temporary absence of the Secretary for the sake of health, has, as the Board think, done much toward accomplishing the designs of the Assembly in imposing it. It has prevented a number of applications for aid to those who could really dispense with it, and has caused the Board to decline rendering it in some other cases through the information elicited.

THE TREASURY.

The direct Receipts for the year have been $92,994.19; to which are to be added $4111.05, from the Special Committee of the General Assembly, making a total of $97,105.24.

The full Payments have been made for the three quarters of the present collegiate year, and a portion of those of the fourth quarter, ending May 1st, which the Theological students require before its close. They have amounted, with current expenses, to $92,972.05. Adding to these $4111.05, paid to the students on account of the special debt at the close of the last collegiate year, the total payments were $97,083.10. Balance on hand, $22.14.

The appropriations of the year have all been paid with reasonable promptness. At the same time, a large portion of the debts, which have so greatly embarrassed the Board for the past two years, have been cleared off. There is every prospect that the Board will now be able, with the increasing liberality which may fairly be hoped for from the churches, to go forward in the fulfillment of their great designs.

Debts remain in bank since last spring, upon which 6 per cent interest has been paid, to the amount of $9500; and about $2000 will be needed to meet other obligations of the year. Total debts at this time, $11,500.

There is required, to meet present wants, the amount of the debts previously mentioned, and nearly $10,000 for the remainder of the May appropriations, for which the reports have not yet been received; making, in all, about $21,500.

The summer collections should be large, in order to meet the payments of the first and second quarters of the next collegiate year; which may be estimated, with the probable increase of students, and the more liberal grants which the Board will make if provided with the means, at $25,000 each.

The amount which will be needed, for the collegiate year now commencing, may be estimated at $11,500 for debts mentioned, and $25,000 for each quarter; total, $111,500.

LEGACIES.

The Board have been enabled to pass through the financial tempests of the past year without incurring any new loans, partly through the help received, in an unusual number of liberal testamentary gifts, amounting in all to $14,625. Legacies to the amount of $11,150, have been received during the year, which were to be funded, and only the interest used by the Board.

The funded legacies of the Board, all of which (except possibly the Phelps Scholarship, which was received from the old Permanent Committee) have been received during the last eight years, now amount to $41,850. They are invested in safe legal securities, and pay to the Treasury the total interest of $2560 per annum. This sum, small as it is in comparison with the living gifts of the churches, and with the necessities of the Cause, yet is of material service in supplementing the appropriations to the candidates; and these pious testaments to this good Cause are most gratefully acknowledged.

HELPS TO GREATER EFFICIENCY.

An earnest desire is expressed, by the Board, for the change of the Monthly Record to a newspaper shape, and its general circulation amidst the vast mass of Presbyterian families who never see a Presbyterian newspaper, and know nothing of our Church work or its wants. While the belief is expressed, that the churches should adopt the scriptural system of giving, the Board request of the Assembly the appointment of uniform times, for the annual collections of those which as yet make but one general contribution in the year; that thus the present great confusion as to appeals and collections may be avoided.

The marked increase of the work in this department of the Church's work in soundness and thoroughness, the universal appointment and cordial cooperation of Committees of Education in the Presbyteries and Synods, and the general interest of the church sessions in the character of the candidates whom they recommend, are grounds of great encouragement.

It is believed that the number of candidates should be increased; but the practical and final answer to this important question must depend, chiefly, upon the liberality of the contributions which the members of the churches make to the Board of Education. The Presbyterian Church seems, to this Board, to need men. Last year, leaving out of view other means of diminution, ninety-one deaths alone in the ministry were reported to the General Assembly; this year the Board, which aids the largest share of the young men, report but seventy-two to take their places; the general loss is fully equal to the general gain. Vast home fields are lying destitute of the gospel. The appalling desolations of the heathen world arouse the anger of a righteous God, who knows our guilty sloth and worldliness. Other churches lack young men who are willing to go and preach; but we have no such excuse. The sin of our Church is that her people do not give the pecuniary means, which are required to qualify those who are willing for the duty. She has abundant wealth. Her very poorest congregation is richer than most of those in heathen and other lands, which earnestly do what they can for the Saviour. "But many sleep." The Cause of Ministerial Education needs to be spread before the people, by the ministry themselves, in all its extensive and vital relationship to the Kingdom of Christ; and thus their fervent prayers and their large contributions be attracted to it, as the primary instrumentality of the Church for the sanctification of our nation, and for the conversion of the world to God.

By order of the Board, WILLIAM SPEER, Secretary.

ABSTRACT OF THE THIRTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERIAN BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

I. DEPARTMENT OF PRODUCTION.—Owing to the general condition of business, the scarcity of money, and the slowness of sales during a large part of the year, the Board have published fewer new books than usual, relying mainly on reprints of former publications. In the issue of periodicals and Sabbath-School Lessons, they have done a far larger business than in any former year. The publications for the year have been as follows:

	Copies.
7 New Books,	7,500
1 Catechism,	2,000
1 Tract, 18mo,	2,000
4 Tracts, 32mo,	16,000
1 Formula,	1,000
1 Portuguese Tract,	2,000
Total of New Publications,		30,500
Reprints of Former Publications,		615,850
Total Number of Publications of the Year,		646,350

In addition to the above, there have been printed, of the

Sabbath-School Visitor,	2,600,685
Presbyterian Monthly Record,	143,000
Presbyterian at Work,	313,710
Annual Report of the Board,	6,400
Golden Texts,	60,000
Lesson Leaf,	1,084,615

PERIODICALS.—The Board have the satisfaction of reporting their Periodical Department as in a healthful and prosperous condition. With January, 1873, they entered upon the publication of the Presbyterian at Work, a monthly paper for Sabbath-School and lay-workers. The success of this paper has been such as fully to justify its publication, and to prove that it met an existing want. At the end of six months, with July, 1873, its size was enlarged fifty per cent by the addition to it of the Westminster Lessons on the International Series (previously published in pamphlet form at seventy cents a year), without any increase of its price. The Presbyterian at Work, though furnished at so low a price, has been a self-supporting paper from the first number onward. It is published at sixty cents per annum to single subscribers, and at fifty cents each when six or more are addressed, in one package, to one person.

The Sabbath-School Visitor.—The Presbyterian Sabbath-School Visitor, the Board's illustrated paper for the young folks, continues to enjoy the favor of the churches. This paper had, for years, been sold below its actual cost, thus entailing an annual loss, which was borne by the business department of the Board. This was manifestly wrong. Whilst the Board are constantly aiding feeble churches and Sabbath-Schools by grants, as a missionary work, they aim in their business to sell fairly at remunerative prices. This is the only sound principle upon which they can conduct their business affairs. Other religious publishing houses, laboring under the same difficulty, reached a similar conclusion. In unison with them, the Board raised the price of the Visitor, from January 1st, 1874, onward, so as to sell the paper at the rate of $15 for 1200 papers.

The Presbyterian Monthly Record.—This organ of the Assembly's Boards and Committees continues to be published, in octavo pamphlet form, by the Board of Publication, but only as the publisher for the Assembly's Boards and Committees, the control of its own pages resting entirely with each of the organizations represented. The monthly circulation of the magazine has been between twelve and thirteen thousand, including the copies sent gratuitously to each of the ministers of the Church. The loss incurred by its publication and distribution is shared by the Assembly's Boards and Committees in the ratio of the pages occupied by each.

II. DEPARTMENT OF DISTRIBUTION: The Sabbath-School Department.—This branch of our work, under the superintendence of Mr. J. Bennet Tyler, has met an appreciative reception and cordial co-operation. It has now been in operation a little more than two years. Meanwhile, it has been diligently seeking Encouragements.—1. Synods have generously responded to the movement, especially at the West. Synodical Institutes of a more or less formal character have been held in some half a dozen States, and the Superintendent has engaged to conduct several more during the coming autumn.

2. A large number of Presbyteries have appointed Committees on the Sabbath-school, and are holding Institutes more or less frequently. The Presbytery of New-Castle holds half a dozen each year. Those held at Athens, Zanesville, Steubenville, Wilmington, Hollidaysburgh, and Cincinnati have been notably successful. The one at Cincinnati was continued for four successive days. It was largely attended, and was a gathering of great interest and value. Besides this, the Association of that city and Presbytery held ten successful Normal meetings during the year.

3. Presbyterian Sabbath-school Associations have been organized in five of the principal cities, most of which are remarkably successful.

4. New and general interest has been imparted, teachers' meetings are springing up, the Scripture is better memorized, better work is done, more definite and immediate spiritual impressions are sought and reached, and revivals are in progress in the schools all over the land.

5. Our Paper and Westminster Lesson Helps have had a gratifying success, and have within a single year attained a circulation unparalleled in the history of such enterprises. The Lesson Notes, by Drs. Jacobus, Duryea, and Niccolls, and the Hints for Primary Classes, are unsurpassed. The Teachers' Cabinet of Illustrations, and other features of The Presbyterian at Work, attract wide attention. The Lesson Leaf has had a still greater success.

Colportage.

This good work has quietly and steadily gone forward, and the blessing of God has attended it. The Board has had in commission, for either the whole or portions of the year now under review, 136 colporteurs. These have labored in 30 of our Synods, and in 97 of our Presbyteries, and two in Canada.

Of the above number of colporteurs in commission nearly all have sent in their reports. The remainder were either recently commissioned, or have failed through accident, neglect, or some other cause, to do so. It appears that 71,196 volumes were sold by these colporteurs ; that 73,971 volumes were given away by them and the Missionary Committee ; that 3,132,433 pages of tracts were distributed gratuitously, and that 129,765 families were visited, the larger part of whom were conversed and prayed with. The donations made by colporteurs amount to $8519.40.

Every colporteur is selected and recommended by the Presbytery in whose bounds he is to labor, or by its Presbyterial Publication Committee, and his work is subject to its supervision and general direction while he continues in the field. Should any colporteur prove to be inefficient or unfaithful, that Committee is expected to report him to the Board, when his commission would at once be withdrawn. Thus each Presbytery has complete control over the work in its bounds. This is in accordance with the action of the General Assembly of 1870.

The General Assembly of 1871 directed the Board, "in appointing colporteurs, as far as possible, to select such persons as may also be suitable for Sabbath-school missionaries, and instruct them to establish Sabbath-schools in destitute localities, under the supervision of Presbyteries." The Board is endeavoring to obey this direction, and earnestly requests every Presbyterial Publication Committee to have due reference to it in selecting and recommending persons to labor in their bounds. This is the first year in which these new items have been reported, yet it appears that 1748 Sabbath-schools have been visited, and 76 new schools have been organized in destitute localities. It is confidently anticipated that this will become, from year to year, a more important and useful part of the colporteur's work, which will be fraught with blessings to the youth of our land and to the Church of God.

Grants.

During the year the Board has made, through this Committee, 661 grants, amounting to $9519.79. These have been sent, in larger and smaller amounts, to 37 States and Territories of our Union. A few of them have also gone to aid and bless toiling servants of Christ in Japan, India, Liberia and the Gaboon in Africa, Brazil, Mexico, Jamaica, and the Bermudas. On many a far-distant field have been sown seeds of truth from this granary of the Church,—seeds destined, we may humbly hope, to spring up and through the power of God produce new harvests from fertile virgin soils.

Of the above-mentioned 661 grants, 320 were made to needy and mission Sabbath-schools ; 210 were sent to pastors, missionaries, and other persons for gratuitous distribution in their several vicinities ; 61 were given to mission churches, mostly in our frontier States and Territories ; 43 to needy ministers and missionaries for their own use ; and 27 were sent, mainly by request of the Assembly's Committee on Freedmen, to Freedmen's churches and Sabbath-schools.

III. Department of Sustentation. The receipts into the Treasury from all sources during the year, including the balance of $9520.31 on hand at the beginning of the year, have been $240,647.91.

The total of expenditures during the year has been $228,414.93.

The balance in the Treasury at the end of the year (March 31st, 1874) is $12,232.98.

The Value of Publications disposed of during the year, has been :

Sales by the Bookstore,		$62,974 58
Through the Missionary Department:
Sales by Colporteurs,	$42,004 69
Donations by Colporteurs,	8,519 40
Grants by Missionary Committee,	9,519 79	$60,043 88
			$123,018 46
Receipts from Sabbath-School Visitor,		$18,886 62
Receipts from the Presbyterian at Work,		24,398 60
Receipts from the Monthly Record,		6,220 62
			$49,505 84
Total,			$172,524 30

This total includes credit sales, and of course does not agree with the Treasurer's account, which exhibits only cash received.

THE MISSIONARY FUND.

The contributions to the benevolent or missionary work of the Board, during the year, have amounted to . . . $47,798 48

Directly for the same work there have been expended :

1st. For compensation to Colporteurs (engaged in the distribution, by means of personal effort and solicitation, of a sound religious literature in accord with the views of our Church),	$28,418 22
2d. For expenses of Colporteurs,	7,410 41
3d. For freights of Colporteurs,	2,238 09

(The value of the books actually sold through this agency has amounted to $42,004.69 net ; and there must also be taken into consideration in estimating the return for the expenditure for the purely benevolent work of the Board, the services and labors of the Colporteurs in religious visitation from house to house.)

4th. For net value of books given away (catalogue value, $18,039.19),	12,722 22
5th. For salary of Superintendent of Sabbath-school Work,	3,000 00
6th. For traveling expenses of Superintendent of Sabbath-school Work,	555 89
Total,	$54,344 83
Deducting the contributions as above,	47,798 48
There remain,	$6,546 35

more than the amount received from churches and individuals for the benevolent work of the Board, which has been met and paid out of the gross profits on the business. This amount is more than enough to cover all the office expenses, properly so-called, of the Missionary Department, for this year. It is confidently hoped that the same will be the case in future years.

The entire amount of books, tracts, and Sabbath-school papers given away during the past year, in grants from the Missionary Committee and through Colporteurs, has been $18,039.19.

The number of churches contributing during the year just ending, including 135 which gave to the Synodical Board at Pittsburgh, and 509 contributing through the Assembly's Committee of Benevolence and Finance, has been 2111.

Twentieth Annual Report.

The Trustees of the Presbyterian House report to the General Assembly, that the receipts and expenditures of the year, as shown by the report of their Treasurer, duly audited and herewith submitted, have been as follows :

Total receipts, including balance, ...	$13,444 63
Total expenditures, ...	11,435 86
Leaving a balance of	$2,008 77

The Trustees further report, that, during the year, they have received no bequests and have accepted no new trusts. They have regularly collected the income from invested funds, and have distributed the same to the objects designated by the donors.

The Trustees still further report that, in accordance with the recommendation of the last General Assembly, and in concert with the Trustees of the General Assembly, they have taken "the advice of counsel with regard to the feasibility of legally uniting the Trustees of the General Assembly and the Trustees of the Presbyterian House." Having been certified that no legal impediment stands in the way of uniting the two Boards, they ask the attention of the Assembly to the Joint Report of the Trustees of the General Assembly and of themselves, and to the draft of an act to be passed by the Legislature of Pennsylvania, which accompany the report of the Trustees of the General Assembly, and which the Trustees of the Presbyterian House have formally approved.

The term of office of the following Trustees expires during the present session of the Assembly, namely, Samuel H. Perkins, Esq., Mr. William E. Tenbrook, Mr. Alexander Whilldin, Rev. David A. Cunningham, D.D., and Rev. Alexander Reed, D.D.

Respectfully submitted,

By order of the Trustees,

Joint Report.

The joint action of the Committee referred to in the above report is as follows :

THE UNION OF THE TWO CORPORATIONS.

To the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America :

The Committee, appointed to confer with a similar Committee appointed by the Trustees of the Presbyterian House, respectfully report :

That they met the said Committee, and after conference, agreed to recommend the adoption of the following course :

That the General Assembly be recommended to take the action suggested in the form proposed in the annexed draft of a Report by each of our respective corporations.

Respectfully reported,

GEORGE SMITH,
SAMUEL HOOD,
JOSEPH ALLISON.

May 5th, 1874.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America :

The "Trustees of said General Assembly and the Trustees of the Presbyterian House," respectfully present the following Joint Report, in reference to the question suggested by the Committee of the last Assembly on Finances, respecting the legally uniting of the two bodies.

The matter was referred by each body to a Special Committee of three, with instructions that they confer together and act as a Joint Committee in the premises. This Joint Committee appointed a Sub-Committee, themselves lawyers who have had much practical experience in the various affairs of the Church, to devise such necessary legislation as might seem to them desirable to accomplish the object desired, to obtain the opinion of counsel thereon, and report the same to the Joint Committee. The Sub-Committee reported the draft of an act of Assembly, with the opinion of counsel thereon, which is herewith submitted, and the same was approved by the Joint Committee, who recommend the adoption by the Assembly of the following resolutions :

Resolved, That there shall henceforward be but one corporate body for the purpose of receiving, holding, and administering the general trusts of the Church not otherwise provided for.

Resolved, That this corporate body be "the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," as now existing, and that the necessary legislation be obtained in Pennsylvania, for the purpose of declaring said corporation to be the legal successor of "the Trustees of the Presbyterian House," and authorizing the latter corporation to transfer the property held by them to the former ; and that the Act, a draft of which has been submitted to the Assembly, is approved by them for that purpose.

AN ACT

to declare the "Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America" to be the legal successors of "The Trustees of the Presbyterian House ;" and to authorize the latter Corporation to transfer the property held by them to the former:

Whereas, the two religious bodies heretofore existing, each under the name of "The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," have united the congregations under their care; and the General Assembly of the Church thus united, which met in St. Louis, Mo., on the twenty-first day of May, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and which is the legal successor of both the former bodies, has directed that there shall henceforth be but one corporate body for the purpose of receiving, holding, and administering the general trusts of the Church, not otherwise provided for :

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That "The Trustees of the Presbyterian House"—heretofore incorporated by an Act of the General Assembly of this Commonwealth, approved April 21st, 1855,—be and they are hereby authorized to grant, assign, transfer, convey, and deliver all property, estates and rights, real, personal and mixed, in reversion, possession, or remainder, of every kind and description now held or enjoyed by them, or which may hereafter be received, held, or enjoyed by them, by virtue of any gift, grant, bequest, or devise, or otherwise, howsoever, or in any manner whatsoever, unto the "Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," heretofore incorporated by an Act of the General Assembly of this Commonwealth, approved March 28th, 1799 ; which last-named corporation shall be and become, and is hereby declared to be, the full legal successor of the said "The Trustees of the Presbyterian House," and of all the corporate powers, rights, privileges, and franchises now belonging to the said corporation last-named, and shall and may have, hold, use, and enjoy all the said corporate powers, rights, privileges, and franchises, and all the property, estates, and rights which shall be so granted, assigned, transferred, conveyed, and delivered, in the same manner, and to the same extent, as the said corporation last named might have done (including any and all power therein vested to sell, convey, assign, and transfer the same), and shall be entitled to demand, receive, sue for, and recover all legacies, devises, bequests, and property whatsoever, which have heretofore been, or may hereafter be, made, given, or granted to the said corporation last named : Provided, however, and it is hereby expressly declared, that the said "Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," shall receive, take, and hold the said property and estates, or the proceeds thereof if sold, conveyed, assigned, or transferred, and shall exercise the said corporate powers, rights, franchises, and privileges, upon the same trusts and for the same uses and purposes only as the same are, or otherwise would be, held and exercised by the said "The Trustees of the Presbyterian House."

And it is hereby further provided, declared, and enacted, that all gifts, grants, conveyances, devises, and bequests which shall be made, or purport to be made, to the said corporation last named, or intended to inure for its benefit, either absolutely or in trust, shall be deemed and taken to be made to and inure to the benefit of the said "Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America" with the same effect as if made thereto, or intended to inure to the benefit thereof, directly.

OPINION.

I have considered the question of the feasibility of legally uniting the "Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," and "the Trustees of the Presbyterian House," and am of opinion that the object desired can be properly and safely accomplished by the passage of an act by the Legislature of Pennsylvania in the terms of the draft above submitted.

ABSTRACT OF THE FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT.

Hitherto the Annual Report of this Board has extended to the first of May. The last General Assembly ordered all the Boards to close their accounts on the thirty-first of March. This gives only eleven months of work and receipts to report. The April receipts have always been much larger than those of any other two months in the year, amounting, last year, to $28,869, more than one fourth of the entire receipts for the year.

The year has been one of peculiar stringency in money matters, which has painfully affected all the Boards, but more especially Church Erection, limiting its receipts, and restricting the work of church building, far beyond what was expected and greatly needed. Many churches that commenced to build, with the promise of help from the Board to enable them to complete their undertakings, when the panic came on, found themselves unable to proceed; and thus failing to fulfill the conditions on which the Board's grant was made, are left in a painful state of suspense, and have fallen back upon the Board for the means to save their property from being sacrificed. Notwithstanding this, the work on the whole has advanced. A larger number of church buildings has been erected during the eleven months of this year than during the entire preceding year; and the receipts for these eleven months have been larger than those of the corresponding months of the preceding year by $14,580. We close the year not only without debt, but with a considerable balance in hand, which will enable us to meet the increasing demand that is being made upon our treasury.

The receipts during the eleven months since May 1st, 1873, amount to $96,486.24, which, with the balance in hand at the beginning of the year—$5229.76, makes a total of $101,716. The increase in the number of contributing churches is about one hundred. Nothing is reported but what has been actually paid into the treasury.

APPLICATIONS.

During the last eleven months, two hundred and twenty-five applications have been received, formal and informal, asking for $162,500. Adding to these the applications on hand at the beginning of the year and not disposed of, the total of demand is nearly $200,000.

APPROPRIATIONS.

Appropriations were made during the year to one hundred and sixty-six churches, extending from Massachusetts in the east to Washington Territory in the west, and from Dakota and Montana on the north to Texas and Florida on the south. These new buildings are found in twenty-nine States and territories, and under the care of eighty-four different Presbyteries.

The amount granted to these churches was $85,530, an average of $515. Appropriations to sixteen churches, amounting to $8375, have been withdrawn during the year, not having been called for within the two years prescribed by the rules. Some of these applications have been renewed. One hundred and sixty churches during the year received their several appropriations, amounting to $68,889.83; while $51,867 are to be paid to seventy-one churches, so soon as they furnish the requisite papers.

INSURANCE.

Since the introduction of this system, or within a little more than two years, insurance on church buildings, to the amount of $193,775, has been secured; so that if all these buildings should be destroyed within the next five years, not a cent of the Board's money would be lost. These policies are to be renewed as they expire.

During the year, a considerable amount of money has been secured from the sale of old church property. Much more should have been realized for the Board from this source. When churches, built in part by money received from the former Board of Church Extension, have ceased to be needed, either in consequence of the organizations having become extinct, or (as in other cases) having become wealthy and provided themselves with better buildings, should they not in equity refund from the sale of such property the amount received from the Board, that other feeble churches may enjoy the benefit of sanctuary homes?

CONTRIBUTIONS.

An increasing disposition is shown, on the part of many churches and individuals, who have hitherto distributed their gifts for Church Erection themselves, to pass them directly to the treasury of the Board. They have become weary of the incessant applications made to them, either in person or through the mail, and have resolved to avoid the expense of such solicitation, and avail themselves of the protection for their gifts, which the rules of this Board secure by their mortgage and insurance policies.

COST OF BUILDINGS.

As has already been stated, the average amount of our appropriations during the year has been $515. It must not, however, be supposed, that this is the maximum of aid asked for. In some instances, applications indorsed by Presbyteries have called for two, three, and even five thousand dollars, to assist in erecting houses costing ten, fifteen, and as much as twenty-five thousand dollars. Had these applications been granted, scores of other churches more needy, and whose requests were small, must have been rejected. The Board has continued to act under the conviction, that it is better to secure the comfortable shelter of a large number of poor and struggling churches, than by much larger donations to help a few to the possession of more costly buildings. In pursuing this course, we are acting in conformity with the expressed wishes of many of our most liberal givers.

MANSES.

The last General Assembly, in dissolving the Standing Committee on Manses, directed that this work be committed to the Board of Church Erection, with instructions to "prosecute it vigorously." The Third Annual Report, prepared and published by the former Committee on Manses, has been distributed. A number of letters of inquiry, and some applications for aid in erecting Manses, have been received and answered.

Some of the churches assisted by this Board in building houses of worship, were at the same time engaged in providing homes for their ministers; but they were informed, that the appropriations of the Board must be applied to the church building, inasmuch as the money was given by the donors for this purpose only.

This work of procuring manses your Board holds to be very important, and in some places absolutely necessary to the settlement and support of a minister. But the work cannot be accomplished without means, and if it be the desire of the Church at large that it be prosecuted vigorously, some provision must be made to secure the necessary funds. We have found one individual, and he connected with this office, who has given $100, by which the building of one manse has been secured.

Whatever money may be sent to this Board for the building of manses, will be faithfully applied.

The term of office of the following members of the Board expires at this time, viz.: Rev. Joseph Fewsmith, D.D.; Rev. John Hall, D.D.; Rev. Elijah R. Craven, D.D.; Joseph R. Skidmore, Frederick G. Burnham, Jonathan Ogden, and Remington F. Randolph.

Abstract of the Nineteenth Annual Report.

The past year has been one of more than ordinary trial both to the Committee and to the families dependent on the Relief Fund for support. The causes of embarrassment were such as the following:

1. The liabilities of the previous year left unpaid for want of funds were more than nine thousand dollars. This debt was brought over to be carried by the resources of the financial year just closed. The families to whom it was due were obliged to wait until collections could be gathered in from the churches. By this process all the payments were of necessity postponed, disappointing expectations and bringing some into great straits.

2. The fact that the General Assembly of 1873 recommended to the churches a smaller amount than had been named for the two previous years, had a damaging effect.

3. Another serious hindrance was the great financial crisis. This occurred not far from the time, when, according to the programme for several years adopted by general consent, the annual collections for this Cause are taken up in many of the churches. It not only diminished the income of some who had been liberal donors, and prevented the treasury from being supplied with ample means, but it swept away the slender resources on which not a few had been relying, to supplement the appropriations of the Committee, and thus added to their inconvenience and suffering.

4. The uninterrupted agitation of the whole Church on the subject of its benevolent operations, exciting groundless suspicions, and causing a misapprehension as to facts, has greatly cooled the ardor of benevolent feeling, and interrupted the flow of contributions into the church treasuries. Amid the strifes of the hour, other and outside Causes are ready to step in and gather the spoil.

5. In addition to these considerations, it should not be forgotten, that there is each year a steady addition to the number of applicants entitled to relief, while for four years past the contributions from the churches, although increasing, have not advanced in the same ratio.

The necessities of these needy ministers, widows and orphans, have been made known, as widely as possible, through the press, through the action of Synods and Presbyteries, and by correspondence with Presbyterial Standing Committees, Stated Clerks, and private individuals. The editors and proprietors of religious weeklies, which circulate widely through the Presbyterian Church, deserve special thanks, for their courtesy in publishing in their columns matter furnished to them on this subject, and for the kind words they have spoken in behalf of this Cause.

Of those who have received the benefits of the Fund for the year from April 1st, 1873, to April 1st, 1874, there have been on the roll,—ministers of the gospel, 171; widows of deceased ministers, 213; orphan families, 24; in all, 408.

The whole number of new cases is fifty; viz., twenty-nine ministers, sixteen widows, and five orphan families. The aggregate increase in the number of applicants has been twenty-nine; viz., nine ministers, four widows, and four orphan families.

Twenty who were on the Fund have died; viz., five widows and fifteen ministers, of whom, nine were advanced in age, and six in middle life, or quite young. After April 1st, 1874, there are at least seventeen families who will cease to apply for assistance—nine ministers, four widows, and four orphans.

The four hundred and eight on the roll were recommended by one hundred and twenty-nine Presbyteries, scattered through all the Synods in this country. The two Mission Synods abroad, India and China, are exceptions. The resources and expenditures for the year ending April 1st, 1874, have been equal, namely, $78,472.53, leaving our liabilities to be $15,684.

If the amount of the installments, due and unpaid on the 31st of March, be added to the actual expenditures, it will make a total of $94,156.53, which is the smallest sum that would have enabled the Committee to close the financial year without debt.

The total amount for the year previous was $81,317.47, including the balance then on hand of $783.87. The sum received during the year has altogether exceeded the expectations of the Committee; but this was not reached without much painstaking and perseverance. In view of the difficulties to be met, the result is both remarkable and encouraging.

The additions made to the Permanent Fund, for the year from April 1st, 1873, to April 1st, 1874, are $8999.

This year ends the quarter of a century since (in 1849) this Fund was established. The grand total of moneys gathered in during this period is $698,874; or nearly seven hundred thousand dollars, of which $114,535 is a Permanent Fund, the interest only to be used. The balance, $584,339, has, from year to year, been expended for the purposes of the Fund. There have been assisted what is equivalent to the number of more than ten thousand individuals, in 2582 families; viz., 1052 of disabled ministers, 1392 of ministers' widows, and 148 orphan families, at an average rate of about $226 to each family.

During the ten years just closed, there have been gathered in from the Memorial Fund, from special gifts, but principally from legacies, $113,579.18, making the sum total invested, $114,535.99. The largest contributions to the Permanent Fund were $8200, by H. M. Schieffelin, Esq., and $25,000, by John C. Baldwin, Esq.

A considerable amount has been given in reversion to the Permanent Fund, and will in due time be in actual possession.

In behalf of the Trustees of the General Assembly,

GEORGE HALE,
Secretary of the Relief Fund.

The number of white churches which have contributed this year is 458 more than contributed last year.

MISSIONARIES.

These are Preachers, Catechists, and Teachers; and in the work under care of the Committee the past year—including a few assistants in the schools—the number is as follows:

Ordained Ministers,	of whom 18	are colored,	32	34
Licentiates,	" 2	"	2
Catechists,	25	all "		25
Teachers—males—	" 21	are "	23	56
" females,	" 7	" "	33
	73			115

Most of these Ministers have large fields to care for, including, in some cases, four, six, and seven churches; but they cheerfully "endure hardness." The Catechists are very useful assistant Missionaries, and the statistical reports sent up by our Ministers under whose direction they act, show that they have done a large amount of valuable church and Sabbath-school work. The teachers give much evidence, that they feel that they are not mere educators, but Christian Missionaries as well, and that they act accordingly.

CHURCHES.

" infants,	491
Marriages reported,		162
Whole number of Sabbath-schools,		88
Whole number of scholars in Sabbath-schools,		6,109

Comparing the present report with that of last year, it will be observed that the number of churches is greater by 12; that the number added on examination is greater by 194; the number added on certificate is greater by 187; and that the whole number of communicants is 1045 greater this year than last; while the number of Sabbath-school scholars is larger by 400. One of our churches has become self-supporting during the year, and others are making progress in this direction; but the most of them are very poor. Over $8000, however, having been contributed by them and their schools, indicates that even in their deep poverty they are striving to "help themselves."

Of church buildings, 6 have been completed during the year, 9 are incomplete, and the whole number reported is 88. Belonging to these are 9 manses or homes, all of which are free from debt. The united value of these churches, manses, homes and school buildings connected with them, is estimated at $94,835. This does not include the property of Biddle Memorial Institute, Wallingford Academy, and Scotia Seminary, the united value of which is $31,950.

Several of our churches have reported marked religious interest in the past year, and as a result, Concord Church, N. C., received 22; McClintock, N. C., 25; Charlotte, N. C., 27; and Midway, Macedonia, Liberty Co., Georgia, 56, on profession of faith, which makes the number of communicants in the church last named, 759.

SCHOOLS.

Whole number of day-schools,	40
" " pupils in these,	3,464
" " teachers,	65

The figures pertaining to our school work are not quite so large as those of last year. Scarcity of funds called for retrenchment, and it could be made more easily here than elsewhere. But statistical reports from the field go to show, that besides the large amount of "good seed" sown in the hearts of the young by our Missionary teachers, their work is beginning to tell largely in the way of

TRAINING TEACHERS

for their own race. Fifteen of our schools report that within the last year, mostly in vacation, 134 of their scholars have taught 406 months; equal to over 33 years, their schools enrolling 5634 scholars; and that they received for their services, in cash and boarding, about $8000; also that 33 of these while thus engaged superintended Sabbath-schools which enrolled 1908 scholars. We have four Institutions for the training of teachers, of a higher order than "common;" Biddle Memorial Institute, Charlotte, N. C.; Scotia Seminary, Concord, N. C.; Wallingford Academy, Charleston, S. C.; and Brainerd School, Chester, S. C. The combined statistics of these four are as follows:

Whole number of students enrolled,	571
No. of these professors of religion,	209
No. of these in the Presbyterian Church, about,	170
Whole number studying for the Gospel ministry,	50
No. of these that are Presbyterians,	48
No. who have acted as catechists,	20
Taught school part of the year,	98
Whole number of months taught by all, this year, over	341
Whole number of pupils in all their schools, about,	4,731
Amount of pay received, in cash and board, by all, about,	$6,700
No. who superintended Sabbath-schools while teaching,	33
Whole number of scholars in these Sabbath-schools,	1,908

In considering the figures of this table, it should be remembered, that those pertaining to students for the gospel ministry, catechists, and superintendents of Sabbath-schools, came from but three of the four institutions named; as Scotia Seminary is only for girls. Most of these figures are considerably in advance of those derived from the same sources last year. The number of students enrolled this year is 73 greater than last; the number of professors of religion is increased by 51; the number who engaged in teaching, part of the year, is greater by 45; the number of months taught, greater by 183 (over 15 years); the number of scholars enrolled, greater by 2368 (more than double); and the amount of pay received is greater by $3420 (nearly double); while the number of Sabbath-schools superintended by them is greater by 9; and the number of scholars in these, greater by 400. It should not be overlooked, that three of these schools have 50 students for the gospel ministry, and 20 catechists in active service.

WORK.

The work of your Committee is larger and more complicated than, as we judge, seems generally supposed. It includes the Preacher, Catechist, and Teacher; the Church, visitation, and school, Sabbath and Parochial, church and school buildings, with manse or home, and grounds for each; books for the needy, and clothing for the poor; with careful inquiry after the qualifications of each applicant of each class of Missionaries before employing; and afterward the work of each while in the field; together with all the minutiæ pertaining to monthly, quarterly, and annual reports from each; with bills of amounts, great and small, received, expended, or forwarded; and monthly payment of dues to each; with all else pertaining to the conducting of such a work among a people whose utter lack of mental culture and self-reliance, in the past, makes even those of mature years but children, in all that pertains to business transactions.

ABSTRACT OF THE THIRD ANNUAL REPORT.

The Sustentation Committee herewith present to the General Assembly their Third Annual Report. They record the signal goodness of God in bringing them through a year of almost unexampled monetary stringency, with so many encouraging results.

The last General Assembly, after a full discussion of this scheme, in its various bearings upon Home Evangelization, most emphatically pronounced it "no longer a mere experiment," but "part of the settled policy of the Church."

Besides the financial success in the large returns from the aided churches themselves, the training of the people to systematic beneficence, and contribution to all the Boards of the Church, the encouragement of the pastoral relation, and of prompt payment of the pastor's salary, have been marked results of inestimable value.

It will not be counted strange, that the work of this Committee received a check by the financial panic. Soon after its outbreak in September, the Presbyteries had their meetings, and recommended to us many new cases in different quarters. It seemed a hardship to these churches, after they had taken the requisite steps and fulfilled all the conditions of the scheme, and in some instances with very unusual exertions, to be declined. But our Committee, after anxious and prayerful deliberation, when the means of sustaining such as we already had on our list were falling short, decided that it would not be safe to engage for any more, and they so announced to the churches; and up to this time we have been compelled to discourage and decline numerous applications. At the same time some, who would otherwise have renewed their application for another year, feared to do so from the impression that our burden was already too great to carry. Besides this, the monetary pressure prevented some of our churches from meeting the requisite conditions, and they fell back upon the Home Board. Others still were blessed with large ingatherings, and either became self-sustaining; or, in some cases, fell off by passing the numerical limit of church membership.

If, now, along with these effects of the financial panic, we consider the damage to the funds from questions of reconstruction, we see that the year may be counted as in all respects a most trying one, and most calculated to put our scheme to the severest test. Some have been obliged to leave their posts, because the churches have withheld from them a living, when they would willingly have wrestled with all the difficulties, if that had been granted as promised.

The extra amount of $120,000 to the Foreign Board is to be counted as in part withdrawn from other objects. It deserves to be noticed, that the receipts were not so materially diminished by the monetary stringency as by the falling off in the last two months, and since the report of the Consolidation Committee suggested a discontinuance of this Committee as a separate agency.

We report two hundred and sixty-six Pastorates on our books this year, thirteen of which report themselves as self-sustaining.

We have received $51,758.03, which, with the surplus of the previous year, $12,186.40, gives a total of $63,944.43; and we have paid out $67,388.63, leaving an indebtedness of $3444.20.

Besides this, we are in arrears to the Pastors (May 1st), on the March payments, about $4000. Our next pay-day is June 1st, with a further liability of $14,500 at that time.

CONCLUSION.

The Sustentation Committee have no wish to forestall the opinion of the General Assembly by any special pleading; nor have they any favors to ask for themselves, except to express their entire willingness, as a Committee, to relinquish this important trust, if the Assembly shall so decide.

Respectfully submitted,

In behalf of the Committee, M. W. JACOBUS,
Secretary and Treasurer.

Abstract of the Second Annual Report.

The Committee on Benevolence and Finance respectfully report as follows:

An extensive correspondence has been maintained with churches and committees; the last Annual Report, containing the plans and views of the Committee, has been sent to every minister whose name is recorded on the Minutes of the Assembly; printed tables of proportions, according to the Assembly's schedule, together with a statement of the precise distribution of the remittance, have been returned with every receipt of the Treasurer; and communications have been made to the churches through the Monthly Record and the religious press. An arrangement was also made whereby officers of the Boards of Home Missions, Foreign Missions, and Church Erection, should have access to our Treasurer's account of receipts at all times for their information. Circumstances have, however, prevented the Committee (who have no Corresponding Secretary, and who consequently have done all their work themselves) from publishing as much during the last winter as they would otherwise have done. If, therefore, any progress has been made, it must be ascribed to the merits of the plans recommended, rather than to any strenuous efforts put forth to urge their adoption.

In view of this fact, the following statement of the receipts of the Treasurer has an increased significance:

First quarter ending June 30, 1873,	$27,867 10
Second " " Sept. 30, "	27,030 42
Third " " Dec. 31, "	27,844 21
Fourth " " March 31, 1874,	46,995 03
Making a total amount of	$129,736 66
The receipts, last year, were	59,621 69
Increase over last year,	$70,114 97

And if the account of the distribution of these sums is also examined, it will be seen that so far as the plans of this Committee have been adopted, the recommendations of the General Assembly, as contained in the schedule, have been approximately carried out.

Number of contributing churches.

The churches which have made remittances through this Committee during the year ending 31st March last, number and are located in 136 different Presbyteries.	598
The number which contributed last year was	291
Increase over last year,	307
The number which have contributed regularly throughout the whole year, was	119
The number thus contributing last year, was	33
Increase of churches thus contributing,	86

Besides these, there are about seventy other churches which commenced systematic remittances late in the season; among which are the State Street Church, Albany; Pittsburgh, Shady Side, and Pittsburgh, Second, Pa.; Wilmington, Central, Del.; Wilkesbarre, Pa.; New-Albany, Second, Ind.; and Detroit, Fort Street.

These are eloquent facts, and show—if they show any thing—that the idea of systematic giving, which this Committee has sought chiefly to promote, has found favor with the churches, as it has become more familiar to them.

Gifts for all the Boards.

The example of the 119 churches, referred to as having made monthly or quarterly remittances throughout the whole year, is still further suggestive.

All but four of them have contributed to all the eight objects sustained by the Assembly; two of the others, to all excepting Sustentation; one other omitted the Board of Publication; and one other small church limited its offering to four objects alone. This fact would encourage us to hope that, with proper effort, our churches generally might be led to give both systematically and proportionately, in accordance with the principles and plans proclaimed by the Committee.

PERMANENCY AND REGULARITY OF SUPPLY.

Of the 33 churches which remitted regularly through the Committee last year (see Committee's Report, 1873, p. 15), all except two have continued to remit to the Committee this year also.

The aggregate contributions from the above churches for three successive years have been:

From 33 churches in 1872,	$12,789 00
" 33 " " 1873,	13,842 00

PRESBYTERIAL COMMITTEES.

The recommendation of the General Assembly, that Standing Committees in each Presbytery should report twice a year to this Committee, is generally inoperative, and experience has clearly shown that correct statistics are not to be gathered in that way.

What could be done by energetic Presbyterial Committees, may be gathered from the experience of two such Committees, one in the Presbytery of Cairo, Ill., the other in that of Morris and Orange, N. J. From the former, it is reported to this Committee that 9 churches, comprising only 630 members, but acting on the plan of systematic giving, have contributed to the Boards, during the year, $1589.80, while the other 49 churches of the Presbytery, comprising 1627 members, only contributed $671.02. From the other Presbytery—that of Morris and Orange—it is reported, "that for three years efforts have been made to carry out the plans and principles of the Assembly's Committee of Benevolence and Finance, and the result has been that the offerings of their churches have increased, in that time, from $19,485 to $43,015 during the year." Also, that in the church in that Presbytery "which has followed the principles of the Assembly's Committee, perhaps more fully than any other," the offerings in the past two years increased from $3582 to $8390, and that "this result, in the opinion of the pastor, is entirely due to a cordial acceptance of systematic giving as an act of worship."

THE WHOLE WORK VIEWED AS ONE.

The receipts of the Boards and Committees from the 1st of April, 1873, to the 31st of March, 1874, as reported to this Committee, have been as follows:

	Churches and Miscellaneous.	Legacies, etc. Permanent.	Total.
Board of Foreign Missions,	$390,595 60	$69,844 19	$582,431 79
Ditto on account of their debt,	121,992 00
Board of Home Missions,	231,180 28	67,970 37	299,150 65
" " Church Erection,	113,747 59	6,879 45	120,627 04
" " Education,	75,282 84	24,725 85	104,119 74
Ditto on account of their debt,	4,111 05
Committee on Sustentation,	55,109 92	.....	55,109 92
" " Ministerial Relief,	78,441 53	31 00	78,472 53
" " Freedmen,	44,869 55	.....	44,869 55
Board of Publication,	45,782 38	2,016 15	47,798 53
	$1,161,112 74	$171,467 01	$1,332,579 75
Same time in 1872–3,	1,056,176 29	173,212 76	1,229,389 05

The regular receipts of the Boards, exclusive of legacies and gifts for their debts, amounted, as above, to $1,035,009.69, and were subject to the following fluctuations:

Receipts during quarter ending 30th June, 1873,	$253,701 57
Receipts during quarter ending 30th September, 1873,	119,767 06
Receipts during quarter ending 31st December, 1873,	217,327 56
Receipts during quarter ending 31st March, 1874,	434,213 50
	$1,035,009 69

And the largest variations from the recommendation of the last General Assembly's Schedule, were as follows:

The Board of Church Erection received $113,747.59, being $30,946 more than eight per cent.

The Board of Foreign Missions received $390,595.60, being $23,408 less than forty per cent.

The Board of Home Missions received $231,180.29, being $12,046 less than twenty-three and one half per cent., and

The Committee on Ministerial Relief received $78,441.63, being $16,340 more than six per cent.

FINANCIAL CONDITION OF THE WORK.

The estimates of their financial condition on the 31st of March last, by the Boards and Committees, show, that $114,491.57 would then have been required, in order that the whole work should be free of debt.

The Treasurer of the Board of Foreign Missions estimated their deficit as amounting to		$36,063 00
The Board of Home Missions, including all amounts due missionaries for their services to 31st March,		46,987 91
The Board of Education, deficiency,		11,477 86
Committee on Sustentation, "		15,000 00
" " Freedmen, "		3,941 48
" " Ministerial Relief deficiency,		14,926 08
		$128,396 33
The Board of Church Erection reported balance on hand,	$54,076 36
Appropriations passed,	41,607 15
Balance after paying appropriations,	$12,469 21
The Board of Publication reports no debt for its Missionary work, and a balance on hand,	1,435 55
		13,904 76
Debt of the whole work of the Church,		$114,491 57

This is a far better condition than that of last year; yet it reveals, as was then also stated in the Report of this Committee, the reason why our work suffers from continued embarrassment, and points the Church to a more perfect financial system, one which shall keep the principles of Christian benevolence, accurate information and correct statistics, constantly before the Church, as the essential remedy.

THE FUTURE.

The Committee of Benevolence and Finance have now been in existence for three years, during which time they have done their own work, and borne their own expenses. The results of the experiment are now before the Assembly and the churches, for them to judge whether any thing of value has been accomplished or not. This Committee have seen no reason to question the correctness of the views which they have sought to promulgate. But it is for the General Assembly to pass upon the merits of their work, and to determine on the proper action for the future. Circumstances will render it impossible for the present members of the Executive Committee to continue their service for another year, and, if the Committee is continued, some more definite and permanent shape should be given to it, by the appointment of a regular officer to attend to the details, and by making some provision for its necessary expenses. Those expenses have been, for 1872–73, $1448.76, and for 1873–74, about $1200.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

W. S. GILMAN, Chairman.

GEORGE DE FOREST LORD, Secretary.

IV. Reports of Special Committees.

I. EXTRACT FROM THE REPORT ON CONSOLIDATION.

[So much of the Majority Report of the Special Committee of the Assembly of 1873, on the "Consolidation of the Boards of the Church," as contains the statistical statements, was ordered, by the Assembly of 1874 (p. 34), to be printed in the Appendix to their Minutes, and is as follows:]

The first point of inquiry relates to the present expense of administration, and to the desirableness of Consolidation, with reference to an increase of economy. To bring this part of the subject fully before the Assembly, it seems necessary, that the actual cost of the present system should be clearly stated. The following table exhibits the financial statistics of the several Boards and Committees, the figures being taken from the Minutes of the Assembly, or furnished by the executive officers of the Boards. It will of course be understood that they represent the financial conditions of the year ending in May, 1873:

Boards.*	Total Funds expended.	Salaries.	Printing, etc.	Traveling and office Expenses.	Total Expenses.	Am't spent on the Objects.	Percentage of Expenses.
Foreign Missions.....	$552,775	$18,105	$14,202	$4,961	$37,268	$515,505	.06 7-10
Home Missions.....	304,705	15,800	3,379	1,720	22,649	282,056	.07 43-100
Church Erection.....	104,774	6,500	1,641	887	9,030	101,774	.08 6-10
Sustentation.....	70,858	1,500	893	983	3,376	67,482	.04 7-10
Education.....	115,000	6,860	1,775	1,754	10,462	104,539	.09
Ministerial Relief.....	81,302	4,245	2,014	657	6,917	74,385	.08 5-10
Freedmen.....	59,260	3,150	863	413	4,426	54,834	.07 5-10
Publication (for Colp.)	55,896	4,500	200	150	4,850	51,046	.08
Total.....	$1,344,570	$60,660	$24,967	$11,525	$98,978	$1,251,589	.07 36-100

From this statement it appears that in the year specified we have used in the benevolent work of the Church the sum of $1,344,570

Of this amount, the different objects sustained have received $1,251,589

And our expenses have been $98,978

Or, to express the result in the simplest form; of every dollar that has been contributed for this work, ninety-two and 64-100 have reached the destination intended by the contributors, while seven 36-100 have been deducted for the expense of collection and distribution.

When these figures are contrasted with those of many other denominations and religious societies, it appears to your Committee that the relative

* It should be kept in view, in reading this schedule, that these different rates of expense in the Boards are caused partly by the exceptional advantages enjoyed by some of them. Thus Foreign Missions pays no rent, and Sustentation pays no salary. In some instances, there is also an increase of expense by reason of unusual expenditures, for removal, furnishing, repairing, etc. The percentage of Sustentation would be lessened a little by allowing for interest earned by deposits. The cost of printing in Foreign Missions is owing to the gratuitous distribution of The Foreign Missionary. If the salary of the Superintendent of the Sabbath-school work be deducted from the expense of maintaining the Missionary work of the Board of Publication, its percentage of expense would be reduced to .03 3-10; and, from later information it appears that, by adding to the receipts of the Board of Church Erection the receipts from the Permanent Fund, viz., $4693, and deducting the sums paid for land taxes, etc., from its expenditures, the percentage of that Board would be .07 3-10, instead of .08 6-10.

economy of our system of management, and the faithfulness with which their trusts have been managed by the officers of the several Boards, demand public and honorable recognition. And, while it is conceivable, that, even on the existing system, reductions might wisely be made in some departments, especially in that of printing, and in office and traveling expenses, it should be remembered, that such expenses have been largely incidental to the recent adjustments of our denominational life. And, if the continuance of the present mode of administration should be determined, it might be safely committed to the discretion and fidelity of the Boards themselves, to bring such expenses down to the lowest figures which the welfare and progress of the work would permit.

By order of the Committee,

ROBERT RUSSELL BOOTH
Chairman.

II. REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON A "NEW AND FINAL COURT OF APPEALS."

[Referred to the General Assembly of 1875, See p. 69.]

The Committee, appointed by the last General Assembly, to consider and report on the subject of a "New and Final Court of Appeals" (Minutes, page 548), respectfully present the following Plan for the organization of such a Court:

COURT OF FINAL APPEALS.

1st. There shall be a Court of Final Appeals, consisting of eighteen members,—nine ministers and nine ruling elders,—elected as hereinafter named. There shall not be more than two members of said Court from any one Synod.

2d. The members of said Court shall be chosen by the General Assembly by ballot. The nominations shall be made at least one day prior to election.

The General Assembly shall, at its first sitting after this overture shall have been adopted by the Presbyteries, elect eighteen members. They shall be divided into three classes of six each, by the General Assembly: Class No. 1, shall hold office for one year ; Class No. 2, for two years; Class No. 3, for three years.

After the said meeting of the General Assembly, six members shall thereafter be elected each year, to hold office for the period of three years. The term of office shall commence on the 1st day of September following the election.

3d. Said Court shall sit during the time and at the place of the General Assembly, and may adjourn to meet during the interim of the meetings of the General Assembly at such times and places as they may order.

4th. All decisions of this Court of Appeals shall be final on all questions over which they have jurisdiction. They shall not have jurisdiction in cases involving questions of doctrine ; such questions shall be taken, by appeal, complaint, or reference, directly from the Synod to the General Assembly. The Court shall have jurisdiction in all other cases of appeal, complaint, or reference from Synods.

5th. Ten members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In case a quorum is not present within three days after the meeting of the General Assembly, the Assembly may appoint as many of their own number as may be requisite to constitute a quorum; and the members so appointed shall, during the meeting of the same Assembly, have all the powers of members duly elected as aforesaid; but no longer.

6th. A majority of the Court present shall be requisite for a decision; and, in case the Court should be equally divided, the decision of the Court below shall stand affirmed.

7th. All appeals, complaints, and references (and papers relating thereto) to this Court, shall be prepared in the same manner as is now required on appeal, complaint, and reference from the Synods to the General Assembly.

8th. The principles and modes of proceeding prescribed in the Book of Discipline, Chap. VII., shall be in force, and observed by all parties in all cases to be adjudicated by the Court, the same as when brought before the General Assembly.

9th. The Court shall have power to adopt such rules and regulations, in reference to its proceedings, as it may judge proper, not inconsistent with the requirements of the Form of Government.

10th. All decisions of the Court shall be reported to the General Assembly, duly certified, and shall be entered on their Minutes, and shall be enforced in the same manner as the decisions of the General Assembly are enforced.

In behalf of the Committee, GEORGE W. MUSGRAVE, Chairman.

[The following Overture from the Presbytery of Buffalo was ordered to be printed in connection with the above Report.]

ACTION OF THE PRESBYTERY OF BUFFALO,

in session at Ripley, N. Y., April 14th, 1874, on the proposed plan of a New and Final Court of Appeals.

Resolved, That the Presbytery of Buffalo does hereby express to the General Assembly its disapproval of the proposed Plan of a New and Final Court of Appeals, for the following reasons:

1st. So radical a change in our system of government can be warranted only by the most imperative necessity, and, in the opinion of this Presbytery, no such necessity does now exist. By an examination of the Minutes of the four Assemblies that have met since the re-union, it appears that twenty-five cases have come before the Judicial Committees, all of which have been satisfactorily disposed of without trial before the Assembly, with the exception of one, viz., the complaint against the Synod of Philadelphia in reference to the term of the Eldership, tried at Detroit in 1872.

It seems to the Presbytery that if but one case in four years has been tried before the Assembly, the circumstances do not warrant the formation of a new court.

2d. The proposed Plan threatens to conflict with the powers and duties of the Assembly, as expressed in the Form of Government, Chap. xii., Sections 4 and 5, and Book of Discipline, Ch. vii., Section 1.

The first Section referred to declares that the General Assembly "shall review the records of every Synod, and approve or censure them." This duty is not transferred to the new court. They are not to review records, but to hear such cases only as are brought before them by appeal, complaint, or reference. To the General Assembly still belongs the duty of review; and the Assembly may approve certain action of Synod in its review, which the new court may subsequently condemn and reverse in a case of complaint. The opinion of the Assembly and the opinion of the new Court may be directly contradictory. Whilst the opinion of the latter court would, of course, be of judicial authority, yet the moral force of its decisions would be seriously impaired, if the Assembly had previously expressed a contrary opinion in its review of the Synodical records. Moreover, by the proposed plan, the decisions of the Court are to be entered on the Minutes of the Assembly, so that we may have on one page an approval, and on the next page a disapproval and reversal, of the Synod's action.

Section 5 of Chap. xii., Form of Government, says, that "to the General Assembly also belongs the power of deciding in all controversies respecting doctrine and discipline; of reproving, warning, or bearing testimony against error in doctrine, or immorality in practice, in any church, Presbytery, or Synod."

There is nothing in the proposed Overture revoking these powers of the Assembly; and it appears to the Presbytery that there may often be conflict between the Assembly and the new Court, in that the Assembly may bear testimony against an error in practice or discipline, which error may be justified by the Court of Appeals, when the matter comes to them for judicial trial.

Moreover, the Assembly is constantly called upon, by overtures from church courts and private members, to express its opinion on certain points of church polity, and construction of the Constitution. Such opinions will be of little worth, if they can be overruled in actual process by the "New Court of Appeals."

The same line of reasoning will apply to the enforcement of the provisions of Chap. vii., Section 1, of the Book of Discipline, which contains more particular instructions in reference to review and control. It appears to the Presbytery, that a radical error will underlie a system that allows two separate and independent courts, one of which shall express approval or censure of the proceedings of a lower court, with the power of reversal when there has been no judicial decision (see paragraphs 3 and 4, Section 1, Ch. vii., Book of Discipline); whilst the other, in case of Complaint, possesses the power of confirmation or reversal of the same proceedings. Frequent conflict will be inevitable. It seems an additional error, that two courts should exist, both of which shall have supreme power in interpreting the Constitution, the one in thesi, and the other in actual process.

3d. Some of the questions that would come before the new Court would be of such vast importance, that it seems unwise and perilous to intrust their decision to a court so limited in number. The Court is to consist of eighteen members. Ten constitute a quorum. Five of these may determine the result of a trial. It seems to the Presbytery, that a case, for instance, like that which was tried at Detroit in reference to the term of the eldership,—a case in which the whole Church was profoundly interested, should not be left to the final judgment of five persons, however eminent they may be for knowledge and discretion.

While the Presbytery expresses its disapproval of the proposed Plan of a New Court, it is decidedly of the opinion that the time of the Assembly should not be taken up with long trials concerning matters of comparatively trivial importance; and as the plan of trying cases by Commissions, which has already grown into custom among us by consent of parties, has proven satisfactory, the Presbytery would ask the General Assembly to send down an Overture to the Presbyteries, authorizing the Assembly, at its discretion, to refer cases for trial to Special Commissions, when, after an investigation by the Judicial Committee, it is not thought expedient that the matter should come before the whole Assembly for formal trial, the reports of such Commissions to be, in all cases, submitted to the Assembly for ratification.

III. REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON VOLUNTARY SOCIETIES.

[Ordered to be printed in the Appendix.—See p. 76.]

The Committee, appointed by the General Assembly of 1872 "to investigate the whole subject of contributions to Voluntary Societies, and the duty of the Presbyterian Church in view of the changes that have taken place in other denominations that are prosecuting benevolent work in channels of their own," would respectfully submit the following Report:

The subject referred to this Committee is one of more than ordinary importance, involving not only large pecuniary interests, but also the most economical and efficient use of the charities of the Church. Our Assembly was not the first to call attention to this subject. In 1871, the General Association of Connecticut appointed a Committee to report on the organization and control of Voluntary Associations. The same subject, in one or another of its forms and bearings, was considered in the National Council of Congregational Churches, held in Boston in 1865. Subsequently, it was brought before the National Council, held in Oberlin in 1871, and a Committee was appointed to draw up a Report on the Consolidation of these multiplied Societies, "with a view to the promotion of greater unity and efficiency of operation, and the reduction of expenses that are felt to be needless, and therefore burdensome." It was also resolved, "that this Committee be requested, when desired to do so, to investigate the merits of such special objects and institutions as are to be generally presented to the churches for aid, and to give the churches the advantage of their judgment on their merits and importance." This Committee, as we are informed, has been in session during the past month, in the city of New-York.

This action is alluded to, because the Congregational churches are not so largely interested in the pecuniary and charitable operations of these Voluntary Benevolent Societies as is our own Church. If they feel obliged to take action with reference to this matter, much more should this Assembly. Your Committee do not feel that they are called upon to discuss the comparative merits of Voluntary Societies for benevolent work and Church Boards. Happily, that question has been settled, after years of controversy and experience. The decision is so decidedly in favor of Church Boards, in which the distributors of the Church's charities are held to a strict account, that few, among Presbyterians, would think of reopening the question. But this strange fact remains, that the Presbyterian Church is still the chief supporter of the most prominent of the Voluntary Societies. From her treasury they draw the larger portion of their revenues. Our Church bounds cover precisely the same ground, and include the same aims and methods of missionary work, as do the Voluntary Societies; yet our people are supporting both. Is this wise? Is it an economical use of sacred funds?

The Committee have considered this subject in the following order: (I.) What are the existing relations of our Church to the principal Voluntary Societies? (II.) What are the disadvantages of the present order of things? (III.) What means may be wisely introduced to obviate these disadvantages?

I. What are the existing relations of our Church to the principal Voluntary Societies? As to control or administration, we have none. These Societies, being voluntary in their organization, are not responsible to any denomination. It is true, that each contributing denomination is represented by some person or persons in the Board of Management, but these representatives are not appointed by any ecclesiastical authority, nor are they in this relation responsible to any church court. As to our financial relation, it is simply this: We pay our contributions, amounting to a large sum annually, into the treasuries of these Societies, to be disbursed as they may see best, in the various operations of printing books, maintaining book-stores, publishing papers and periodicals, sending out Colporteurs and Sabbath-School agents, and in the gratuitous distribution of tracts and books. The following statement, prepared from the official reports of some of the leading Voluntary Societies, will show the proportion of contributions from our churches as compared with others.

American Sunday-School Union.—Per cent contributed by each denomination:

Congregational, 35; Presbyterian, 47; Reformed, 8; Baptist, 4; all others, 6.

The American Tract Society acknowledges for these years,—November, 1872–1873, $123,781.

Of this amount, $24,449 is so acknowledged that it can be traced to the denominations contributing: 44 per cent was given by Presbyterians; 29 per cent by Congregationalists; 14 per cent by the Reformed Church; 1 per cent by the Methodists; 4 per cent by the Baptists; 3 per cent by Episcopalians; 2 per cent by U. P.; 3 per cent by others.

Of the $99,332 received from union meetings, legacies, and individual subscriptions, there were received from	New-England,	$19,556

"	" Middle States,	60,529
"	" 12 Western States,	18,090
"	" 15 Southern "	1,101
"	" 7 Territories,	54

If it is remembered in what region Presbyterianism is strongest, it is easy to conclude, that the percentage already given applies even more strongly to this miscellaneous sum.

The receipts of the American and Foreign Christian Union from November, 1872–1873, were $34,538.

Of this amount, we can trace $14,753, divided as follows: Congregationalists gave 17 per cent; Presbyterians, 34 per cent; Reformed Church, 9 per cent; Methodists, 21 per cent; Baptists, 10 per cent; Episcopalians, 3 per cent; U. P., 3 per cent; all others, 3 per cent.

Of the amount remaining, $19,785, the contributions are divided as follows:

From	New-England States,	$3749
"	Middle States,	8261
"	12 Western States,	4685
"	15 Southern States,	3049
"	Territories,	34

Our Church is also a liberal giver to the American Bible Society, but your Committee have not thought it necessary to give any figures or statements with reference to it, for two reasons: First, it is not in conflict with any of our Church Boards; second, Presbyterians have every thing to gain by the fullest and freest circulation of the Bible; and to print and circulate it, is simply to print and circulate that Divine Word on which our Confession of Faith is founded.

In addition to the Societies already named, there are many others, chiefly in our large cities, the centres of wealth and liberality, which are supported, for the most part, by Presbyterians. They claim to be Union Societies, and are not, in any way, under church control; but your Committee have reason to believe, that the proportion contributed by our churches to their support is much larger than in the cases previously mentioned.

II. What are the disadvantages of the present arrangement of these Benevolent Societies?

1. It appears to your Committee, that there is, to say the least, an unnecessary number of these Societies. If the question of consolidation is so important as to demand the recasting of our own Boards, much more do the same arguments apply to the multiplied and rival Voluntary Benevolent Societies.

2. Some of these organizations, as for example the American Tract Society, and the American Sunday-School Union, are doing the same work, and proceeding in the same methods as our own Church Boards. Is it a wise and economical use of sacred funds, collected from our Church, to employ them in maintaining separate and rival organizations? As statistics presented in this Report show that other denominations have almost entirely withdrawn their contributions from these Voluntary Societies, is it to the advantage of the Presbyterian Church to support them, while its own Boards are in urgent need of funds to carry on their appropriate work ?

3. These Societies, as now constituted, are irresponsible. In the report of the General Association of Connecticut on Voluntary Associations, this principle is laid down, which all must recognize as just: "A Voluntary Benevolent Association should be so constituted, as that there shall ever be recognized a sense of complete responsibility to its constituents, so that there shall be no necessity for cutting off supplies from its treasury, in order to make the responsibility felt and rendered operative. Least of all bodies should it degenerate into an oligarchy, manipulated in the interests of a ring." The leading Voluntary Societies, as now constituted, are practically "close corporations;" and that they have so far commanded public confidence, has been due to the integrity of the men in charge, and not to the system of management.

4. There is no gain from them in maintaining the unity of the Church. In other days it was deemed that they were of the highest service in bringing about the unity of Protestantism. This may have been true in times past; but such organizations are not needed now to this end; for experience shows that a healthy denominational life and activity are not inconsistent with true unity. There is also the fact, as shown by statistics, that these Societies no longer represent a union of denominations.

5. Many of these Societies employ agencies in the collection of funds, which have been long ago abandoned by our Church as too expensive and involving a waste of money.

6. The agencies within the Church itself, and under its control, seem to your Committee to be amply sufficient to engage the largest liberality and activity of its members; and so render unnecessary Voluntary Organizations, the great multiplicity of which interferes with liberal giving, and specially with an economical use of the funds contributed.

III. What means may be wisely introduced to obviate these disadvantages ?

On this point your Committee frankly confess, that they do not see clearly all that ought to be done; but they would offer the following suggestions:

1. Some arrangement should be made, by virtue of which, our own Church, and all others contributing, should have some voice in the management and control of these Voluntary Societies.

2. There should be a distinct understanding between them and our Church Boards, as to their respective fields and modes of work, so that there shall be no conflict or waste of money and labor.

3. We believe that if some of these Voluntary Societies were to confine themselves to the work of publishing, leaving the missionary work to the Church of Jesus Christ, the results would be vastly better. Arrangements might be made with them, by which their books could be distributed by our missionaries and colporteurs, in regions where it would be inexpedient to offer those published by our own Board.

4. In view of all the facts, your Committee believe, that both economy and efficiency demand the gathering and distribution of the charities of the Church through the instrumentality of our Boards; and that the better way to correct many of the disadvantages attending the disbursement of charities through Voluntary Societies, is to make our own special channels so broad and deep, so far-reaching and direct, that the benevolence of the Church shall have no occasion to flow in any other course.

In behalf of the Committee,

SAMUEL J. NICCOLS, Chairman.

VI. Miscellaneous.

I. THE MILEAGE AND CONTINGENT FUNDS.

Special attention is called to the Mileage System, adopted by the General Assembly of 1870, as recorded on pages 59 and 60 of their Minutes, which is as follows:

"The Committee to whom it was referred to consider and report a uniform system of Mileage, whereby full provision may be made for the traveling expenses of the Commissioners to our General Assemblies, and to meet the contingent expenses of each Assembly, respectfully report:

"It is affirmed, Form of Government, Chap. xxii., Section 3, that, 'in order, as far as possible, to procure a respectable and full Delegation to all our judicatories, it is proper that the expenses of ministers and elders, in their attendance on these judicatories, be defrayed by the bodies which they respectively represent.'

"The principle is thus established, that provision should be made for the payment of the traveling expenses of Commissioners to the General Assembly. This provision should be made by the Presbyteries. As far as possible, the feebler Presbyteries should be aided in this matter by the stronger. It appears just and reasonable, and so has been found, by experience, that the estimated contingent expenses of each Assembly, and the traveling expenses of the Commissioners in coming to and returning from the Assembly, should be fully met by the apportionment of the whole amount among the several Presbyteries, according to the number of their communicants respectively.

"It is, therefore, recommended,

"1. That the Standing Committee of Mileage, annually appointed, be instructed to present an estimate of the probable amount that will be needed by the next General Assembly in order to meet their contingent expenses and the traveling expenses of their Commissioners, with a statement of the per capita rate, based on the number of Communicants, that will be needed to secure the amount.

"2. That the Presbyteries, at their Stated Meeting next following the adjournment of the General Assembly, apportion the amount required of their churches, as they deem best.

"3. That the churches be instructed to pay over their respective apportionments at the Stated Meeting of their Presbyteries next preceding the meeting of the General Assembly,—the whole amount due from the Presbytery to be forwarded to the Assembly by their Commissioners.

"4. That, as early as the fifth day of the sessions of the Assembly, the apportionment of each Presbytery be paid in full, and a bill of the necessary traveling expenses of its Commissioners be presented to the Standing Committee on Mileage.

"5. That the Mileage Committee, after appropriating from the whole sum an amount sufficient to meet the estimated contingent expenses of the Assembly, be instructed to audit these bills and pay them, pro rata, if approved, as far as the funds will permit.

"6. That, in order to avail themselves of the proceeds of this fund, the Presbyteries must contribute their full proportion to it according to the per capita rate.

"7. That every minister, and every vacant church contributing to this fund, connected with the Presbyteries thus complying with the provisions of this plan, be entitled to a copy of the Annual Minutes of the General Assembly.

"8. That the Commissioners from Presbyteries in foreign lands receive their necessary traveling expenses, pro rata, from their place of residence in this country."

In accordance with this system, every Presbytery is required to pay in full, to the Mileage Committee of the next General Assembly, a sum equal to seven cents for every communicant under the care of their churches, as determined by their Statistical Report, herewith printed. This will entitle their Commissioners to a full share in the apportionments for necessary traveling expenses. It is expected that these expenses will be fully met, if the Presbyteries comply with the requirements of the Assembly.

II. THE ANNUAL MINUTES.

The Minutes will be supplied at One Dollar per copy, postage included. A copy will be sent, without charge, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery, and of every Synod; also, to every Minister, and to the Session of each contributing Vacant Church (whose address is known), of every Presbytery that has paid its full apportionment to the Mileage Fund of the Assembly; also, to every ordained Missionary of the Foreign Presbyteries, through the Board of Foreign Missions.

III. SYNODICAL REPORTS.

A Statistical Report is to be forwarded, to the Assembly, by the Stated Clerk of every Synod; in which are to be stated the number and names of the Presbyteries within their bounds; the changes which may have been made in the number or arrangement of their Presbyteries; the names of the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries; the place and hour of the next Annual Meeting; and the names of the Moderator and Stated Clerk of the Synod. A blank will be sent to the Stated Clerk of every Synod, near the close of the calendar year, which should be filled up, and forwarded, without delay, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

IV. PRESBYTERIAL REPORTS.

It is required of every Presbytery to prepare and forward to the General Assembly:

1. A Statistical Report, according to the form exhibited on page 180, of the present Appendix; of which a printed blank will be furnished in due season, by order of the Assembly, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery. This Report should, if possible, embrace all the changes in the Presbytery previous to the first day of April.

2. A Narrative of the State of Religion within the bounds of the Presbytery, for the year ending April 1st. These Narratives should specify facts in regard to the particular churches, their state, trials, encouragements, and prospects; how many of them, and which, have enjoyed revivals of religion through the year; in which of them the Catechisms are taught, Sabbath-schools and Bible-classes organized, with the number of scholars and teachers. Also, the various arrangements of the Presbytery for Church extension; stating the number of their ministers, and the particular manner in which they are employed; the number of their churches, and how they are supplied; the number of new churches organized, and new houses of worship erected; what itinerant arrangements have been adopted for preaching the gospel; what and how much agency have been employed: together with all such other facts and suggestions as will show, from year to year, what has been accomplished, and what may need to be undertaken, to bring all the churches to a proper degree of effort to promote the kingdom of Christ. As the Narratives are not to be publicly read, less care may be given to their style, and more to the detail of particulars, such as will aid the Committee of the Assembly in preparing their Annual General Narrative of the State of the Church.

V. STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES.

In preparing the Statistical Report, let the following rules be strictly observed:

(1.) Carefully copy the blank form and order of columns, etc., on page 180, if a blank has not been received.

(2.) Record Ministers in the order of their ministerial age, with their CHRISTIAN names in full, without abbreviations, and their Address on the same line, in the adjoining column.

(3.) Place the name of every Church and Mission Chapel opposite the name of its Pastor, or Stated Supply; never, opposite the name of any other minister; if the Church is Vacant, place it at the foot of the roll.

(4.) Place, after the name of every minister, an abbreviation, denoting his occupation; e. g.: P., for a Pastor; P. E., for a Pastor Elect; P. C., for a Pastor of a Congregational Church; C. P., for a Colleague Pastor; S. S., for a Stated Supply; H. M., for a Home Missionary; D. M., for a District Missionary; C. M., for a City Missionary; T. M., for a Tract Missionary; S. M., for a Synodical Missionary; S. S. M., for a Sunday-School Missionary; P. M., for a Presbyterial Missionary; F. M., for a Foreign Missionary; Pres., for the President of a College; Chan., for a Chancellor; Prof., for a Professor of a College or Theological Seminary; Prin., for the Principal of an Academy, etc.; Sec., for a Secretary, and D. Sec., for a District Secretary, of a Benevolent Institution; Ag., for an Agent of do.; Ch., for a Chaplain; Tea., for a Teacher; Ed., for an Editor; Ev., for an Evangelist; H. R., for a Minister honorably retired; W. C., for other Ministers without charge; Col., for a Colporteur; Com., for a Commissioner; and Supt., for a Superintendent.

(5.) Place after the name of every Church the abbreviations, P., for one that has a Pastor; P. E., for one that has a Pastor Elect; S. S., for one that has a Stated Supply; or V., for one that is Vacant.

(6.) If a church fail to report, let the "whole number" of communicants be given as reported to the Synod, or to the last Assembly, with an asterisk (*) in the column of communicants, denoting the fact.

(7.) In the additions to the Church, distinguish between those on examination and those on certificate; in the baptisms, between the adults and the infants; and be careful to observe the order of the columns in which these particulars are recorded.

(8.) In the report of "Funds" contributed observe the order of the columns, and the directions of the Assembly of 1871 (p. 589) as modified by the Assemblies of 1873 and 1874, as follows:

1. Home Missions. To include all moneys collected for the purpose, whether for the Board, or for any Home Missionary operation, including Mission schools, carried on in connection with the Presbyterian Church. 2. Foreign Missions. To include all contributions for the spread of the gospel in foreign lands. 3. Education. To include all that is given for the education of Candidates for the Ministry, whether to the Board or otherwise; for Theological Seminaries, Presbyterian Colleges, Academies, and Parochial Schools. 4. Publication Missionary Fund. To include all moneys contributed to the Board for their Missionary work, and for Synodical and Presbyterial Depositaries. 5. Church Erection. To include all contributions for Church Erection, outside of the congregation, whether through the Board, or otherwise. 6. Relief Fund. To include all moneys contributed for the support of disabled Ministers, and to aid the families of deceased Ministers. 7. Freedmen. To include all moneys contributed to the evangelization and education of Freedmen, whether through the Board, or otherwise. 8. General Assembly. To include all given for Assembly expenses. 9. Sustentation. Contributions to the Board of Home Missions for Pastoral Sustentation. 10. Congregational. To include all moneys contributed for the congregation, the salary of the minister, the support of the parish Sunday-schools, the relief of the poor of the congregation, building and repairing churches, liquidation of debts, and current expenses. 11. Miscellaneous. To include all other collections for Bible and Tract Societies, etc., and for general benevolence.

Be sure to omit the fractions of the dollar, except in the General Assembly column.

(9.) The names of the Licentiates are to be recorded immediately after the list of Ministers, in the same column, with their Address in the next column; but, of the Candidates—including all who are studying for the ministry under the care of the Churches of the Presbytery—the number only is to be given.

(10.) ☞ADD UP☜ every column of figures, and Authenticate the Report with your signature.

(11.) Annex a Statement, of the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dissolutions of pastoral relations, organizations, reception and dissolution of Churches; also, any changes in the names of Churches; and the decease (with age, date, and place) of Ministers since the last Annual Report.

(12.) Avoid erasures or interlineations, make names and numbers distinctly legible, and punctuate properly, carefully revising the Report when completed, to see that all these directions are complied with.

(13.) Affix no extraneous matter, such as memoranda, explanations, or orders for the delivery of the printed Minutes of the Assembly; let these be given on a separate sheet.

☞ If any thing should prevent the forwarding of the Statistical Report in time for the meeting of the General Assembly, let it be sent, as soon as possible—not later than June 1st—by mail, to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, No. 149 West Thirty-fourth street, New-York City.

VI. STANDING ORDERS.

1. The General Assembly meets invariably on the third Thursday of May, annually, at 11 o'clock A.M.

2. The credentials of Commissioners and Delegates are to be presented at a previous hour of the same day, or of the preceding day, according to public notice, to the Stated and Permanent Clerks, acting as a Standing Committee on Commissions.

3. The Lord's Supper is to be celebrated by the Assembly on the evening of Thursday, the first day of their sessions.

4. The evening of Friday, the second day of the sessions, is assigned to a popular meeting in behalf of the Sabbath-school interest of the Church.

5. The evening of the first Tuesday of the sessions is appropriated to the consideration of the Home Mission Work of the Church.

6. The evening of the first Wednesday of the sessions is appropriated, in like manner, to the Foreign Mission Work of the Church.

7. The evening of the second Thursday of the sessions is assigned for the reception of Delegates from Corresponding Bodies.

ON

Home Missions

OF THE

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The Board of Home Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, beg leave to present its Fourth Annual Report to the General Assembly.

We desire, before all other things, to acknowledge the mercy and loving kindness of the Great King and Head of Zion to the Board, the missionaries, their families and fields of labor, and for the measure of success and prosperity enjoyed in the support and extension of the Gospel throughout our great country.

Before entering upon the work of the last year, it will be profitable to recall the attention of the Church to the wonderful dealings of God in the Home Mission work in our past history. From the first settlement of the Presbyterian Church on this continent, it has regarded itself as a Missionary body, and this country as its great mission field. The work of aiding feeble congregations, and the sending out and supporting missionaries in the new settlements and the frontiers, was conducted, at first, directly by the Presbytery,—later by the Synod,—and afterwards by the General Assembly itself. The work grew so rapidly, that in 1802 the Assembly appointed "The Standing Committee of Missions." In 1816, this Standing Committee was raised to a "Commission," styled "The Board of Missions," with larger powers, and charged with a wider field of operations.
